

Jobs Campaign To Ease Seasonal Unemployment

During the week March 13th to 20th the National Employment Office in Charlottetown, will carry out a campaign to relieve seasonal unemployment. National Employment Offices across Canada, are carrying out similar programs. In this centennial year, the Charlottetown Office, will remind citizens who will be anxious to have their homes and business establishments and the entire city, looking its best. It is known that many citizens plan to repair, renovate, paint and otherwise improve their properties, and the local Office is asking that they plan to carry out these improvements at the earliest possible moment.

It is pointed out that if home owners, tradesmen, and all other agencies in a position to hire workers co-operate, many men can be put back to work before the usual Spring rush starts. Employment Office officials emphasize that at this time of year, materials are more readily obtainable than at any other time of the season. It is to be borne in mind that the officials that carpenters, plumbers, electricians and labourers, and all types of help are also more readily to be had, than during the summer or late Spring months.

Parents Guests At Rochford Square School

Yesterday afternoon the teachers and pupils of Rochford Square School were at home to the parents of the pupils. About 220 parents accepted the invitation. After an hour spent in the various classrooms the parents assembled in the school auditorium. Miss Estelle Bowness, general secretary of the P.E.I.T.F., addressed the gathering on the subject of teacher recruitment. The speaker was introduced by Mr. J. R. St. John, president of the Rochford Square Home and School Association.

Before beginning her address Miss Bowness congratulated the pupils of the school on winning five prizes in the education week art contest sponsored by the Teachers Federation. In her address she stressed the great need for well trained teachers and suggested different means of attracting intelligent young people to the profession. She made an eloquent appeal to the high school pupils in the audience to consider adopting teaching as their profession. The appreciation of the audience was expressed to Miss Bowness by Hon. Eugene Cullen and Mr. Stephen Conway.

The short musical program furnished by the pupils of the school was much enjoyed by all present.

are backing the Jobs Campaign. The local Employment Advisory Committee, which assists the local office in employment problems, believe that many Charlottetown business people and householders are contemplating improvements to their properties and feel that the Campaign will remind these people that now is the time to carry out these improvements. The committee which held a meeting Tuesday, March 8th, is convinced that if an earnest effort is made by everybody, many men can be put back to work within the next two or three weeks. The overall effect in Charlottetown would be of greatest benefit say members of the committee.

Officials of the local office are prepared to supply all types of tradesmen, and the local office area, the files of the local office are well filled with capable workers and orders will be taken by telephone and any desired information gladly furnished. Charlottetown has several large building projects awaiting commencement or underway at the present time. These projects will require many men in late Spring and early summer. When the construction program really gets underway, say employment officials, construction workers will be difficult to obtain. It would be using good judgment in the opinion of the employment office for those planning to do smaller jobs, to get them done now when help and materials are more readily at hand.

Mary Miller Evening Auxiliary

The March meeting of the Mary Miller Evening Auxiliary of the W. M. S., Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, was held on Monday evening in Hearts Hall, with a good attendance of members, and the president, Mrs. Dorothy Auld, presiding. The meeting was opened with the singing of two verses of the hymn, "Oh Master let me walk with Thee," and prayer by the president. The worship service under the leadership of Mrs. Stanley Thompson was opened with the singing of "Oh Jesus I have promised."

Several members took part in discussing the subject "What is Christian Stewardship?" The leader urged the members that for this year they should make their motto of Christian Stewardship, "It can be done." The scripture reading by Miss Morson took for consideration the parable of the Watchful Servants. After a solo by Mrs. R. P. Haley the worship service was concluded with prayer by Mrs. Thompson.

The Mission study, based on "The Church in India" was under the leadership of Mrs. Keith Kennedy and Mrs. R. P. Haley. It was stressed that the central task of the church is Evangelism, for which different definitions could be given. The "Mass Movement" in India was described, where whole communities became Christian witnessing, and is largely in the hands of Indian Christians. Mrs. Kennedy also gave a brief review of "Jeep Tracks," one of the books on the reading course.

The community friendship committee reported many calls having been made to the hospitals and homes in the past month. Plans for the Easter Thankoffering meeting was discussed and a committee appointed to take charge of the program.

The meeting closed with singing of two verses of Hymn No. 388 and with the Mirzapal benediction. Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed.

her intentions to the Privy Council—the Queen's constitutional advisers—and Parliament does not object.

Margaret will be 25 Aug. 21 and would announce her intentions then.

Because of the church's attitude to divorce she likely would have to sign a document giving up her rights and those of her heirs to succeed on the throne. She is third in succession, following Prince Charles, 6, and Princess Anne, 4, the Queen's children.

COULD BE FAVORABLE

The Prime Minister played a big behind-the-scenes part in 1936 when King Edward VIII, now Duke of Windsor, quit the throne to marry Mrs. Wallis Simpson, a divorcee.

Churchill, then a Conservative backbencher in the House of Commons, was strongly sympathetic to the King. Quarters close to the Prime Minister see no reason for believing he would not be equally sympathetic to the princess' romance.

Townsend himself has given support to the reports recently by leading press front in a struggle, although his answers have been largely non-committal. He has known the princess since he was an equerry to King George VI at 29 and she was 13.

Health Grants

We sent our Veterinarian in the Sanitary Engineering Department to study the control of milk. "Hospital Construction Grants: $59,230. This will nearly all be used with the building of our new Active Treatment Centre."

"Mental Health Grant: $75,058. This is used for our outpatients of the centre. It pays for our consultant services from Halifax. It is also used to train personnel such as psychiatrists, nurses, technicians, etc. and if possible to obtain additional staff we will expand in the year to come."

"General Public Health Grant: We have used this grant to pay almost entirely the Sanitary Engineering staff and the Dental Division Staff, also assisted to maintain the office at Summerside."

"There has been something said about Hospital Grants to the hospitals throughout the Island and so far as I am personally concerned, I would not be better than to tell those interested that the Government decided to do so; but at the same time I must think about the Province as a whole in all the departments under my administration. It is only natural to assume if I get more money for one department then some other will have to do without if we are going to serve all the people with the amount of money allotted to the Department of Health. With this in mind and also the fact some were in favor of increasing the grants this year, I have made a very short comparison for the information of the House and the people of this Province."

Payments made by Years.
1933 $ 9,000
1934 13,500
1945 20,000
1949 114,000
1952 145,000

This on a per diem grant. Payments made by both governments to hospital for construction purposes:
Prince Edward Island Hospital: Province, $20,000; Federal, $20,000; Total, $40,000.
Charlottetown Hospital: Province, $88,138; Federal, $88,138; Total, 176,276.
Prince County Hospital and Nurses Home: Province, $175,839; Federal, $138,500; Total $309,339.
Western Hospital: Province, $6,280; Federal, $8,200; Total, 16,560.
Kings County Hospital and Nurses Home: Province, $5,500; Federal, $8,500; Total, $14,000.
Stewart Memorial Centre: Province, $1,000; Federal, $5,000; Total, $6,000.
Province total, $308,756; Federal total, $286,418; Grand total, $575,177.

"Recently the Government passed an Order-in-Council taking the necessary steps to pay for the hospitalization of patients in the hospitals from our institutions, who have spent 6 or more months in same. "Mr. MacDonald said.

WELFARE ESTIMATES
In speaking about the estimates for the Department of Welfare for the coming year, in which we have made provision for a great many needy people in this province through Social Assistance, Mothers' Allowances, T. B. Assistance, Old Age Assistance, and lately Totally Disable Assistance. I would make a few observations of my own.

"I believe we are all conscious of the fact that elsewhere in the world untold millions live in absolute want and dire need, without proper food, clothing, and the necessities of every day life, and where life is nothing more than a struggle for survival against overwhelming odds. We are fortunate indeed to live in a Province and a country where it has been possible for us to take positive steps, and to develop ways and means of assisting persons in need, for despite the continued expansion and development in this Province and country, some of our citizens are still unable to reap the benefits from such, for reasons beyond their control viz conditions of dependency, disability and infirmity of age. Meeting needs which result from these conditions is, of course, the job of the Department of Welfare."

"But, the load should not all be left to the Government. Traditionally private social agencies, including those founded by churches, fraternalities, and other local community groups accepted responsibility for services to needy persons but many of these services are now rendered by the Government through welfare. I think the reasons are obvious for this gradual transference, yet the movement of responsibility up-amusement tax for hospital purposes cutting it to 10 per cent from 12 1/2%. Tax exemption on amusement tickets was raised to 25 cents from 15. Mr. Frost reported his 12th consecutive surplus since he became treasurer in 1943 with a margin of $704,000 in current revenue over expenditures in the fiscal year ending March 31. He forecast his 13th surplus, $865,000, for the new fiscal year which ends March 31, 1956.

The $704,000 surplus for the year just ending compares with a forecast year ago of $839,000. It was achieved after distributing $15,178,000 of current revenue in supplementary grants, providing $17-

Convicted For Having Obtained Unemployment Benefits Fraudulently

Before Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet yesterday, a man charged with making seven false statements for the purpose of obtaining unemployment insurance benefits during a period when he was employed, was found guilty. Mr. Gaudet sentenced the accused to a fine of $25.00 and costs or 30 days in jail. The benefit payments received through the false statements amounted to $105.00 and were recovered in full.

Officials of the Charlottetown National Employment Office, commenting on the case, said that a number of other prosecutions were pending, and that investigations which were now underway would further increase the list of prosecutions in the weeks ahead.

The District Investigator of the Unemployment Insurance Commission laid the information in the case decided in Magistrate Gaudet's Court yesterday. This investigator is spending some time in the Province collecting evidence about suspected frauds in connection with benefit claims and expects to lay further information before the County Court from time to time. The investigator's work takes him all over the Province.

Solemn Ceremony Of Religious Reception

A ceremony of Religious Reception was held in the chapel of St. Dunstan's College on Wednesday, March 9. The officiant was Most Rev. Malcolm A. MacEachern and he was assisted by Rev. P. F. MacDonald and Rev. Edmund Roche. Five young ladies received the habit of the Sisters of St. Martha and their names in religion. They were Miss Martha O'Halloran (Sister Maureen), Miss Evelyn Pitre (Sister Mary Evelyn), Miss Aldona Arsenault (Sister Maria Anne), Miss Agnes McQuillan (Sister Mary Inez), Miss Rita Steele (Sister Mary Bernardine). The little girls who carried the habits in the bridal procession were very winsome in gowns of pastel tints. They were the Misses Roberta Balsler, Agatha Pitre, Marita Arsenault, Anne Donnelly and Faye McEwen.

In the sermon for the solemn occasion, Monsignor Sullivan, St. Dunstan's College, brought home very realistically to his audience the importance and the challenge of the life of perfection in which the young ladies of the ceremony were that day making the initial steps.

The Sister's Choir sang the ceremonial psalms and special hymns in pleasing devotional style. Among the clergy present were: Rt. Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, Rev. T. Campbell, Rev. K. C. MacPherson, Rev. B. Gillis, D.D., Rev. D. E. Francis, Rev. Urban Gillis, Rev. J. B. Croken, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, Rev. R. Ellsworth, Rev. Harold Croken, Rev. George MacCormac, Rev. Parnell Wood, Rev. F. Gallagher, C.S.S.R., Rev. William Simpson, Rev. P. F. MacDonald, Rev. Edmund Roche, Rev. D. E. McTaggart, Rev. P. Aylward, Rev. V. G. Murnaghan, Rev. Sylvère Gallant, Rev. Allan MacDonald, Rev. Reginald Phalen, Rev. Charles MacDonald, Rev. Justin MacDonald, Rev. Peter Farrelly, S.J.

wards to the larger units of government does not mean that private organizations have no further responsibility in the field of welfare. Indeed it is most desirable that every encouragement should be given to any group of citizens who wish to dedicate their time and money for the cause of welfare. They are in a better position to provide the individual attention and service which some cases require and which a government cannot provide. There are one or two organizations in this City that are doing a wonderful service for our fellow citizens in relation to the Catholic Welfare Bureau, the Free Dispensary and there should be others.

UNEMPLOYMENT
There is some concern with reference to the increasing unemployment which has occurred seasonally during the past two years, yet I cannot see a development of anything like a depression, nor do I suppose to join the unhappy ranks of those who seem to be trying to talk us into one. I firmly believe that the Government of Canada should accept the responsibility for assistance to persons who need it on account of being out of work. This Government has during the past few years tried to keep employment up by building programs and road programs, but still we have our seasonal unemployment, more so perhaps than provinces in a better position and financially able to carry on programs to give aid in the slack season. I am sure all our people are willing to accept any extra responsibility placed on them in order to continue helping those less fortunate than they are.

In our Welfare Department, disabled assistance, T. B. mothers' allowances, child welfare, old age assistance, and blind pensions, we spend approximately $550,000 and to do this we have only eight employees and the minister. I can assure you I take up a lot of my personal time and attention and all because we cannot get qualified Social Service Workers — our salaries are too small for one thing."

Ontario Budget

The premier gave no detailed breakdown of the $700,000,000 spending program for the fiscal year starting April 1. However, he said that in addition to direct government spending it includes expenditures planned by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario on the St. Lawrence development and other projects and by the Ontario Northern Railway. Hydro's share was estimated at $165,000,000 to $170,000,000. Biggest direct government spending will be on roads with an appropriation of $175,500,000.

The new budget in Ontario's biggest with a total expenditures estimate of $569,019,000 made up of $385,032,000 on current account and $183,987,000 capital. The previous high was in the fiscal year ending this month when estimates totalled $509,466,000, $372,283,000 current and $137,183,000 capital.

Chief of the revenue in the new year are listed as: Dominion tax agreement, $136,100,000; gasoline tax, $92,500,000; liquor profits, $38,000,000; motor vehicle licenses, $26,700,000.

Annual Banquet St Dunstan's Philosophers

At the Charlottetown Hotel on Monday, March 7, the philosophy students of St. Dunstan's assembled, with invited guests, to celebrate the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas, the great philosopher and theologian of the thirteenth century, who claims world-wide recognition as the patron of Catholic schools. The banquet fittingly began when Mr. Gerard Kilbride, the capable toastmaster, called upon His Excellency, Bishop MacEachern, to say Grace and lead in the prayer for the Pope.

Following a delicious dinner, the toast to the Queen received a warm response from all. The toastmaster, Mr. Kilbride, then proposed the following toasts: The Church, responded by Andrew MacDonald; The Day We Celebrate, responded by R. A. Wedger; Our Country, responded by J. A. R. Wedger; Our College, responded by William Quinn; The Ladies, responded by Mary Farmer.

After the various toasts and their very appropriate responses, followed the highlight of the banquet which was a special address delivered by the guest speaker, Rt. Rev. Msgr. McMahon D.P., D.D.

Monsignor McMahon, rector of St. Dunstan's Basilica, is well known as a speaker and is well versed in the art of after dinner speaking. He introduced his address with some of his characteristic clever wit thereby immediately winning the attention of all present. In the outset he expressed his intention to keep away from involved philosophical terms. This served to make his speech very down to earth, practical and interesting.

Monsignor McMahon spoke on truth. He pointed out the need today for educated men and women who know the truth and love it enough to defend it and propagate it. The propaganda let loose in the world today, seeking to capture the souls of men is founded on lies. The greatest lie of today is the supremacy of the state over the body and soul of man and his reduction to a chattel or a cog in a state machine. He spoke the lack of moral truth in the world today and the consequent sin and degradation in the lives of so many.

To these errors, so rife in the world today, educated men and women because they should wield the influence, must oppose the truth. He spoke of the obligation resting on members of the Mystical Body of Christ to work for the salvation of souls, but he warned that without personal integrity and moral goodness in the individual, he would accomplish nothing. The moral battles waged by Christendom against the infidel in days gone by were won by the prayers of zealous laymen who knew the truth and were willing even unto death to defend and propagate it. The battle today will be won only in the same manner.

Following this very special and well received address, for which both Philosophy students and guests are deeply grateful, Mr. Kilbride called upon His Excellency, Bishop MacEachern. To 500,000 for debt sinking funds and paying $38,500,000 into a highway reserve account.

NO SPENDING BREAKDOWN

The premier gave no detailed breakdown of the $700,000,000 spending program for the fiscal year starting April 1. Bishop Turner On Visit Here

Most Rev. Kenneth Turner, Bishop of Lishui, China, arrived in Charlottetown yesterday morning and is the guest of His Excellency Most Rev. Malcolm A. MacEachern at the Bishop's residence.

Bishop Turner, who for many years was a missionary to China from the Scarborough Foreign Mission Society, was driven from that country by the Communists a year ago. He is a former resident of Montreal and has been visiting Antigonish for the past few days.

new vessel is expected to be able to meet all traffic demands single-handedly. Since it will carry only vehicular and passenger traffic, it is expected the motor vessel will be able to make the turnaround (which really is not a turnaround) in fifteen minutes. In trials it should be able to dock, unload, load and get under way within ten minutes.

For the convenience of passengers, the ship will be equipped with a lunch counter with 28 stools and a few tables which will enable the staff to cater to upwards of 40 passengers a sitting. An upper promenade deck is provided for messengers and lounges on a mezzanine.

NOVEL FEATURE

A novel feature of the new ferry is that on the outward side of each bridge will be the provincial crest of Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia. When it docks at Wood Islands, those on shore will see the Nova Scotia crest with the cross of St. Andrew. On reaching Caribou, those on shore will see the green trees and the "Farva Sub Ingenti" motto of the Island Province.

Mr. Matheson, who has been in constant contact with the Canadian Maritime Commission and the Department of Transport, today expressed great satisfaction that the all-important step of deciding the dimensions and design of the vessel had been taken. He also expressed his appreciation of the support given the Wood Islands-Caribou ferry project at Cabinet Council by Queen's Minister Winters.

Both the Queen's member and officials of the Maritime Commission and Department of Transport are confident that the new ferry will meet all commercial and recreational demands likely to be made upon it on the basis of the volume of traffic crossing from Wood Islands to Caribou in recent years.

Bishop MacEachern, this call was a surprise, but rising to the occasion with a few well chosen words, His Excellency defined philosophy and proceeded to point out the importance of this study in the world today, in a world where materialism is rampant, where training programs of the pragmatists and progressivists have displaced learning, where vocational training takes precedence over cultural, intellectual and moral development. Mixing these significant thoughts with a keen sense of humor Bishop MacEachern left all quite confident that his hopes would be realized; namely, that he would be a worthy Bishop of the Diocese and a worthy Chancellor of a renowned University.

Monsignor MacKenzie, rector of St. Dunstan's, then briefly thanked Msgr. MacMahon and His Excellency for their kind words of wisdom and further exhorted the young philosophy students to put their words into practice. Other guests were Rev. J. A. Sullivan and Rev. L. W. Landrigan, Philosophy professors at St. Dunstan's.

Mr. Kilbride brought the function to a close by asking Bishop MacEachern to say the prayer of Thanksgiving.

Death In Saint John of Former Ch'town Man

Many friends in this City and Province will regret to learn that after a long illness there passed away in the Lancaster Hospital Saint John, Frank Conroy, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Conroy of this City. He was a Veteran of the First World War. After returning home, he entered the Government service and occupied a position in the Customs, and Excise Department. He was for several years stationed in Moncton. Those who know Frank intimately will remember his many friendly qualities and his constant sense of humor. He is survived by his wife and son and daughter, also two brothers, Fred and John, practising law in North Battleford, Sask.

On the Murray Harbour, Georgetown and Montague lines there will be two round trips weekly for eight months.

In addition to the described freight scheduled trips, there will be extra freight trips over the entire Island Division when required to give adequate service. "It is worth noting that there were more extra freight trains run during the test year than scheduled trains," Mr. Mills said.

Touching on the other services supplied by the Railway, he said, "There will be a daily except Sunday truck station to and from all railway stations, carrying express and LCL traffic for eight months of the year and the possibilities of arranging a contract

Fire Destroys Dwelling At Bedford Yesterday

A fire of unknown origin which broke out shortly after one o'clock yesterday morning, totally destroyed the Bedford home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Ellis and their four children, who for the second time within three months suffered such a loss. The family had to leave their home at Dunstaffnage in zero weather and night attire late in December when the double tenement house in which they lived was burned to the ground.

The family was given temporary shelter at the home of their next neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Flynn, with one child being looked after at the home of Mr. Fenton Court. Later yesterday the family was reunited at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ellis, Dunstaffnage.

Shortly after daylight yesterday on being notified of the fire by Mr. Court, Mr. Gordon MacDonald and Miss L. Arsenault, representing the Red Cross, went to the scene and conferred with
