

THE DAILY EXAMINER

AUGUST 3, 1898.

REWARDED IN TWO YEARS.

The appointment to office by the Laurier-Tarte Government during the past two years of ten members of the House of Commons and three Senators is made the text of a highly interesting article in the Belleville Intelligencer. In opposition, the Intelligencer points out, there was no theory or principle so vehemently condemned by the present men in power as that of appointing members of parliament to official positions to which salaries were attached. But now that they have been entrusted with power by a misguided electorate, there is no principle or professed principle, which has been so persistently and so flagrantly violated by them as that of appointing members of the two branches of parliament to office and places of emolument, thereby doing the very thing they formerly denounced as an evasion of the Independence of Parliament Act. Indeed, as the Intelligencer shows, the making of appointments of this character has become a fundamental plank in the Grit platform. Here is their record for the past two years, as given by the Intelligencer, and it will prove the charge to be only too true:—

1. Mr. Devlin, M. P., for the County of Ottawa, an uncompromising opponent of the Laurier School Settlement, was in open revolt, but had his lacerated principles placated by an appointment to an Emigration Agency in Ireland; salary, $2,500 per annum, travelling expenses, and other allowances.

2. Mr. Bechard, M. P. for the County of Iberville, was called to the Senate, salary $1000 per annum and mileage, as a reward for resigning his seat in the Commons to make way for Mr. Tarte, who had been defeated in Beauharnois at the general election.

3. Mr. King, M. P. for Queen's, N. B., for and in consideration of a seat in the Senate, $1000 a year and perquisites, resigned his seat in the Commons, in order that Mr. Blair, the Minister of Railways and Canals, might secure a seat, and thereby retain his portfolio in the Cabinet.

4. Hon. Mr. McLellan, Senator, considerably sacrificed his seat in the Senate for the Lieut. Governorship of New Brunswick, and $9,000 per annum, thereby creating a vacancy to be filled by Mr. King, who had patriotically given up his seat in the Commons to Mr. Blair.

5. Mr. Forbes, M. P. for Queen's, N. S., was less ambitious than others of his colleagues in the Commons. To make room for Mr. Fielding, who, like many of the new Cabinet, had no seat in Parliament, he accepted a preventive officership at $50 a year, but subsequently got a County Court Judgeship and a salary of $2,400 a year, a good price for the material secured.

6. Mr. Lavergne, M. P. for Drummond and Arthabaska, law partner of the Premier, accepted a Judgeship in the County of Ottawa, salary $4,000 a year, in lieu of a seat in the Cabinet, to which he thought himself entitled.

7. Mr. Langellier, M. P. for Quebec Centre, had his wrath appeased with a Superior Court Judgeship, salary $5,000 a year. This appointment is the least defensible of them all. Like a traitor he turned Queen's evidence, exposed his chief's failure to carry out his promise to appoint him Lieut. Governor of Quebec; and astonished the people by telling them he had to sell his private residence to meet liabilities incurred by him as an endorser of notes discounted in the Bank, to raise money to carry on the election campaign in the Province of Quebec, which had to be recouped by the party when it attained to power out of the public treasury by appointment to office. To accomplish this a vacancy on the Bench had to be made; hence Judge Jette was approached, and, like a good party man, descended from the Bench and accepted the Lieut. Governorship which had been promised to the immaculate member for Quebec Centre, M. Langellier. A clear case of rewarding and recouping a man for expenditures made to carry on elections.

8. Mr. Fiset M. P., for Rimouski, was promoted by the Senate, salary $1000, etc. This gentleman in times gone by rendered his party valuable service by introducing the murderer of Thos. Scott, Louis Riel, to the Clerk of the Commons, and having his name entered upon the roll of membership as the M. P. for Proveschier, Manitoba. The reward, though long in coming, has at last been bestowed.

9. Sir Oliver Mowat, Senator, is an admiring friend of the Hon. David Mills, who had legitimate claims to a seat in the Cabinet, but who was set aside for outsiders, and who consequently gave evidence of becoming a malcontent and likely to prove mischievous, had to be appeased in some way, so the Hon. Sir Oliver gracefully retired from the Senate and the Minister of Justiceship with its $7000 a year, and accepted the post of Lieut. Governor of Ontario. Salary $10,000 a year, house rent, secretary, and other items, free. The Hon. David became Minister of Justice, salary $7000 a year, and harmony prevails.

10. Mr. J. S. Lister, M. P., for Lambton West, better known as "Fighting Jim," had done yeoman service for his party and looked forward with laudable ambition to a seat among the chosen ones of the Cabinet, but was doomed to disappointment; there were too many of the little Provincial Premier, who had to be rewarded for influences brought to bear upon office holders and others over whom their official positions gave them control at the last election: hence James was set aside. This the Celtic blood that courses through his veins could not brook in silence. Mutterings deep and ominous, though not loud, were heard near and about the precincts of the Council Chamber. Though much had been done in the past by the doughty member for West Lambton, yet there was another job to perform, namely as Chairman of the Laurier Committee to inquire into and report upon the Government's purchase of the Drummond County Railway, and he did it well. It was in the interest of the party that a report should be made exculpating the Tarte-Blair, etc., etc., combination, from all blame; and this the gentleman with a promise of a Superior Court Judgeship in his pocket did, to the satisfaction of his masters, though it transpired in evidence that over $500,000 had been saved to the country through the action of the Senate, and that Mr. Tarte had told a falsehood in reference to the $30,000 purchase of the Patrie newspaper. The reward followed: Mr. James Lister, M. P., for West Lambton, is now a Judge of the Court of Appeal and has $5,000 a year. "Jim" will no longer roar like a prairie bovine on the iniquity of appointing M. P.'s to offices of honor and emolument. Oh, no! his goings in the future will be as those of the dove.

11. Mr. Cameron, M. P., for West Huron, who earned for himself the sobriquet of "Ananias," as a slight compensation for the large amount of money spent by him in aid of the "party of purity," for which he barely escaped disqualification by the Judge, and who was an uncertain quantity upon the Pukon-Mackenzie-Mann deal, had to be mollified in some way, so the Nor' West Governorship was dangled before his eyes—the bait took, he deserted his constituents and is now the honored representative of the Dominion Ministers at Government House, Regina, and a salary of $7,000, with a free house and pickings.

12. Mr. McInnes, Senator from New Westminster, whose whole political stock in trade had been the denunciation of Government's not giving British Columbia a representative in the Cabinet, had to be provided with a downy couch on which to rest his disappointed head, and a salve to heal his wounded ambition. He could not be taken into the Cabinet, he was of too small calibre, but he would do for a Lieut. Governor, and as such he now is comfortably ensconced in Government House, Victoria, B. C., rent free and $9,000 per annum. Happy man is McInnes, not caring a straw whether B. C. has a representative in the Cabinet or not. Such is his patriotism, until his term of office expires. Then—

13. Mr. Philippe A Choquette, M. P. for Montmagny, one of the most pronounced malcontents of the advanced Rouge party, a violent opponent of Tarte and his scheming to secure a second term in the Lieut. Governor's chair in Quebec, for the late Sir Adolphe Chapleau—an ally of Lange-lier and a caballer against Sir Henry Joly—has been silenced and his anger appeased by an appointment to the Superior Court Bench at Quebec and $5,000 a year so that for the present, at least, Sir Henry is safe from Rouge-Grit cabals.

How many more appointments are to be made time alone will tell. As the Intelligencer says the ship has already sprung a leak and the rats are seeking safe places with all possible despatch.

THE FARQUHARSON CABINET.

The New Provincial Premier, Hon. D. Farquharson has formed his Cabinet, but all the members have not been "sworn in." It is understood that the personnel is as follows:

- Hon. Donald Farquharson, premier.
 - Hon. E.C. Macdonald, Attorney-General.
 - Hon. James R. McLean, Commissioner of Public Works.
 - Hon. Angus McMillan, Provincial Treasurer and Commissioner of Crown and Public Lands.
- The other members are Hon. P. Sinclair, Hon. A. McLaughlin, Hon. James W. Richards, Hon. P. McNutt and Hon. B. Rogers.

HANGED FOR THE THEFT.

The Crime Clearly Proved—The Judge Was Affected.

The Halifax Recorder says: In the summer of 1827, in St. John, a lad named Burgan was detected in the act of burglary. On the 29th of January following a Court of General Goal Delivery was held for the County of St. John. Judge Ward Chipman presided. Burgan was arraigned to take his trial. The crime was clearly proved against him and he was sentenced to be hanged. Burgan, from his appearance, seemed to be not more than 18 years of age. The Judge in pronouncing sentence was deeply affected with the awfulness of the scene. Indeed the only person in the court who appeared to be unaffected was the prisoner himself. Though solemnly warned not to hope for a reprieve, and that his instant duty was to prepare to "meet his God" he exhibited every symptom of youthful appearance. On the 21st of February, just three weeks after his conviction, the awful sentence of the law was carried into effect. The youthful appearance of the prisoner, and his apparent ignorance of the heinousness of the crime which he had committed, excited great commiseration in the vast concourse which assembled to witness his execution. Amid the various spectators there was a large number of females, and it was deplored that there was so many whose curiosity could lead them to expose themselves to witness such an affecting sight.

Seems as if all the things we like disagree with us, and all the things we don't like, agree with us. Dyspepsia lurks in most of the good things we eat, and indigestion follows the gratification of appetite. Of course it isn't Nature's fault. Nature does the best she can, and if a man will only help her a little bit at the right time, he may eat what he likes and as much as he likes. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for people who are troubled with indigestion. Particularly for those in whom it manifests itself in the form of constipation. The "Pellets" are quick and easy in their action. They are in perfect harmony with Nature. They effect a permanent cure. You need take them regularly only a little while. After that, use them occasionally when you need them—when you have eaten anything that disagrees with you. They may be taken just as freely as you would take water or any other necessity of life. Once used they are always in favor.

The People are better Judges of Art than the Artists. ARISTOTLE.

The people are better judges of clothes than the tailors!
The least part of clothing is the fabric from which it is made, and the cut of it.
The most part is its expression, and its fitness to the wearer's taste, as well as its fit to his person.
The least part is all the tailor can provide in the selection of the suit.
The most part is what none but the prospective wearer can choose for himself.
A man's clothes are part of his identity, just as are his whiskers, his accent or his gait.
The tailor can only fit the form, but the owner of that form can clothe it, from ready-made "Fit-reform" garments, so as to fit his ideals also.
Half the Custom Tailor's price is enough for us—$10, $12, $15, $18, $20 per suit.

Character Counts
In Advertising

Wendell Philips once said in a lecture: "When you read the news in a morning paper, you have no notion of what happened till you look up to the paper's title."
That's just as true of advertising. You interpret what's written by what you know to be back of the telling.
We should like to say every day, till every body near and far should have read it, how well we can suit them in their Furniture wants. Nothing pleases us better, than to make prices within reach of modest means.
