The Children's Carnival.

THE Carnival in the Excelsior Rink last night, although ostensibly a children's affair, was taken part in by a large number of grown folk of both sexes, and was even more successful than its predecessor. As a result, doubtless, of our friendly criticism of the preceding Carnival, the costumes last night were selected with greater taste, and much more attention was displayed in attending to details. While some of the costumes were familiar, the great bulk of them were new and becoming, a fact which the large number of spectators were not slow to notice and appreciate. The characters were in almost every instance well sustained. We regret that the space at our disposal to-day will not admit of an extended criticism, and we must therefore content ourselves with a passing glance at the most striking characters. The "Girl Graduate" looked charming, the costume being one which was eminently well suited to the wearer's style of beauty. "England" was also an excellent representation, and never before did the old "Union Jack" enclose a more interesting possession within its borders. "Starlight" and "Harvest" were also capitally impersonated, and much admired. The "Telephone Girl" and "Butterfly," the first-named a new feature at Carnivals here, looked splendid. "Old Mother Hubbard," with her dog, for whom she is doubtless still in search of a bone, was a general favorite with the spectators. The "Flower Girl" was a prominent and attractive feature, the costume being exceedingly becoming. The "Pond Lilies" were in full bloom, and looked charming, nothwithstanding the severe weather we have had of late. The "Young Lady, Time of Louis XII.," was also a charming impersonation. The three "Curios" in rubber circulars, as well as several others to whom we would like to refer did space permit, excited some comment. The care and attention bestowed upon their costumes last evening, clearly indicates that the ladies, at least, are not slow to take advantage of what is beautiful in art as well as in nature. Mrs. McGinty's get up was very good, indeed; and her troubles with the young McGinty—a chip off the old block—were exceedingly mirth-provoking. "Emily Snowball," the giddy Southern belle, turned her attention to the capturing of a white "mash," and secured a veteran Tobogganer, who has hitherto been looked upon as impregnable to female charms. The "Chestnut Gong," was also good and was rung with no uncertain sound on the few "chestnuts" present. "Senator Edmunds," the retaliating United States "donkey," was capital and reminded the spectators very forcibly of a recent cartoon in Harper's Weekly. The "Esquimault" was another good character, the costume this time being complete. The "Indian Chief's" costume was also complete, and its wearer looked exceedingly warlike. "The terrible effects of intemperance" were well represented; but as the skater retired rather early in the evening, some of those present were unkind enough to hint that "the bottle did its work." The "Highland Laddies," with their kilts, were much admired. "Punch" with his familiar hump and twang, delighted the juveniles and amused the old folk. The "Cavalier's" costume was a handsome one and was favorably commented upon, as was also that worn by "Priscilla." There were also a profusion of clowns, sailors, jockeys, dancing boys, peasants, Chinamen, etc., etc., who contributed much to the success of the Carnival, and to whom we would like to refer more minutely, but regret that we cannot do so just now. We regret this the more because many of those whom we are obliged to pass over are as well deserving of honorable mention as those we have noticed. Following are the names of those who handed in their cards :—

THE publishers of the Week, of Toronto, offer in connection with the approaching Jubilee two prizes of a hundred dollars each for the best poem and oration on the Queen's Jubilee, to be competed for under the following conditions. The poem not to exceed one hundred lines. The oration not to exceed three thousand words. The competing poems and orations must bear on them a motto and be accompanied by a sealed envelope marked with the motto and enclosing the name and address of writer. The competing poems and orations must be delivered at the Week office, Toronto, not later than May 1st next; which paper will reserve the right of publication of both poem and oration and which will award the prizes and be judge of the fulfilment of the conditions.

IF the Grits ceased abusing and handled the facts
They would do what their party creed never enacts.

WE are pleased to learn that the stock sent by Dr. Jenkins to his ranch in the Northwest is doing very well. The yearling colt by Beacon out of Allen McPhee's Royal Harry mare is considered by Mr. Geddes, the doctor's partner, to be by far the best colt in the Northwest. At the Fort McLeod Exhibition last fall, Royal Harry took first prize in the stallion class and Young Hameltonian took first money in the trotting race. We congratulate Dr. Jenkins on his success as a stockman.

SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD and Party will win,
To elect Grits at present would be a great sin.

THE CAMPAIGN

Meetings at the West

ALBERTON, Feb. 18.

A large meeting was held at Campbellton last night. The electors present were almost unanimous in favor of Hackett and Lefurgy. Senator Howlan got a warm reception from his old friends, whom he roused to rally around the Liberal Conservative party.

The last meeting of the campaign will be held to-night at Palmer's Road.

Everything looks well all along the line.

The meeting at Centre Line Road yesterday was a decided victory in favor of Hackett and Lefurgy.

SIR CHARLES IN ST. JOHN.

MONTREAL, Feb. 18.

The Grit blizzard of blackguardism has been succeeded by a cyclone of falsehoods which are telegraphed all over the country in order to keep up drooping spirits of the organized hypocrisy. The first having ignominiously failed, they evidently hope to bewilder electors with latter tactics; but "truth crushed to earth will rise again on Tuesday next, and assert itself with tremendous force as it did in 78 and 82.

Dupont and Gigault, elected by acclamation, whom the Grits claim as supporters of Blake, are stumping Quebec for the Government. They also claim Ross and O'Meara as opponents of the Government. Ross telegraphs as follows to Sir John :—

WINNIPEG, Feb. 16.

"Regarding Globe's classification of me, I am a strong supporter of yours, and was elected as such in face of strong opposition from local Grit papers. I will continue to support the Government, thinking its policy much better for the country than that of the Opposition.

(Signed) A. W. Ross."

Mr. O'Meara telegraphed from Kamloops under date 16th inst., that he was elected by acclamation, and hopes his seat in the House of Commons may be as near as possible to the seat occupied by Sir John.

Besides constituencies mentioned yesterday as abandoned by the Grits, they have not nominated party candidates for Soulanges. This makes twenty-three seats already secured to the Government against four to Blake. It is almost as bad as it was four years ago, when they allowed thirty seats to go by default.

Archbishop Taché signed the nomination papers of Hon. Mr. Royal, the Conservative for Provencher.

The opposition to Sir John, in Carleton, to the Hon. Thos. White, Hon. Mr. Bowell, Hon. Mr. Kirkpatrick, to Ward, Haggart, Bell, Ferguson and Tyrhwitts is purely factious. The Grits also concede that Sir John will redeem Kingston, while Blake will be defeated in West Durham.

TORONTO, Feb. 18.

There never was so much excitement here over an election contest. Thousands of Catholics, manufacturers and workingmen, who supported Mowatt are as enthusiastically working for the Government and the National Policy now.

There is no more probability of Ontario going back on the N. P., than there is of Mr. Blake's flying.

QUEBEC, Feb. 18.

The Mercury to-night discloses a boodle scheme rivalling that of New York. A. C. Langelier, brother of the Mayor, and a prominent Grit, together with other members of the party of purity, are proven to have accepted bribes in connection with the waterworks. The affair causes a great sensation, and will be the death knell of the Grits of this city.

MONCTON, Feb. 18.

The English and Irish people of Westmoreland are greatly exasperated at the arrival of the Rielite missionaries from Quebec, to incite the French Acadians against the Government for carrying out the law.

ST. JOHN, Feb. 18.

Sir Charles Tupper received a magnificent reception here. He addressed two thousand five hundred people last evening, and for two hours poured hot shot and shell into the organized hypocrisy.

BOSAYLER, Feb. 17.

It is reported here that Mr. Laird has been sent to the Northwest by Mr. L. H. Davies, for fear of the injury he would do Mr. D. in Queen's County, owing to his great upopularity in his native Province. Mr. Laird's friends here feel very sore at Davies' treachery in deliberately sending Laird to be slaughtered.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 17.

McDowall addressed a meeting at Bresaylor a few nights ago, nearly every voter in the settlement for miles around being present. Notwithstanding the presence of Mr. Laird's henchman, who addressed the meeting until they were tired of listening to him, a resolution in favor of McDowall was unanimously passed. Canvassers for Mr. Laird had visited the settlement a few days previously and were unable to get one signature to Laird's nomination paper.
