Greece Wants Cyprus Raised Again In U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Greece asked Monday that the UN Assembly take up again this year the question of self-determination for British-ruled Cyprus.

Christian X. Palamas, permanent Greek delegate to the UN, requested that the question be put on the agenda of the assembly session to start Sept. 20.

The assembly last year considered the future of the island, British colony in the eastern Mediterranean, but because of British opposition to the Greek demand for self-determination, the assembly decided Dec. 17 that further consideration would be inappropriate "for the time being."

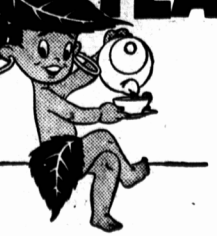

Greece argues that the population, including a Greek-speaking majority and Turkish-speaking minority, is overwhelmingly in favor of having the island become Greek territory. Britain holds the question is not one for the UN, and has arranged a London conference on it with Greece and Turkey. The talks will begin Aug. 29.

Dick Haymes Can Stay In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The justice department Monday abandoned its efforts to deport crooner Dick Haymes, Argentine-born husband of actress Rita Hayworth. A department spokesman said it had decided not to appeal a ruling made several weeks ago by Judge Burnita Matthews who ruled that Haymes was never legally outside the United States when he went to Hawaii, a U.S. territory, in 1953, to woo Miss Hayworth.

The justice department had contended that Haymes became ineligible for U.S. citizenship when he claimed exemption from military service in 1944 as a citizen of a neutral country. It further maintained that when
