

"SINGING IN THE RAIN" AT PRINCE

Hollywood, during its frantic transition from silent films to pictures that "talked", furnishes the locale and period of M-G-M's star, laugh and song-loaded new Technicolor musical, "Singing in the Rain", now on view at the Prince Edward Theatre, with Gene Kelly, Donald O'Connor and Debbie Reynolds forming as merry a trio of leads as you have seen in some time.

when Kelly falls in love with pert, young singer, Debbie Reynolds. But the real crisis occurs when the success of "The Jazz Singer", the first talkie, revolutionizes the old silent-film technique. It looks as though Lina, with her frightful voice, is a goner. How she plots to save her career at the expense of her rival, Debbie, who has been employed to "dub" her voice in place of Lina's in a musical, and how this plot is thwarted by Kelly and O'Connor, makes for an hilarious tale studded with memorable song hits from the pen of Arthur Freed and Nacio Herb Brown and felicitous hoofing upon the part of all three principals.

In the impressive musical score are such nostalgic heart-warmers as "All I Do Is Dream of You", "You Mean a Lot to Me", "You Are My Lucky Star", "Would You Mind?", "Good Morning", "Beautiful Girl", "I've Got a Feeling", "You're Foolin'", "The Wedding of the Painted Doll", the title song and a number of others.
