the rural population "away back in the interior" of the United States or anywhere else. In fact, our farmers' sons, when they go West, find themselves fifty years ahead of, instead of fifty years behind, the men of their race in the Great Republic, in everything except conceit. In this our Yankee friends may well brag that they beat the world hollow. Let "Berwick" try to deal with our far away back farmers, and he will find that he will have need of all his Yankee shrewdness. We are sorry to say that crinoline, chignons, Grecian bends, and other absurdities of fashion find their way in a marvellously short space of time into our country churches and meeting houses. As for intellectual death we are far enough from that. Those who spend their time in an unhealthy round of bustle and excitement, who do not give themselves time to gain other than a superficial and an imperfect knowledge of anything except dollar-getting, are much nearer intellectual death than are the dwellers in our quiet country places, who have both the leisure and the ability to read and to think. It is from such sources that the intellectual life of large cities is supplied and sustained. Stop those supplies of healthy men with healthy minds from country places, and the city intellect would soon dwindle into pert imbecility. We do not know what "Berwick" has said of our women, but, if it is anything disparaging, he deserves a cow-hiding. We defy 'Berwick,' or any one else, to find, in the whole of Yankee Land, from one end to the other, a finer set of women—for we have women in those latitudes, they not having yet degenerated into mere 'ladies'—mentally, morally, intellectually and physically, than this little Island of ours produces. We are much tempted to pursue this tempting subject, but we refrain.

THE SITUATION.

We are not bound by political ties to any party. We are under no obligations to either of the parties who strive to rule this Island. When the Examiner came into our possession we were determined to give the Government a fair trial. In a moment we could scarcely be expected to become its eulogist. If, after it had sufficient time to work out the various reforms which it proposed; if its legislation was really honest and for the benefit of the whole people; if there was any large measure of improvement which it effected, then we thought it would be quite time enough for us to do them justice. We have waited in vain for any of those traits in the Government which men usually designate as statesmanlike. The Government which began its career by ignoring the existence of its friends; which, after the fight was over, left in the lurch the men who bore the heat and burden of the day; which rewarded the time-servers and the men without influence, and which even now employs and sustains those who never supported them, can hardly expect the oldest Liberal journal in the Colony to be their apologist. Let us give a few instances. On declaration day, nearly two years ago, the Hon. George Coles made a speech from the hustings which we well remember. He passed the usual compliments to those who did him "the great honor to place him in the proud position where he now stood." This, we believe, is about all he did for the men who sustained him in that "proud position" for twenty years, except, indeed, that statement of his in the House of Assembly, last winter, when he told them that "he elevated them." In the course of same speech, he said no great change would take place amongst the officials in the Colonial Building. Many of his supporters were on the ground that day, and heard, with indignation, that men who jumped "Jim Crow" the week before, were to be retained in their offices, while those who were deserving of them were to be left out in the cold. Mr. Coles accepted the office of Colonial Secretary, and was obliged to return to his constituents for re-election. In the meantime a feeling of suspicion and distrust had gone abroad amongst the people against Mr. Coles, and he found it necessary to call public meetings to explain away his speeches and conduct. At those meetings he promised that the "amplest satisfaction would be given to the Liberal Party in regard to offices." Has Mr. Coles kept that promise? Did he even fill the office which was under his own special control with a Liberal? He did not; and he branded himself as a deceiver when he made promises to his constituents which he never intended to fulfil. He now wonders why he is so hardly thought of. There is the explanation for him. One or two individuals, who forced the Government to recognize their claims, and the Messrs. Ball, who are Mr. Coles' relatives, are the only persons in the old Liberal ranks who received offices worth taking. If Messrs. Coles and Hensley wonder why many of the old Liberal Party are dissatisfied with the Government of which they are the leaders, the reason is to be found in their own shabby treatment of long tried friends and supporters. Both Messrs. Hensley and Coles seemed to imagine that no matter how meanly they treated the old Liberal Party, they were always sure of its support. They appeared to think that, after securing offices for themselves, all they had to do was to conciliate the Tories, so that they might catch all the loose fish amongst them, and keep all the Tory office-holders they could in their places, and their reign would be a long one. We doubt very much if their policy will prove successful.

This week we have not space at our disposal to enter into the question very largely, but we shall endeavor to pursue this interesting subject in future issues of our paper.

Capt. John McKay, of the Schr. Garibaldi, in a letter to the Summerside Journal, of the 5th inst., says:—

"Friday morning, Oct 30 8 A M, passed the schooner Cecil, about 60 tons, off Quebec. Mainmast gone at saddle, foremast at second reefs; jibboom under bow; foresail lying over the port bow; port anchor and chain under the bow; starboard anchor on the bow; companion slide partly pushed back; hatches on; appeared to be in ballast, and by her motion appeared to have no water in her. We were under double reef at the time; could not board her; ran close under her lee; no sign of any person on board; no boat about. Was close enough to talk with any one, if on board. Wind N. N. W., Gaspy Light bearing N. W., distant about 10 miles. No other sails in sight."

A young man from Prince Edward Island, who was teaching school in Antigonish county, hired a horse and wagon there last week, and ran off with them. He was arrested in Pictou, after having sold the horse and wagon, and sent back again to Antigonish to answer for his conduct.—Halifax Colonist.

We understand that the Hon. Dr. Young has been appointed Commissioner of the Insolvency Court, established by the Legislature last session. The office of Clerk in the said Court has been given to F. W. Hughes, Esq.—Pat.

While in Charlottetown on Tuesday last, we had the pleasure of visiting the Normal School, now under the superintendence of Henry Lawson, Esq. We were very much pleased with the arrangements of the school and the conduct of the scholars. A class of females were examined in a grammar lesson, in our hearing and the readiness with which they answered the questions put, convinced us that they thoroughly understood what they were saying. A senior class in geography was also examined. The questions to this class are put in turn by a young man or a young woman, in order to instruct them to teach. The answers, in general, were very readily elicited; still we were a little surprised at the shallow acquaintance entertained on general information, by some young men recently from the country district schools. Mr. Lawson is, in our humble opinion, an excellent teacher. The scholars do not seem to have that fear of him which we have often witnessed in many schools, where the masters act the tyrant instead of the tutor. His method of imparting instruction is natural and comprehensive, and attracts the attention of the pupil. The ability displayed by Mr. Lawson is in strange contrast with the false accusation of a correspondent in the last "Islander." We would advise that fellow, wherever he may be, to visit the Normal School, and see and hear for himself, and not to jump at conclusions and make statements without foundation. What matter whether Mr. Lawson taught a school in the country as first class teacher or not, or was little known in public life, as long as he has the ability to discharge the duties now devolving upon him. It is much to his credit that, while teaching a country school, he was improving his mind and qualifying himself to fill the honorable position he now occupys. The country has a right to be proud of such men. It would be well if more of our country schoolmasters would do likewise, and we would respectfully tender this advice to the correspondent of the "Islander," and advise him not to be like the dog in the manger. We feel it a pleasure to say a word in favor of a gentleman of whose ability we profess to know something.—S. J.

DROWNED.—On Monday, about 3 o'clock, p. m., the Sch. Alberton was passing off Canoe Cove, on her return to Charlottetown, one of the crew, James McElduff, whilst reefing the mainsail, fell overboard, and was drowned. It was blowing pretty hard at the time. Capt. Currie and his men did all in their power to rescue him; they hove out deals, and attempted to bring the vessel about twice, but, sad to relate, by this time he had sunk, to rise no more. Deceased was about 30 years of age; he was a man of industrious habits, and is much regretted by both his Captain and crew. He leaves a wife and three small children in Casciumpec to mourn his untimely death. May his soul rest in peace.—Com. to Her.

AN INQUEST was held on Friday last, before Dr. Beer, one of the coroners for the county, on view of the body of Thomas Turnbull, son of Capt. Turnbull. It appeared in evidence that the deceased was playing about his father's vessel, and fell into the water, unperceived by any one. When found he was quite dead. Verdict according.

IN THE PRESS

HARVIE'S PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND ALMANAC

For 1869,

will be ready for sale early in December.

Oct. 26th, 1868.

To the Electors of the Fifth District of Prince County.

GENTLEMEN,

IN a few days you will be required to elect a Member to represent your District in the House of Assembly. I beg to inform you that I am a Candidate for this honorable position.

Upon the important subject of PUBLIC EDUCATION, which now engages the attention of a large portion of our population, I consider it proper briefly to state my views. I AM OPPOSED TO THE ENDOWMENT OF ANY SECTARIAN INSTITUTION. I, nevertheless, consider it just that so long as it shall remain the policy of the People of this Island to defray the cost of Educating the Youth of the Colony from funds raised by common taxation, the sum annually voted by the Legislature for Education, shall be apportioned among the Schools in which Education is imparted, and if elected, I shall advocate such amendments to the Laws relating to Public Education as will entitle efficient Schools — if open to the inspection of the Executive Government—to a share of the grant for Education — whether such Schools shall be established and maintained by Religious denominations or by private individuals.

Upon general Political subjects, my opinions are well known to you.

I have the honor to be,
Your obd't Servant,
JAMES C. POPE.
