Land For Oil Storage Granted At Geo'town

GEORGETOWN — Georgetown Town Council Monday night passed a motion to grant a five-year lease to the Irving Oil Company Ltd. of a town commons lot containing four acres of land situated just south of the Anglican Church on Kent Street.

The land will be used by the oil company as a bulk storage site, according to Irving representatives. The company is local agent Roy Hemphill. Six storage tanks, each of 3,000 gallons capacity, will be installed on the site resting on steel stands.

A. Kennedy and a full slate of councillors were present at the meeting and regular business was disposed of on commencement.

Council decided to increase the salary of Police Officer Mark Murphy because of the satisfactory service he has rendered the town since his appointment July 1, 1963. A decision was also made to pay the annual dues of the Dominion Association of Mayors and Municipalities. The town clerk was ordered to do so, and council instructed also the buying of an adding machine for his office.

Matters attended to during the past few weeks, according to council reports, included progressing installation of new furnace in the town hall; placing of 105 cubic yards of fill around the firehall and the sowing of grass seed there; building of the town dump; cutting of grass on streets; and regular maintenance and testing of fire fighting equipment.

Govt. Offers More Money For Construction At G'town

The provincial government will contribute close to $1,000,000 towards the construction of Gulf Gardens Foods Limited's plant, industry and Natural Resources Minister Leo Rossiter said today.

The Government is expected to begin within two weeks, he said.

Presently under construction is the plant to build for the processing plant, and the company to supply soap to the north of the equipment. The plant, expected to be in production next July, will employ about 250 people.

Mr. Rossiter said the plant is being distributed by a Swiss firm, Industus Industrie Minister Leo Rossiter said today.

Bathurst Marine Industries, employing some 200 Georgeville people, will set up operation next month, using seven trawlers to catch sea products, for the Gulf Gardens plant.

"The light," said Mr. Rossiter, "is now green for the Georgetown development."

Mounties Capture Criminals Before Victims Know of Crime

One of the fastest bits of police work on local record saw an RCMP constable score an unexpected doubleheader when he arrested drivers of two stolen cars before the owners knew the cars were missing.

It was during the big concert at Memorial Theatre when "forsters" took a fancy to a couple of new Pontiacs parked nearby and the cars took off.

Some time later Sgt. Sweet, in charge of a patrol and accompanied by Cst. Hopkins, stopped a driver for a minor violation along Stanhope Lane. When the driver was unable to furnish either car registration or a reasonable explanation he was placed under arrest.

Moments later the observant constable noticed another Pontiac whose driver was obviously nervous at sight of the police. He proved to be in charge of the second stolen car.

Both vehicles were found and returned to the city before the owners were aware they had been stolen.

Junior Farmers' Blood Clinic To Be Held At Central Queens

Sterling MacRae who is heading the Red Cross blood donor committee for the New Glasgow Junior Farmers reports that this year's clinic will be held in the province on August 17, 18, 19 and 20, and will be followed by an evening clinic at Stella Maria's Hall in North Rustico under the sponsorship of the Royal Canadian Legion branch there with Bert Blaquiere as the chairman.

North Rustico's objective is 150 donors for the clinic held for the residents of this area have never reached the quota set. It is a challenge to this year's committee of the New Glasgow Junior Farmers to help secure the co-operation of every eligible donor in the district involved, and in this way ensure that this year's target will be reached or exceeded.

The clinic at Hunter River will be the first of the series of eight to be held in the province on August 17, 18, 19 and 20, and will be followed by an evening clinic at Stella Maria's Hall in North Rustico under the sponsorship of the Royal Canadian Legion branch there with Bert Blaquiere as the chairman.

All Premiers Expected Here September 1st

The September 1 celebrations of the Confederation meetings, which began 100 years ago on that date, will probably have a full slate of provincial premiers in attendance, according to Premier Walter Shaw.

With the possible absence of Premier W. A. C. Bennett of British Columbia, who has yet to give definite word, all other premiers, and Prime Minister Pearson, are expected.

There will be a federal-provincial conference among the premiers at the same time.

Baddeck who broke from the pack to command. Hudson's lead was soon smashed by Charlottetown's John Rankin who got a nice wind shift from shore and stood into the lead. On the run home, Rankin lost out to Allan Strain of Calgary who took the race by a small margin.

Winds for the start of the morning race began strong but soon after the boats got straightened out, the wind lightened and was squally for the rest of the morning.

The wind was stronger and more even as the first race of the afternoon got underway. Brian Hudson of Baddeck stepped into an early lead on the first leg of the course and was never strongly headed, although frustrated by Percy Simmons of Charlottetown who dogged his heels and finished in the second position, a short distance behind Jimmy Black of Vancouver was third.

The third race of the day, sailed under light wind conditions and a shortened course was a repeat of the second except for the skipper of the boat. Robbie McGrill of Halifax and crew member Tommy took the lead from the start which was a slight jumble and resulted in several protests and held a comfortable margin around the line. Second position went to William Peniston of Stratford, Ont., followed by Gregory Bowers of Quebec.

BRIEF ILLNESS

One illness turned up at the scout regatta when Brian Kelvington of the Calgary crew had to be taken to hospital from Holland Cove camp with a slight illness.

After treatment yesterday morning he arrived at the Charlottetown Yacht Club and was discharged.

The first race today gets underway at the Charlottetown Yacht Club at 10 p.m., with the 19 crews again preparing to do battle. The weatherman said that the start will be light winds from the after and will increase to south 20 with showers.

The 19 crews are scored under the Olympic sailing points system which is a point for start, 2 points for every boat beaten and a quarter of a point for winning.

The two boys were killed and a third wounded by a gunman riding a bicycle. Boutilier is seen in insert at lower right.

Celebrations On Today In Morell

MORELL — Centennial celebrations start officially here today with a float parade at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. A ball game starts at 3. One of the highlights of the day will be a band concert by the Royal Canadian Dragoons one hour after the baseball game. At 4 o'clock, a large street dance takes over as the hub of entertainment in this quiet Kings County village. Several during the day will be Frank Weed and his animal show from Florida, and there will be rides and a fair atmosphere to please everyone.

'67 Fair Participation Discussed By Premiers

Participation of the provinces in the 1967 Montreal World's Fair was discussed at length at the Canadian Premiers' conference held last week in Banff, according to Premier Walter Shaw.

He added that before any conclusions are reached on the type of exhibit the Atlantic provinces will use at the fair, discussions will be held with fair officials to iron out any difficulties that may exist between Ontario and Quebec plan to erect special pavilions for the Fair, he continued, but neither the Atlantic nor the Western provinces have decided on the extent of their participation.

Cross-Canada celebrations for the Centennial Year of 1967 were also discussed, according to the premier. "Planned projects in the provinces," he said, "range from the restoration of castles in Ontario to a world cattle show in Saskatchewan, and from an industrial fair in British Columbia to Pan-American Games in Manitoba.

'64 COMES FIRST

Prince Edward Island, however, "will complete its 20th year of centennial celebrations before giving thought to 1967." He said that there was amazement expressed at the scope of "our program."

One new matter brought up at the conference was the proposal that constructive work be provided to take people off the relief rolls. The premier said he agreed in principle with the idea and that such a program would be of value to both society in general and those on relief in particular.

A number of items on the agenda were discussed at previous conferences, said Mr. Shaw.
