

Successful Field Day Held At Morell On Wednesday

Wednesday afternoon at Morell, pupils from various schools of the Morell area competed in their second annual field day. Large numbers of students were on hand from several schools to take part in the many events and cheer on their favorites.

In addition to the pupils many parents and friends were on hand to encourage the children and enjoy what was an interesting, close-contested programme made even more enjoyable by a beautiful September day. It is hoped that many of yesterday's successful contestants will make the trip to the city on Saturday to take part in the Provincial Interscholastic meet.

Also-Rans Can Try Out Minor League Prospects

By ED SIMON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK (CP) — September a month of agony to the supporters of baseball's pennant contenders, is a month of solace to those who follow the also-rans.

Their last hopes of glory have fled for the season. Their incipient ulcers have been passed to other ball parks, where dreams of a world series berth still persist.

September is their time to settle back and look over the prospects of better things to come.

In the last month of the season both leagues lift the 25-man player limit, permitting a club to bring up its best minor-league prospects for a whirl in faster company.

The clubs still battling for the marbles can't afford to gamble much on untried help. But the others are free to experiment.

STARTING JITTERS
Many of the youngsters look terrified in their first few starts. But occasionally they can be pretty terrifying. And there's always the possibility that some kid booting an easy grounder or wild-pitching a run across the plate may turn into an all-star when he gets over his initial jitters.

About this time of year in 1941 St. Louis Cardinals unveiled a kid outfielder from Rochester who hit .426 in 12 games, drove in seven runs and hit four doubles and a homer. Two years later Stan Musial was the leagues most valuable player, a distinction he earned twice more along with six batting titles and the leadership of practically every other offensive department.

The following year the old Boston Braves brought up a typical young southpaw, who walked 11 men in 16 innings in which he got whacked for 27 hits. After three years in the United States Army, Warren Spahn came back for another try.

He led the league in earned-run average in his first full season and led in strikeouts four years in a row.

SOME FADE
Some of the best-looking newcomers don't make it all the way in one leap. Brooklyn's Karl Spooner stood the National League on its ear in 1954 with two consecutive shutouts in which he whiffed 27 batters. After an 8-6 season last year, he hurt his arm this spring and hasn't been back.

Then again, Al Rosen couldn't hit more than 200 in three separate September try-outs with Cleveland Indians. He led the American League in homers the first year he got to play every day.

Some of the kids may look awful in September. But wait till next year.

LOOK GOOD
Both looked good in practice sessions Thursday. Lum spent 10 minutes before the two-hour scrimmage blocking shots by the 28 forwards and defencemen on hand. When the scrimmage began he showed all his old fuses, batting out pucks from all angles. At the other end of the rink Rollins was just as impressive.

Lumley was acquired by Hawks from Toronto Maple Leafs shortly after the close of the 1955-56 season in a $40,000 cash deal. He

Black Hawks To Open Season With One Goalie States Ivan

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP) — There is room for only one goaltender in the National Hockey League's Chicago Black Hawks.

General manager Tommy Ivan, in charge of the training camp in the absence of coach Dick Irwin said Thursday Hawks will open the season "with only one net-minder." Irwin, ill in Montreal, probably will report Sunday.

Two veterans, Harry Lumley and Al Rollins, are looking for the job.

"We will go with the one who shows the best form in training camp," Ivan said. "The other will be plying his trade elsewhere."

Big Lum checked in Wednesday two days late, at 200 pounds, his average playing weight. Lanky Rollins has been here since training opened Monday.

AWAY BEHIND SCHEDULE
COLLINGWOOD, Ont. (CP) — A goldfinch nesting in a garden here laid four eggs a week ago and, although late in the summer, is trying to hatch them. Wildlife authorities said goldfinches normally migrate within the next month and doubted that the little family, if hatched, could be fit for travel.

broke into NHL competition 13 years ago with Detroit Red Wings, and played with Chicago from 1950 to 1952.

Rollins began his NHL career in 1949 with Toronto. He has been goal-keeping for Chicago the last three years.

Ivan said he is "completely satisfied" with the way the team is shaping up.

Remember When
Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles bested Eric Sturges of South Africa to win the U.S. tennis championship eight years ago today by 6-2 6-3, 14-12. Gonzales, then 20, was the sensation of the tournament after being seeded eighth. He repeated the feat next year and then turned professional.

Bill Dea Makes Good Showing With Red Wings

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (CP) — The National Hockey League Detroit Red Wings' training camp brightened Thursday with the showing of left-winger Bill Dea, but darkened with news that they will lose on the bench Hugh Coffin for possibly a month.

General Manager Jack Adams said he is impressed with the work of Dea. The diminutive forward, filling in for ailing Ted Lindsay on the Wings' production line, scored two goals and assisted on two others in Wings' 9-2 triumph Wednesday over Edmonton Flyers of the Western Hockey League.

Dea, 23, of Edmonton, played last year for Flyers and was second-highest scorer on the team with 29 goals and 42 assists.

Coffin, 27-year-old defenceman from Blaine Lake, Sask., suffered a cut Achilles tendon in the game.

Lindsay, Marty Pavelich and Bill Tibbs, goaltender last year with Troy Bruins of the International League, worked out Thursday after being sidelined with the flu.

ATLANTIC CITY — Poundout Jr., the son of a swayed-back newspaper horse and seven-year-old gelding named Garfield combined for a $1,449.60 daily double Monday at Atlantic City race course.

Poundout Jr. who won the first race and $19.60, is a three-year-old gelded son of Poundout, who didn't win one of its four starts a few years ago. He raced in the colors of the Rolling Press Farm, a group of sportswriters on

Red Wings Lose McCarthy For Month Due To Illness

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. (CP) — Detroit Red Wings said Tuesday they have lost the services of rookie left-winger Tom McCarthy for at least one month.

The National Hockey League Wings announced that McCarthy and will be sidelined for 2½ weeks. It was expected he would need another 10 days to skate himself back into shape.

McCarthy, a six-foot-two native of Toronto who played for Vancouver and Saskatoon in the Western Hockey League last year, had been the most impressive rookie in Wings' training camp. He was given an excellent change to win a place on the parent team. He had scored one goal in Detroit's 4-3 win Saturday over Edmonton Flyers in an exhibition game.

Wings said they expect McCarthy may be ready by the team's third or fourth league game.

$1,449.60 Daily Double Paid At Atlantic City Raceway

ATLANTIC CITY, AP — Poundout Jr., the son of a swayed-back newspaper horse and seven-year-old gelding named Garfield combined for a $1,449.60 daily double Monday at Atlantic City race course.

Poundout Jr. who won the first race and $19.60, is a three-year-old gelded son of Poundout, who didn't win one of its four starts a few years ago. He raced in the colors of the Rolling Press Farm, a group of sportswriters on the New York World Telegram and Sun. Alfred Vanderbilt gave them the horse.

It was the first win for junior owned by New York restaurant man Gene Leone, in two starts last year and seven tries this season.

Garfield, owned by A. Stern, hadn't found the winner's circle in 11 starts during 1955 and until Tuesday. Norman Cox rode him to a $153.80 for $2 win in the second race.

Arch Moore Sued By Former Wife Of Bivins For 750,000

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Dollree Mapp, former wife of Cleveland heavyweight boxer Jimmy Bivins, filed suits Tuesday asking $750,000 against light heavyweight champion Archie Moore.

Mrs. Mapp contended Moore failed to keep a promise to marry her and made physical attacks on her and her 12-year-old daughter.

No Ballet Unless Nina Is Forgiven

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
LONDON (AP) — Russian diplomats have passed unofficial word that the London season of Moscow's Bolshoi Ballet may be cancelled unless Britain drops a shop-lifting charge against Nina Ponomareva.

Nina, 27-year-old Olympic discus champion from Russia, is being hidden somewhere in London by the Soviet Embassy authorities.

She has been hunted by police since Aug. 30 when a warrant for her arrest was issued. She had jumped bail on a police court charge of lifting five hats worth $4,000 from a West End store.

TO OPEN OCT. 3
The long-awaited Bolshoi Ballet is due to open in Covent Garden Oct. 3. Eighty tons of scenery, props and costumes for the company have been lying in London's Surrey docks since last week pending word from Moscow that they can be shifted to the theatre.

Cancellation would disappoint thousands of British ballet fans. All seats for all performances have been sold out. Some Londoners queued for more than two days to get tickets.

The Russians branded the charge against Nina as a "crude provocation." They called off a British-Russian track and field meet hours before it was due to begin in front of an expected 50,000 crowd. They demanded British government intervention to clear Nina.

CANT INTERVENE
Britain refused on the grounds the government has no power to stop the normal processes of law.

Possible cancellation of the Bolshoi season has been hinted at informally by Russian diplomats in contacts with their Western colleagues during the past few days, informants said.

There has been no official threat to do so.

The British foreign office refused to comment on the report or on any aspect of the Nina situation.

Novel Panned By Monsarrat's New Press In London

LONDON (CP) — A new novel by Nicholas Monsarrat, "The Tide That Lost Its Head," has taken a panning from the London press.

Nancy Spain, in The Daily Express, says this new book by the author of The Cruel Sea who now lives in Ottawa, is "one of the most repulsive books I have ever been forced to read."

David Hollyway, in The New Chronicle, concedes that Monsarrat has a "certain compulsive readability," but finds the novel over-long, "too brutal and grotesque" in its treatment of the newspaper world.

Peter Quennell in The Daily Mail says the characters are unconvincing and the brutality overdone. He mentions a "ghastly incident" in which 30 intoxicated savages rape and kill a pregnant white woman.

The book concerns a young man who works as public relations officer for the British government in Africa, as Monsarrat once did.

Monsarrat, now in London, has resigned his job as British government information officer in Ottawa, but Mrs. Monsarrat has been quoted in his British press as saying they plan to continue living in Canada. They plan to go back next month.

ESCAPE AMBUSH

For Carefree TV WATCH WESTINGHOUSE

Here is the unconditional promise we make to you who are reading this advertisement.

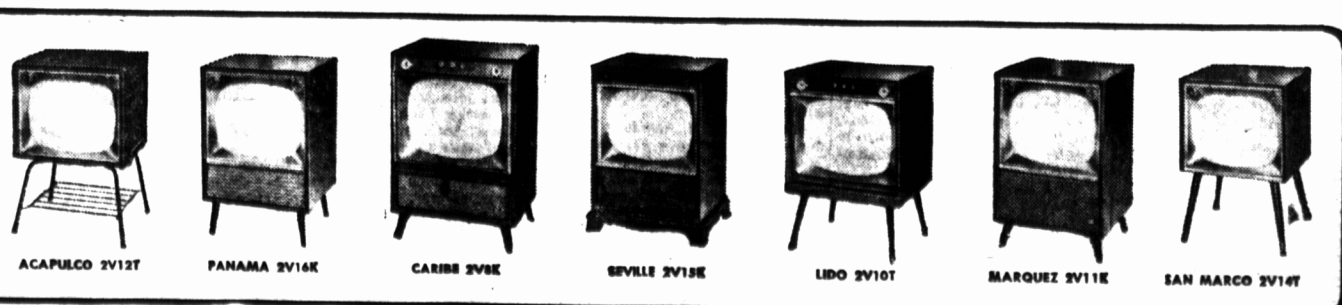

From the first day you take a 1957 Westinghouse television set into your home, you will enjoy a picture unmatched for consistency of quality—free from streaks, flutter, flop-over and other interference. What's more, the clear, bright, sharp Westinghouse picture will stay that way—bringing you a new freedom from service worries.

How can we make this promise? Very simply. It is because no less than eight new engineering advancements have been built into every 1957 Westinghouse set—advancements that are available in no other make.

Five separate engineering features protect against interference no matter how it originates. Another, automatically builds up even the weakest signal, while two more eliminate the prime cause of picture jitter.

Before you buy any television set, talk to your television dealer. Ask him to demonstrate the new Westinghouse side by side with any other set—and compare. Ask him to explain the technical improvements that make it possible for us to say "for Carefree TV . . . WATCH WESTINGHOUSE."
