(From the Canadian Monthly's Scrap-Book.)
Into whatsoever house you enter in remain master of your eyes and your tongue.
"Talk about the jaws of death!" exclaimed a man who had a termagant wife. "I tell you they're nothing to the jaws of life!"
Whenever you find a great deal of gratitude in a poor man, you may take it for granted that there would be as much generosity if he were a rich man.
When Moses wore a heavenly radiance, "he wist not that his face shone." The best people are those who have the least to say about their own goodness.
A handbill announcing a temperance picnic was conspicuously headed "N. B." "Take notice, I suppose," said a man who stopped to read it. "Oh, no," replied his friend—"No beer!"
A traveller says he saw an English family stop before Titian's "John the Baptist," and heard the father sum up his impression in one sentence, "Quite my idea of the party's character."

A short time since, as a regiment headed by its band marched by, a little boy, standing at the window with his mother, said, "I say, ma, what is the use of all those soldiers who don't play?"
We are all sculptors and painters; our material is our own flesh and blood and bones. Any nobleness at once begins to refine a man's features, any meanness or sensuality to imbrute them.
"We wish," says a Texas newspaper, "that a few of our citizens could be permitted to live till they die a natural death, so as to show the world what a magnificently healthy country Texas really is."

The wisest man may be wiser to-day than he was yesterday, and to-morrow than he is to-day. Total freedom from change would imply total freedom from error; but this is the prerogative of Omniscience alone.

The man who professes to believe that evil is the only underside of good, the dark side of the moon, and properly a component part of human life, will never have the satisfaction of dying from inflammation of the brain.

All things must change. Friends must be torn asunder and swept along in the current of events, to see each other seldom, and, perchance, no more. For ever and ever in the eddies of time and accident we whirl away.

There are two little girls of the same name in New London, Conn. The other night one of them said her prayers, and for fear they would be credited to the other child, she added, after the Amen, "No. 10, Orange Street."

An old Bridgeport (Conn.) woman, who had pasted nearly five thousand medical recipes in a book during the past forty years, having never been sick a day in her life, is growing discouraged; some people are born to ill luck, she says.

SCENE IN A PARIS RESTAURANT.—Customer: "Waiter, I can't get on with this lobster; it's as hard as flint." Waiter: "Beg pardon, sir. A slight mistake. That's the papier mache lobster out of the show case! Shall I change it?"

A Georgia colored debating was lately discussing: "Which is best for the laboring man, to work for wages or part of the crop?" An old "uncle" spoke the sense of the meeting when he said: "Bofe was de best, ef dey could only be brung together somehow."

We all love pleasure and abhor sorrow. No one will choose a cloudy sky and a rough path; but these evils have their good parts and those who really long for peace and happiness will try to find out and extract them instead of hurrying along resentfully or with forced gaiety.

HOME RULE.—The O'Finigan—"Badad, sorr, we were pestered wid those rascally spies of Government reporters at our meeting last night." The O'Brady—"Rimints of Tory barbarism, sorr. Be more careful, sorr; stand at the door, and don't let a man in unless he comes himself."—Pun.

Christianity means to the merchant that he should be honest; to the judge that he should be just; to the servant that he should be faithful; to the schoolboy, that he should be diligent; to the street-sweeper, that he should sweep clean; to every worker, that his work shall be well done.

The boy who doesn't leap over seven hitching posts, kick a lame dog, snatch a handful of navy beans in front of every grocery store, knock over a box or two, and work the handle of every pump on the sidewalk on his way home from school, is either lazy or doesn't feel well.—Atlantic Monthly.

Charles Lamb was at a dinner party, and a lady, who talked to him incessantly, sat next to him. At last she said, "I don't think, Mr. Lamb, that you will be any the better for what I've been saying." "N-n-no!" he replied, "but my neighbor on the other side will, for it went in at one ear and out at the other."

The following conversation was lately overheard on the beach at Treport between two children who were playing in the sand together. The small boy said to the little girl: "Do you wish to be my little wife?" The little girl, after reflection: "Yes —" The small boy: "Then take off my boots!"

Old lady (on donkey): "Boy, boy, isn't this very dangerous?" Boy: "Very dangerous indeed marm. There was a lady a-ridin' up here, last year, and the donkey fell, and the lady was clucked over the cliff and killed. Old lady: "Good gracious! Was the donkey killed, too?" "No, marm;" that the very donkey."

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all Druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 40,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your Druggist about it. Sample Bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

CATARRH. Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.—DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite clear of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.
