THE NEWSPAPER.

In gown and slippers loosely dressed,
And breakfast brought,—a welcome guest,—
What is it gives the meal a zest?—
The Paper.

What is't informs the country round,
What's stole or stray'd, what's lost or found—
Who's born, or who's put under ground?
The Paper.

Who tells you all that's done and said,—
The fall of meat, the rise of bread,
And how the Yankees "go-a-head?"
The Paper.

What is it gives the price of stock,
Tells of the plans of the new dock,
And every ship that rounds "the rock?"
The Paper.

What speaks of thieves and purses taken,
And murders done and maids forsaken,
And price of butter, beef and bacon?—
The Paper.

What is it tells the farmer's loss,
Of oxen, cows, and sheep, and horse,
And how the tariff does him cross?—
The Paper.

Abroad, at home, infirm and stout,
In health, or raving with the gout,
None but "a spoon" can do without
The Paper.

Then if you would live "wide awake,"
Your mind both wise and happy make,
You either do, or now will take
The Paper.

VARIETIES.

Those persons who lived in Providence, Rhode Island, some twenty years ago, will remember an exemplary, but somewhat eccentric grocer, whose advertisements in the public journals were oftentimes of the most amusing description. Many of these, we remember, were at the time copied all over the States, and were wont to excite a great deal of merriment.

It is this tradesman, there is reason to believe, of whom the following circumstance is related:

"A layman in Providence, Rhode Island, who occasionally exhorted at evening meetings, thus expressed his belief in some doctrinal position he was assuming:

"'I am just as confident, brethren, that this is true, as I am, that there is flour in Alexandria; and that I know for certain; for I yesterday received from there a lot of three hundred barrels of fresh superfine, which I will dispose of as low as any person in town?'"

This may probably remind the reader of an inscription on one of the tomb stones in the cemetery of Pere la Chaise, at Paris:

"Here rests the body of Antoine——, aged," etc. "His disconsolate widow still keeps the shop Number Sixteen, Rue Vivienne, where may be found a large and select assortment of gloves, hosiery, etc.!"

The learned Dr. Francis once made himself "memorable" by a remark which he made in a Homœopathic discussion; namely, the boiling of the shadow of a pigeon in a bottle of water, and dividing the fluid into infinitesimal quantities, and administering this powerful "concentrated medicine to the patient once every six months," at night, before going to bed.

Something like this, "in substance," is the novel idea of a certain Yankee "down East" who has invented "A New and Cheap Plan for Boarding:" One of the boarders mesmerizes the rest, and then eats a hearty meal; the mesmerized, meanwhile, being entirely satisfied from "sympathy," which is the basis of the theory. One of the boarders, however, having recovered, mesmerized the landlady once a day, and endeavoured to settle for the whole company by paying for one—but that plan wouldn't work.

An English wag thus writes off a "Scene in a Western Editor's sanctum, in the United States:"

"The following affair is said to have 'come off' somewhere 'out West' lately.

"Editor in his sanctum, discovered writing: a six-foot customer approaches, with a newspaper in his hand.

"Visitor (pointing out a particular article).—'Look here, Mister; did you write that?'

"Editor.—'I expect I did.'

"Visitor (laying off his coat).—'Well, I'm going to whip you; so you'd better peel.'

"Editor.—'Indeed! but I prefer not being whipped.'

"Visitor.—'Can't help it: got to do it: better be pullin' off your coat.'

"Editor (drawing a six-shooter).—'Thank you, sir; but I believe I'll keep my coat on!'

"Visitor.—'What! you're not goin' to use that shootin'-iron, are you?'

"Editor.—'Not unless you render it necessary.'

"Visitor.—'Now, see here; that ain't gentlemanly. Just lay that thing aside, and let us take it out in a way that's becoming.'

"Editor.—'Sorry not to be able to oblige you; but I can't do it, positively.'

"Visitor.—(putting on his coat, and backing out).—'Well, if you are that sort of a fellow, I want nothin' to do with you: you are beneath the notice of a respectable citizen.'"

There is a good deal of exaggeration, of course, in this cockney sketch; and yet scenes, not in all respects unlike it, have heretofore occurred, we believe, in certain of the chivalric river-towns of the Southwest.

The newspapers say, that Mrs. Partington is very anxious to know, whether Uncle Tom is really much better than the Enoch we read of in old, "because," the old lady remarks, "Uncle Tom has been translated seven times, and Enoch was but once."

JUST RECEIVED,

Gleason's Pictorial Drawing Room Companion,

PUBLISHED IN BOSTON, MASS.,

Will commence on the 1st of January, 1853, a new Volume—being Volume IV—of this elegant illuminated Journal. It will appear with new type, new heading, and splendidly improved in every department, besides which, the price is to be greatly reduced. The publisher is resolved to commence the new year with a circulation of one hundred thousand, and, therefore, offers the most liberal inducements to clubs. Realizing the spirit of the age, the great improvement in art, and the constantly increasing intelligence of the people, the publisher, with this change of prices, will vastly improve his already splendidly illustrated journal. Especially will a great improvement be manifested in the engraving department, as well as in the literary character of the paper; so that the Pictorial shall appear in a style, not only to merit all the encomiums of praise so lavishly bestowed upon t, but also as to challenge increased respect for its enhanced excellence and perfection. In short, the whole paper will be far superior to anything ever yet offered to the public by the publisher. By referring to the following list, which forms a part only of the regular contributors to the Pictorial, its high literary character will at once be understood.

Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Mrs. Alice B. Neal, Miss Phœbe Carey, Miss Alice Carey, Mrs. Caroline Orne, Miss Anne T. Wilbur, Mrs. S. P. Daughty. Mrs. C. A. Hayden, Mrs. R. T. Eldridge, Mrs. E. R. B. Waldo, Rev. H. Hastings Weld, Hen. Wm. Herbert, T. B. Read, T. S. Arthur, A. J. H. Duganne, Epes Sargent, George W. Dewey, Francis A. Durivage, Park Benjamin, Dr. J. V. C. Smith, Benj. Perley Poore, &c., &c.

The following are the terms of the paper:—One Subscriber, one year, $3.00; two subscribers, $5.00; four subscribers, $9.00; eight subscribers, $16.00. The paper will be for sale at all the periodical depots throughout the country, after the 1st of January, at 6 cents per copy.

☞ Any paper inserting the above editorially, with this paragraph, shall receive the Pictorial one year.

Subscriptions received at Geo. T. Haszard's Bookstore.

REMOVAL.

The "HORTICULTURIST," And Journal of Rural Art and Rural Taste.

The Subscriber, who has long been connected with Mr. Barry, as one of the editors of the Genesee Farmer, has purchased the Horticulturist, so ably conducted by A. J. Dowling, and after the conclusion of the present volume, it will be Published at Rochester, and Edited by P. BARRY, assisted by many of the best Horticulturists of the country, whose communications will materially add to its value. The ARCHITECTURAL DEPARTMENT will be conducted by gentlemen of ability and reputation.

To render the work accessible to a greater number, and consequently more beneficial, the price will be reduced to Two Dollars per year, in advance, and at the same time various improvements made. Each number will contain a full page engraving of some new, rare, and valuable fruit or flower, drawn from nature, and engraved in a style not excelled.

Still further to add to the value of the work, and meet the improving taste and increasing wants of the horticultural community, we shall also publish an edition with COLORED PLATES, each number containing a full page engraving of some new, rare, and valuable fruit or flower, correctly colored from nature, by the best living artists in this line. This will be a new and important feature, in this country, and must command the attention and patronage of both professional and amateur Horticulturists. As the number of colored plates we can furnish will be limited, from the care and time required in their preparation, those who wish the Colored Edition of the Horticulturist for 1853, will do well to order immediately. Price with colored plates, Four Dollars, in advance.

All who cultivate fruit or flowers, should read the Horticulturist, as it is devoted entirely to Horticulture, and its kindred arts, Landscape Gardening and Rural Architecture, and will keep its readers advised of everything new on the subject, either in Europe or America.

It will be our aim not only to make the Horticulturist superior both in style and matter to any work of the character in this country, but equal to any of the Horticultural Journals of Europe; and we confidently ask the aid and co-operation of the Horticulturists of the country. The work is published monthly, and contains forty-eight large pages, without advertisements, stitched in a beautiful and appropriate cover.

LIST OF

British Periodical Publications.

Forwarded by mail, under the provisions of the late Post Office Law, at merely nominal rates.

1. The London Quarterly Review (Conservative).
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
3. The North British Review (Free Church).
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal).
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

These Reprints have been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from the numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns, both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott and Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

Never Failing Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS—AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,
Your's faithfully,
(Signed) WALKER & Co.
