Giants Open Home Stand By Defeating Reds 5-2; Tribe Halts Yankees 8-4

NEW YORK, June 16—Back home from a disastrous road trip, the Giants opened their Polo Grounds stand successfully today, turning back Cincinnati Reds 5-2 behind Carl Hubbell's seven-hit pitching. Turning in his eighth victory of the year, Hubbell shut out the Reds in all but the third inning, when Ival Gooden's single, Kiki Cuyler's two-bagger and Dick Eartell's error accounted for all the Cincinnati runs.

Van Lingle Mungo, making his first start since his recent one-man revolution, was belted from the mound at Brooklyn as the Pittsburgh Pirates opened their current road trip with a 9-2 victory over the Dodgers.

Mungo held the Bucs hitless for five innings and runless for six but was clubbed out by Pirates' five-run scoring spree in the seventh. Chicago Cubs added timely hitting to steady pitching at Philadelphia to win their 12th consecutive victory by subduing the Phillies 4-1.

Larry French, completing his 13th successive game, was complete master in the pinches, and his mates staged a two-run uprising in the fifth to break a 1-1 tie and put the Cubs into a lead.

"Tiny Jim" Chaplain, Boston Bees' tall pitcher, had the Cardinals biting at will at Boston, and the Hub nine, home after a disastrous road trip, whipped the "gas house gang," 10-4, to open a 17-game home stay.

Chaplain, hurling by far his best game of the season, mowed down the Cardinals with ease in the first six innings.

NEW YORK, June 16—The Indians made the opener of the league-leading New York Yankees' western invasion an unsuccessful one today, clubbing Lefty Gomez from the mound and going on to an 8-4 victory at Cleveland.

Not even Lou Gehrig's 13th and 10th round-trip a'out for Bill Dicksey, back in the lineup for the first time since he was injured in Boston two weeks ago, could stop the Indians.

For Gomez, it was the fifth time in his last six starts that he failed to go the route. He was charged with the defeat.

Two long home runs by Jimmy Foxx, his 15th and 16th of the season, were not enough against the White Sox today as Chicago pounded Bob Grove from the mound and beat Boston 4-2 at Chicago.

Foxx hit his first homer over the roof of the left field pavilion in the fourth. It was the second time he accomplished this feat and he is the only player in baseball ever to hit a ball over the far distant stand in a home park.

The Browns opened a long home stay in defeat today as Philadelphia Athletics won 9-14. The Browns got away to an early 4-0 lead but Jack Knott was unable to hold it and his successors on the mound, Hogssett, Andrews and Mahaffey also were touched briskly.

Frank Higgins hit a home run off Knott with two on in the fourth inning and Frank Hayes parked one in the bleachers in the seventh but the bases were empty.

Tigers lost their fourth consecutive game when pinch-batter Carl Reynolds blasted out a 10th inning home run with two mates on base at Detroit to give Washington Senators a 9-8 victory. The Tigers could match only two of those runs in their half, one of them on Billy Rogell's home run with no one on base. The defeat dropped Detroit into a tie with the Senators for fourth place.

Jonny Stone got a circuit clout for the Senators in the second with the bases empty.

Baseball's Big Six

The major league "big six" in hitting bunched up yesterday, with less than 30 percentage points separating the highest from the lowest. The distance was closed up through the losses suffered by both the leaders, Billy Sullivan of the Indians, who dropped 13 points to 384 by going hitless in four times at bat, and Stu Martin of the Cardinals, who got but one safe blow in four times up, sinking to .376. At the same time, the third place men in each league were picking up ground, Lou Gehrig of the Yankees getting two hits in three chances and Baxter Jordan of the Bees collecting two for five.

The standings (three leading hitters in each league):

Marksmen Will Gather Tonight

Crack marksmen from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick will be arriving this evening to compete tomorrow with Island riflemen in the 7th renewal of the blue ribbon event of the season—the inter-Maritime rifle shoot.

Both sister provinces, according to advance reports, will be represented by strong teams comprising the best shots from the various ranges in the Atlantic region. Much is expected of the Island team, selected with a good deal of care and after careful practice competition.

The meet will be shot over the Kensington Range.

Louis Top Heavy Favorite For Bout Thursday Night; Fighters Wind-up Training

(By Eddie Brietz, Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 16—As Max Schmeling and Joe Louis wound up training today for their 15-round heavyweight fight in the Yankee Stadium Thursday night, there were these important developments on the New York front:

The State Athletic Commission called a special meeting tomorrow to discuss the demands of the Schmeling camp that the hands of both fighters be bandaged in the ring instead of in the dressing rooms.

Julian Black, one of Louis' managers, blasted the suggestion and said he would fight it to the limit.

Black Irked
"I'll abide by any rules the commission lays down," said Black, "but I certainly am not going to keep Joe sitting in the ring for 45 minutes while his hands are taped if I can help it."

Although the clear warm weather brought a boom in ticket sales, it became increasingly apparent that the gate would not hit the $1,000,000 mark.

The $40 top seats are moving briskly enough, but there are terrific gaps in the $27.50, $16.50 and $11.50 sections.

With only two days to go, promoter Mike Jacobs took steps to start things moving in these brackets by taking several thousand of the less choice $11.50 seats and throwing them on the market at $7.50 per.

Last Workouts
Trained to the minute and keyed to a high pitch, Schmeling and Louis took their last serious drills at Lakewood and Napanoch today.

A crowd of 1,500 turned out to see the Brown Bomber step five hats with three spar-mates in his last dress rehearsal. Joe will rest until he leaves Lakewood Thursday morning for the weighing in ceremonies at the New York Hippodrome.

Louis is in the best shape of his life, his handlers said, and they added the colored lad will be sent with instructions to flatten Max in one round if possible.

No Definite Plan
Schmeling, who has insisted all along that he had a definite plan for fighting Louis, that he knew the negro's weakness and would map his attack accordingly, did a right-about-face today and admitted after a light workout he has no concrete offensive or defensive plan in mind.

"First, I am going to see what Louis has," said the German. "Then I'll fight back accordingly. I know Louis' style and I am not going to fall for any of his tricks."

Schmeling will do five miles of roadwork and call it a day. He'll motor into New York Thursday morning.

In an effort to stimulate the light betting, Broadway book-makers today were quoting these varied prices:

"Even money Louis wins by a knockout in four rounds; 8 to 5 the fight doesn't go six rounds; 2 to 1 it doesn't last 10 rounds; 5 to 1 Louis wins by a knockout and 8 to 1 the negro wins a decision."

Superiors Win Game From Irish 17-15

On a greasy field that made air-tight fielding an impossibility the Superiors softball team came from behind to defeat the Shamrocks by score of 17-15. Trailing by five runs in the fifth the Superiors staged a two inning uprising in the sixth and eighth to push ten runs across the plate and top the verdict.

Two of the Superiors' runs came on circuit blows by Innis and Jay. Rice and Rockwell, starting pitchers were both relieved. Errors by the Superiors were kept down to a minimum while the Shamrocks totalled 18.

The game between Stewarts and Hi-Y Grads scheduled last evening for the Gaytown diamond was postponed.

Rovers and Superiors meet this evening at the Victoria Park at 6.15.

Upsets Feature Opening Day's Race Meet At Ascot

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
ASCOT, England, June 16—(C. P. Cable)—Ascot week opened today in brilliant sunshine and an enormous, fashionable crowd gathered at the track to see a number of long shots romp home in front.

The climax of the day's upsets came when Lord Astor's Rhodes Scholar, winner of the Aga Kahn's Mahmud, winner of the Derby, by five lengths in the St. James's Palace Stakes.

Although lacking the presence of Royalty, the meet opened before one of the smartest and largest crowds since the war. (Owing to court mourning, King Edward and other members of the Royal Family did not attend.)

Trainers were delighted with the perfect condition of the course. The well-backed horses made a dismal start. Sir Abe Bailey's Valerian, a 20 to 1 shot, won the opening event, the Prince of Wales Stakes.

Major J. B. Walker's Bouldnor won the Prince of Wales Stakes, at a similar price. Bouldnor had a margin of two lengths over Coup de Roi with Blue Girl third, a short head further back. The latter two were quoted at 33 to 1 in the two-mile event.

Things were brighter for the bookies when Lord Astor's Early School won the Coventry Stakes. Early School was second favorite at 11 to 4 for this five-furlong event.

The outsiders had another turn when James de Rothschild's Rowie won the Gold Vase. Rowie, starting at 2 to 1, led the 2 to 1 favorite, A. Gordon Smith's Fearless Fox, by 1 1/2 lengths at the finish of the two-mile distance. The Duke of Norfolk's Bel Aethel, starting at 100 to 9, finished third, two lengths further back.

Rondo paid odds of 158 to 1 in the totalizator. Following this, the crowd greeted with loud cheers the victory of a favorite as J. H. Whitney's Night Song captured the Queen Mary Cup, at five furlongs for two-year-old fillies. Night Song started at 4 to 1. The Aga Kahn's Hindoo Holiday at 8 to 1 registered a thrilling win in the sixth race, leading by a short head over Caymanas. Young England was third.

The St. James's Palace Stakes saw Rhodes Scholar, carrying seven pounds less than Mahmud, race to a five-lengths victory over the grey colt which won the Derby for the Aga Kahn. Rhodes Scholar was quoted at 2 to 1. Mahmud was odds-on-favorite at 8 to 11. Sir George Bullough's Dayona was third in the one-mile race.

Providing weather conditions are favorable the Dodgers and Summerside Pioneers will hook up in an exhibition senior baseball game this evening at 6 o'clock at Victoria Park. A return tilt will be played in Summerside on Friday.

The attendance and support given the boys at tonight's game will go a long way towards aiding in the formation of inter-mural league which will include two teams from each of the centres. The following is the probable lineup:

Pioneers: Dodds c. Schurman and Durant p. Steele 1b. C. Ward 2b. P. McCabe 3b. W. Durant ss. Millman cf. Larkin lf. LeBlanc rf.

Dodgers: Larier c. Robin and McCallum p. Steele 1b. Williams 2b. McCallum 3b. MacDougall ss. "Pomp" Bolger lf. Doyle cf. Bradley rf.

League Totals: American 270; National 234, total 504.

HOME RUN STANDING

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
Yesterday's Homers: Foxx, Red Sox 2; Gehrig, Yankees 2; Dickey, Yanks; Reynolds, Senators; Stone, Senators; Rogell, Tigers; Hayes, Athletics; Higgins, Athletics, one each.

The Leaders: Foxx, Red Sox 16; Gehrig, Yanks 14; Trosky, Indians 14; Ott, Giants 12; Goslin, Tigers 10; Dickey, Yanks, 10.

League Totals: American 270; National 234, total 504.
