of Character in Students," by Rev. W. P. Dowling, S. J., President of Creighton University.

M. Ferdinand Brunetiere's public admission that he owed his conversion to the writings of Bossuet lends peculiar interest to the gleanings from Bossuet that F. M. Capes presents under the heading, "The Regle of Meaux or False Devotion."

A literary paper that will find many readers, is "Some Catholic Poets of America," an appreciation of the work of such writers as Rev. John Tabb, Father Ryan, Rev. James B. Del-lard, Eleanor C. Donnelly, Susan L. Emery and Charles J. O'Malley, the poet of the South.

Rev. James H. Cotter contributes a study of King Lear, and Rev. William Daly writes of the Christian Brothers in Time of War.

"Boscobel," a thrilling tale of Colonial days, by E. A. Waggoner, begins in this number. The scenes are well drawn, particularly the meeting of the master of Barrington and Patrick Henry in the woods, and the encounter on the road; the characters are endowed with a striking personality that gives promise of dramatic situations; and the conversation is animated and natural. There are some excellent short stories, notably "In the Wake of the Green Brigade," by Archibald Mc-Clean.

GRIPPE'S LEGACY.

Shattered Nerves AND Weakened System.

A Montreal Gentleman Tells About It.

Mr. F. J. Brophy, a well-known employe in the money-order department at the general post office in Montreal, tells about his case as follows:

"I had a very severe attack of La Grippe, which left me all run down, very nervous, without appetite, and extremely weak. Very often I could not sleep at night, and I was much troubled with profuse perspiration, which naturally caused me much annoyance. Learning of the good effects of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I began taking them, and much to my gratification they have braced me up, invigorated my entire system, and made me feel like a new man. I am now all O.K., and highly recommend these pills to anyone suffering as I did."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure palpitation, nervousness, sleeplessness, weakness, anemia and general debility.

HUMORISTIQUE

Poum est conduit à la messe pour la première fois. Au bout de quelques minutes, il s'ennuie, s'agite, pose des questions à sa mère.

—Tais-toi, Poum, lui dit celle-ci on ne doit pas parler dans l'église.

—Alors, répond Poum, pourquoi y en a-t-il qui chantent, là-bas, dans le fond.

On cause de ce pauvre Z..... qui vient de subir l'opération douloureuse de la pierre.

—A-t-il montré du courage?

—Beaucoup de philosophie!

—Mais alors—c'était la pierre philosophale!

Un jeune ami de Boireau, fait un mariage d'argent, il épouse une vieille fille ayant largement passé la quarantaine. Hier il la présente à son ami.

—Ma future, dit-il.

Boireau à son oreille:

—Dis plutôt ma passée.

Entre gens pressés:

Un des deux interlouteurs interrompant:

—Attendez un instant que je me mouche!

L'autre:

—Non, continuez, je vous écoute!

Et il se mouche à sa place.

Cri du cœur:

As-tu lu dans le journal, ma cousine, qu'une jeune fille s'est jetée à l'eau par chagrin d'amour. En ferais-tu autant à l'occasion?

—Moi, me tuer pour un homme! Jamais de la vie plutôt mourir.

Le fils de M. Boisson est le modèle des écoliers. A force de veiller sur ses cahiers d'étude, il s'est rendu gravement malade.

—Du repos, rien que du repos a dit le médecin. Qu'il dorme ferme, et dans un mois, j'en réponds, il sera gaillard.

—Là-dessus, que fait Boisson père?

Chaque nuit, inquiet, il se lève, éveille l'enfant, non sans peine, et lui demande:

—Dors-tu bien?

En omnibus.

Un vieux monsieur monte. Il paraît malade et, malgré la chaleur avant de s'asseoir, il ferme le carreau derrière lui.

Survient alors une grosse dame époumonnée, suant, s'esuyant le front avec un mouchoir à carreaux.

Elle s'empresse, elle, de baisser une vitre et fait mine de toucher à celle qui abrite de son voisin.

—Ah! non, madame, s'écrie calmé-ci.

—Mais, monsieur, on étouffe ici.

—Possible! mais quand j'aurai attrapé une bonne bronchite, c'est pas vous qui tousserez pour moi!

RACCOMMODAGE ECONOMIQUE

Il arrive souvent des accidents fâcheux aecros et autres à nos vêtements, et parfois au costumes les plus neufs. Une reprise, quoique bien faite est toujours apparente; dans les habits d'homme, notamment, elle est impossible. Que faire? Rien de bien difficile.

Il suffit de glisser entre la doublure et l'étoffe un morceau de gutta percha, sorte de gomme qu'on peut se procurer dans toutes les pharmacies. Vous rapprochez soigneusement les parties déchirées; vous posez dessus un fer chaud qui fait fendre la gutta percha, et le raccommodage est opéré. Vous venez de souder les deux étoffes comme un ferblantier de zinc.
