Len Matthews Defeats Zulueta

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Len Matthews, stung by a bad cut over his right eye in the fourth round that threatened to end the fight at any time, poured on all his speed, youth and power to floor veteran Orlando Zulueta twice Tuesday night and take a unanimous 10-round decision.

Headless Halfback

Many a gridiron giant has been accused of being all muscle and no head. Here, apparently, is pictorial proof. Lt. Ellis Hamel, coach of the 27th U.S. Infantry Wolfhounds, seems ready to confront the opposition by sending in a headless griddier. Actually, backfield ace David Thelen has his head bowed as he listens to instructions during a game at Schofield Barracks, Calif.

Yank Involved In Rowing Row At Oxford University

The rebel crew includes some of the best oarsmen at Oxford, including Ruben and another Yale man, Charles L. Grimes of Locust Valley, N.Y.

Grimes, who rowed in the Yale eight that won the Olympic title for the United States in 1956, said: "We hope members of the university feel as we do—that there is room for legitimate differences in rowing policy."

Howard has turned down the offer. He is also firmly turned down a challenge by the rebel crew to race against the official eight. The rebels' idea was that the winning eight should row against Cambridge.
