

Vote Interval Is 294 Days

OTTAWA (CP)—When Canadians vote in the April 8 general election, it will mark the second time since Confederation that general elections have been held 294 days apart. The other 294-day interval between elections was from June 10, 1872, to March 31, 1958.

ANCIENT SCHOLARS

Clay tablets found in Iraq indicate schoolboys were learning about the hypothesis of a right triangle in about 2,000 B.C.

Helpers in Jesus' Ministry

After Christ had given his disciples some training, he sent them out on their first missionary journeys. He wanted them to go to encourage, exhort and complement each other's personalities, and forbade them to take extra clothes or money—Mark 6:7-13.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

King Herod heard of their activities with dismay. He had been tricked by his wife into killing John the Baptist, and he was now sure that John had been raised from the dead to perform all these extra miracles—Mark 6:16-28.

When his disciples returned, weary, Christ took them in a boat to a quiet place to rest, but by the time they landed the "quiet" place was surrounded with five thousand persons. Christ took compassion and taught them.

Christ then sent his disciples ahead of him in a boat to another spot. A stiff wind arose and the weary disciples could scarcely row. Christ walked across the water to them, stilling the wind—Mark 6:45-51.

CARD SALESMAN BOUNCES BACK

was run down by an auto nine days ago while making the rounds of his neighborhood offering his exciting cards for sale. The little salesman's injuries included double skull fracture, torn liver, four broken these hands in prayer with fingers gently poised as ten cathedral towers in humble supplication gently now reposed, hands that have soothed the infant's cry, or, in love, caressed the wrinkled brow of care, now lifted up in prayer! These praying hands are yours and mine, in church, at work, or home, wherever you may be, hands that speak unfeignedly by space, or haste, or time. Soar high, we ask thy guidance in hour of trial for, we are thine!
