A CARLETON says Sir John A. Macdonald is almost entirely recovered from his late indisposition. His appearance is greatly improved, and the treatment by Sir Andrew Clarke has given him a new lease of life. He has satisfactorily settled his public and private business, and intends leaving England for Canada on the 22nd inst.

THE Bazaar in Market Hall in aid of St. Joseph's Convent was last evening the centre of attraction. It was opened by His Lordship, Bishop McIntyre. His Grace, the Archbishop of Halifax, Lieutenant Governor Macdonald, and a large number of the Roman Catholic clergy of the Diocese were in attendance. During the evening the hall was uncomfortably crowded with people; sales at the various tables were brisk; and a handsome amount was realized. This evening the bazaar is continued, and though many attractive articles were taken, there is still a splendid assortment on hand. As the bazaar will close to-night, great bargains may be expected. We therefore advise all who wish to secure valuable fancy goods to be in attendance.

Victoria Notes.

On the evening of the 4th inst., quite a number of persons assembled in this village to witness the launch of the beautiful new schooner just completed, and owned by J. W. Sturdy of this place. Just about dusk, the anxiety of the spectators was fully appeased by seeing as pretty a launch as could possibly be. Everything passed off quietly and well. Mr. Sturdy has spared neither expense nor trouble in making this schooner, which is of an excellent model, a first class craft. We heartily wish our enterprising townsman, Mr. Sturdy, every success with his new schooner, and hope that he may be amply rewarded for his trouble and expense.

There has been opened of late in our village, a drug store, which supplies a want long felt in this vicinity. A regular drug store, with a first class chemist and druggist such as the experienced proprietor of the Victoria Drug Store, T. M. Doyle, is just what the doctor ordered.

We learn that the Rev. Mr. Johnston, the worthy Rector of St. John's Church, is again about to open his Reading Room for the benefit of all who wish to become members, and improve their spare hours during the long winter evenings. We know the young men and ladies of this community will appreciate and take advantage of Mr. Johnston's zealous efforts in thus providing them with amusement during the winter evenings, and we hope that none of our young men will, through carelessness or dilatoriness, waste precious time on trifles light as air, while this, another opportunity of improving their mental faculties is being extended to them—or in other words—trample under their feet the pearls presented to them. We expect to see the Reading Room well filled on each evening by both young and old, and we feel assured that our expectations in this respect will be fully realized.

Onward Division of the Sons of Temperance has again assembled its members, and again the dealers in the ardent begin to tremble; for they well know what they may expect if they persist in carrying on their illicit traffic. Our temperance men in this vicinity are zealous in the temperance cause. They are not of those who, putting their hands to the plough, look back. Hence the unpardonable fact that to-day our village is free—or almost so—of the vice traffic. And to some of our temperance heroes—(I may call them) is due the praise for this state of affairs. They are not men who stick at trifles; on the contrary, they would sacrifice, and perhaps some of them, or whatever might stand in their way, to the cause of temperance.

We notice to-day in many shops in our village the card of J. F. Covey, M. D., who intends holding forth for the present at Crapaud Corner. We wish him all success.

Dominica Wants to Join the United States.

DOMINICA, W. I., Nov. 10.—The legislative assembly has adopted a resolution to the effect that the only solution of the present difficulties in the way of admitting products to the United States will be to cede the island to America, and memorializing the British government to allow this course.

The following letter was received by Governor Cleveland from Wm. H. Vanderbilt:—Hon. Grover Cleveland: My Dear Sir,—I congratulate you and the people of the whole country upon your election to the Presidency of the United States. You owe your election, in my judgment, to the fact that the people believed you to be an honest man, and not to any particular efforts made by any faction of either the Democratic or Republican parties. Independent men, who care more for good government than for parties or individuals, have made you their choice, because they were convinced that your administration would not be for the benefit of any political organization or favored persons, but for the interest of the whole people. This is just the result which is most desired. We have reached a time when party amounts to little. The country is above all, and wants an honest Government by honest men. The belief that we will find it in you has led to your election. Yours very truly, W. H. VANDERBILT, New York, Nov. 7, 1884.

A great sensation is caused by the rumor that the Earl of Durham, a great landowner, an incipient politician, and the bearer of an illustrious name, is about to bring an action for a judicial separation from his wife. She is a very beautiful woman, and it was only the other day all the town was talking about the generosity of the bridegroom in making her a present of £60,000 worth of jewellery in addition to the heirlooms in the family. The cause assigned is the discovery that the unhappy lady is mentally unsound, and opinions differ as to the rights and wrongs of the business. Some persons blame the husband, others declare that he was wilfully deceived by his wife's relatives.

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE WORKS AT STOUCHBURG, PA.—NONE OF THE WORKMEN LEFT TO TELL THE TALE—SIX MEN KILLED TEN MILES DISTANT.

READING, PA., Nov. 6.—The dynamite works of H. W. Stump & Co., three-quarters of a mile from Stouchburg, a village of 500 inhabitants, blew up this afternoon, shaking up the country 10 to 20 miles around. The works consisted of five frame buildings, the timbers of which were sent flying in all directions, nothing remaining but the foundations. All the men in the buildings were killed, so the cause of the explosion will never be known. The buildings contained an unusual quantity of dynamite, hence the terrific shock, which was heard as far east as Reading, nearly twenty miles away. Windows were broken in many houses in Stouchburg; people were knocked off their feet, and mirrors and pictures were shaken of the walls. A church and several houses were unroofed. The victims were literally blown to atoms. At Robertson, ten miles from Stouchburg, a number of masons were working at the bottom of Ferguson & Co.'s furniture stack, which they were relining with new fire brick. The stack was probably 100 feet high, and the work was nearly complete. Ten, some say fifteen men were in the stack, some at the bottom and others in the scaffolding above. Just as the shock of the dynamite explosion was felt, the stack quivered, and there was a rumbling noise, followed immediately by a great deluge of bricks, completely burying seven men in the bottom of the stack.

The latest victim of the Fall Mill Gazette interviewer is Blondin. His real name is Gravelle, but his first manager insisted that this could not be billed, and he got his now universally known name from the color of his hair. He declares that a rope walker is born not made. He is the son of a gymnast, and was a rope walker at four years old. He has never felt fear, even when he was crossing the Niagara for the first time. He still performs every year; generally charges £100 a night, and prefers to display abroad, as he has not to use a netting, which he hates. He is always well in spite of his sixty years, except that he gets occasional twinges of lumbago when he is idle.

DIED.

At Charlottetown, November 11th, after a short illness, Grace, beloved wife of James Pucher, aged 63 years. The deceased was a person who possessed many of those amiable virtues which are so ornamental to the female character. In her life she exemplified all the features and solid worth of a devoted wife and loving mother. To know her was but to love and respect her. While we sorrow most of all that we shall see her face no more, we do not sorrow as those who have no hope. She sleeps in Jesus. May God comfort the bereaved husband and family in the home where she was so much beloved and admired, but now greatly missed.

[Funeral from her late residence, Hillsborough Street, Saturday, at 2 p m]
