

HUNTERS CORNER

It perhaps just as well we see as little as we do of the far reaching effects predation has on our wildlife. Its an around the clock loss that continues day and night, week after week, year after year. A mothy black duck is lifted from her nest by a prowling fox or raccoon; a hen ruffed grouse dusting on an ant hill during a brief respite from incubating her eggs is caught by a Goshawk that skims through the trees with the speed of light and a potential covey of "Natives" that should have grown to thunders from farm food, cut-over, dies in the embryo stage.

A few weeks ago I witnessed the release of 16 wild turkeys in the Bellevue district of southern Kings. .10 hens and 6 Toms. The big gobblers were massive, beautiful birds. .a prize to live in a hunter's dreams. On Wednesday afternoon of this week, Bellevue was asked the edge of a spotlight for some sign on how the birds were faring. Not far from the point of liberation, where a ploughed field borders a strip of woodland between it and the dam, I came upon a handful of turkey feathers. There were not enough to cause concern unless one had an eye trained for signs of predation.

A closer scrutiny disclosed faint signs of a struggle on the hard packed red clay. The rest was easy. The odd feather clinging to spruce bows showed that a heavy body had been dragged through a tangled thicket of second growth spruce. Deeper in the woods I came upon the track of a woodcock, with one of the gobblers. . nothing much left except feathers. 50 yards farther on a second kill was found practically duplicating the first. In this instance the smallest breast bone and wing tips showed it was one of the hen turkeys had met her fate. The gentleman with the pointed face and black stockings legs had met her in the gloaming and she didn't find out what big teeth he had till it was too late.

I was looking for just some such sign otherwise I would have passed by without paying much attention. .Incidentally the footprints of a man showed in this field edge a day or two previous. Inquiry disclosed the sponsor and his father had visited the site on Monday. It was the elder of the pair who had walked the field edge without noting anything amiss. The turkey's have apparently left the scene of their release for they have been reported observed in districts several miles distant. Losses from predation is bound to occur with the release of pen reared birds. Let us hope enough survive to propagate their kind.

Winged or four legged predators are bad enough but homo sapiens, mere man, has them all backed off the map. If he is not content with himself he is allowing his hunting dog to roam at will through the fields and woodlots. There are many men who would not dream of shooting game, or game birds, in the spring or summer yet will allow their hunting dog to kill to their hearts content and watch their eat fetch home young rabbits, grouse, woodcock, pheasants or whatever you wish, without taking any steps to halt such activities. The cat, or dog either for that matter, are not to blame. They are merely following their natural instincts. The owner of a cat, if it is considered a household pet, can put a crimp in her predatory activities by placing a small bell on a strap around her neck. In my days on the farm I kept our cat in a vacant fox pen during the spring and summer months. Incidentally this office is deluged with complaints about hunting dogs howling both day and night in woodlots. The biggest rash of such complaints in years, I know a number of farmers who have a shotgun handy and are not afraid to use it so if your hunting dog fails to return home some day don't blame anyone else but yourselves.

A record spring flight of wild-geese have winged their way northward this spring. Reports seeping in from all three counties also indicates that spring shooting time record. Some of the information, at least any that is really worth while, has been given in confidence and perforce must be treated in good faith. I never betray a confidence in such matters. For instance: I have received information that so and so walked to his car and put a back load of geese and two on three. . in the trunk. My informant does not want his name used. If he weighed 200 pounds and could lick his weight in wildcats he'd give evidence to that effect. Sad to relate he doesn't weigh anything near that and he is not a fighter man. Incidentally this gunner was interviewed: "I'm not talking" was his comment, "I'm willing to pay fifty dollars extra to find out who informed on me". And that was that.

In another instance a person walked into a certain kitchen on a Sunday morning a few weeks ago and an occupant remarked: "It's a good job you're not Jankins. I have two geese roasting in the oven". Yes, I can smell them", was the reply. Here is a gentle reminder spring goose shooters: Don't get the idea into your heads that a game officer, or Peace officer, cannot enter and search a premises without a Search Warrant. The Migratory Birds Convention Act furnishes such powers. If your game is going to serve the purpose for which it was shot it had to be cooked or stored in a Frigidaire or Deep Freeze. I have, during my years as game officer, removed ducks from an oven that were ready to place on the table and the man of the house paid a high price

C.R.U. Sells TV Rights To Grey Cup

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Rugby Union has sold television, radio and film program rights for the 1956 Grey Cup football final for more than $150,000, it was learned Thursday.

Estimate of the figure was obtained following announcements in Montreal and Toronto of the names of the companies which purchased the program rights.

In Montreal, Senator Harland deM. Molson, president of Molson's Brewery, announced that it has obtained the rights to televise the annual classic which will be played in Toronto Nov. 24.

However, the brewery could sponsor the telecast only in Quebec because of regulations governing brewery advertising.

In Toronto, it was announced that General Motors would act as sponsor in all provinces except Quebec.

It was estimated that last year's telecast was seen by 4,000,000 as Edmonton Eskimos defeated Montreal Alouettes for the Canadian championship.

Queen Rodney is one of the best bred fillies ever brought to Canada and we might mention that her great-grandmother Margaret Parrish 4, 2.06 1/4 is the dam of two, granddam of 6 in 2.00, etc. Queen Rodney was entered by her breeders in over $150,000 worth of stakes.

The 1956 racing season in the Maritimes opened with a bang Monday afternoon with programs at Sackville Downs, Sydney and Truro. N.S. at Sackville Downs secretary, Ken MacDougall reports: "We had a good opener, nice crowd of 2,500. Pari-mutuel handle around $15,000. Weather a little chilly but clear and bright. Here are the winners: Races 1 & 4, Mischief Clare (S. Walker) 1-2 Connally (O'Brien) 2-1, Billy P. C. Parker (O'Brien) 3-3. Time, 1.06, 1.05 1/5.

The winning owners are, Mischief Clare, Charles Walker, Lower Sackville; Connally, C. L. Dauphinee, Halifax. Races 2 and 6, Rusty Miller, owned and driven by Harold Cleveland, 1-1, Pepper Shaker (N. Campbell) 2-5, Bobby Hunter (Phillips) 3-2, Time, 1.07, 1.07. Races 3 and 7, Sport Volo (O'Brien) 1-1, Dusty Velvee (Morton) 2-4, Robin Cleve (N. Campbell) 8-2, Time, 1.06 3/5, 1.07. Races 5 and 8, Mahlon Hanover, owned and driven by L. O'Brien, 1-1, Kellar Hanover (C. Hector) 2-4, Lusty's Queen (H. Walsh) 4-2. Time, 1.08, 1.07 3/5.

At Truro the season's opening was witnessed by a large crowd of racing enthusiasts. The afternoon was a pleasant one and the ed observed in districts several miles distant. Losses from predation is bound to occur with the release of pen reared birds. Let us hope enough survive to propagate their kind.

Donnie Turner of Dartmouth won six of the ten-dash card — quite a record to start the season with. . . . Races 1 and 4, Easter Marie, owned and driven by Don Turner, 1-1, Newfie Girl (K. Pinkney) 2-2, Maryland Ellen (C. MacLeod) 4-3, Big Boy (Haley) 3-6, Time, 1.08 2/5, 1.08 1/5. Races 2 and 7, Sally Joe, owned and driven by Harley Harrison, 1-1, Judy Budlong (Haley) 2-3, Iagoo (Pinkney) 3-2, Time, 1.07 3/5, 1.07 1/5. Races 3 and 8, Josedale Clansman, owned and driven by Don Turner, 1-1, Bud Henley (G. Turner) 2-4, Dr. Brodie (Daniels) 3-2, Time, 1.04, 1.05 — the former time the fastest paced in the Maritimes this season. Races 5 and 7, Farneud, owned and driven by Don Turner, 1-1, Nibble Sun (Harrison) 2-2, Time, 1.06 4/5, 1.06. Races 6 and 10, Pepper Boy, owned and driven by George Turner, 1-2, Billy's Pride, owned by R. H. Williams, Truro and driven by Ed. Haley.

for a duck dinner he didn't get a chance to eat. A hunter said to me recently: "It's a mean thing to go into a man's house and look in his deep freeze. .why don't you try and catch him in the act or with the geese in this car". I believe in fighting fire with fire. I take a very dim view of anyone shooting geese or ducks in the spring when they are ready to reproduce their kind. Its not only contrary to man made laws but also to the law of Nature.

BIT OF RODEO ROUGHRIDING

This bit of rodeo roughriding occurred at Roosevelt raceway, New York, recently, after the pacer to the post for the first race when pacer Dick Adios dumped his driver, Del Miller by whirling around and rearing up. After depositing Miller on the Roosevelt strip, Dick Adios started high-tailing it around the oval in wild horse fashion, with Marshall Herb Sondericker in hot pursuit. Sondericker finally nabbed the driverless horse. Judges scratched him, figuring the effort was too much for him to race less than 10 minutes later.

On several occasions as presiding judge. He has a likeable personality and a very quiet manner which should enable him to cope with all the chores that confront him. In succeeding Cecil Alexander he has quite a reputation to live up to because Cecil as one of the finest classifiers one could find anywhere. Also of interest to the horsemen is the fact that we have changed out distribution of purse money to 40 percent, 25 percent, 17 percent, 10 percent and 8 percent, having previously operated on a 40 percent, 30 percent, 15 percent, 10 percent and 5 percent basis.

From Edwin Keller's Hoot Prints we note that stables are moving into Foxboro. Arrivals the past week included the candidates of Chris O'Donnell, Howard Britt, Billy Hood and Ted Landry. One of the popular Foxboro teamsters, 25 year old Jimmy Larente, has his stable owned by Lucien Dugre of Sherbrooke, Que. In high form on the Maryland circuit, Jimmy displayed a shifty 3-year-old pacer candidate in Snow Flake, a daughter of the Mighty Adios Shee is a winner early in the week in 2.09 2-5. He also had a 2.06 ride with the rugged 5-year-old pacer Sandy Rosecroft — Famous Hanover turned in one of the week's top trotting efforts with a mile in 2.04 3-5 at Rosecroft to land a $4,000 stake.

And here's Rannie MacDonald on the Maryland circuit. Arrivals the past week included the candidates of Chris O'Donnell, Howard Britt, Billy Hood and Ted Landry. George MacDonald has handed us a page from Trotting and Pacing, 1897, giving the summaries at the Baltimore, Maryland, Driving Park, Sept. 21—23. Class, 2.19 1/4; 2.40 class, purse $500, 18 starters, best time, 2.20 1/4; 2.30 class, purse $500, 14 starters, best time 2.23 1/2. Harness racing was certainly tough business in those days and no doubt there were a lot of spills, broken sulkeys and injured drivers.

VETERAN DRIVER
The many friends of Johnny McCabe, Iona, will be interested to learn that he celebrated his eightieth birthday last Sunday. Johnny was one of the top drivers era racing from 1900 until well along in 1920's. He could balance, train and drive a horse with the best in the Province, one of his favorites being Orwell Belle 2.19-1/2.

We welcome a letter from our friend Doug R. Neal, manager Saint John Exhibition Raceway, in which he states that as soon as the weatherman brightens things up the track will be in good shape after the big re-opening program that has been going on for some time. "At a meeting of our harness racing committee Ford Jones was appointed to succeed the late Cecil M. Alexander as race secretary and classifier. Ford is no stranger to the race folk and the horsemen of the area having served as an official since 1952, first in the capacity of associate judge, then as starter and Elsewhere in this issue will be found an ad for the 7-year-old pacer Buddy O'Connor, by Calumet Budlong 2.02 1/4, dam Hettie Frisco by Frisco Dale 4, 2.00, dam Hettie V. 3, 2.06 1/4. We looked up a summary of Buddy's for July 22, 1953 at Summerside, where he was 1-1, Sleepy Sam 2-2, Propane 3-3, Carl Aubrey 4-4, Ann's Pride 5-7, three other starters. Time, 2.19 2-5, 2.16 4-5. Buddy also won at Charlottetown on August 4th of the same year, taking a record of 2.15 1-5.

We were pleased to have a visit from Wilfred Furness of Vernon Bridge and to find him looking as active as usual. He told us that he had turnips planted about three weeks ago that were up in straight rows and quite sturdy looking. He is also interested in horses being the owner of Midnight Melody by Calumet Budlong, dam Nell Cuchotdale, also the dam of the famous race mare Nell Kalmuck 2.09 1-5. Midnight Melody is now in foal to True Hal 2.06. Wilfred is also very pleased with a foal by True Hal out of Radiant Morn by Pagliacci 2.09, born about three weeks ago. We had not sited up our friend Wilfred although we have known him for a long time. Our mistake was in believing that he was not interested in race horses, but the above will show that we missed the mark by a long shot.

A great friend of this column writes us that Murray Kay, who with Ellis Gilmour conducted the Saratoga Spring Horse Sale each year, died at Southington, Conn. last Friday. He followed his pal Ellis Gilmour by less than two months. Both had heart attacks about two years ago. Murray Kay was all known to many horsemen in the Maritimes. He occupied the position of auctioneer at Harris-

Baseball Meeting Held At Summerside On Thursday

Another meeting of the Baseball Association of Summerside was held Thursday night in the C.J.R. W. studios. The business of presenting the "quartet Cavalcade" was discussed, and it begins to look now as if there will be enough entries in this competition to make it a real successful venture. Charlottetown, Summerside and the R.C.A.F. station are now represented, and it is still hoped that we will be able to induce some other centres to join the Cavalcade before the deadline, May 31.

Elmer Matheson has secured a sponsor for his team. The team will be under the wing of A. E. MacLennan Motors, and will be called the "Pontiacs." The boys are getting a new set of uniforms and will certainly look smart come opening day. The other two team managers, Joe Bernard and Laysh Schurman, are still hopeful that they will be able to secure sponsors before the season gets underway.

The three teams seem quite evenly matched on paper. What will happen when they start tossing the apple around is another question. Each club has a solid core of veteran ball players with a lot of youngsters added. Veteran pitchers seem to be the greatest lack. Paul Schurman, Don Simmons, and Dee Lefurgy, who did the bulk of the pitching with Joe Bernard in the last few years have all left for other pastures, and Garland Harris, who has been considered the best of the youngsters is also absent from the town. Left to carry the moundman's burden are Eddie Douie, Vance Harris, Garth Harris, Douie Arsenault, and maybe one or two more, all with little enough experience in toeing the slab, but promising material just the same.

It is expected we will have either a baseball or a softball game with sailors of the Algonquin which is making a four-day stay at Summerside the middle of June. The kind of game will depend on what type of team is on the ship, and the date set is June 16.

Heath Waples is here with a stable of 22 horses, Frank Church 22, Mr. Turcott 17, all owned by Mr. Turcott. Hon. Earl Rowe has a good stable of six and they look to be the best conditioned stable at the track. There are many horses from across the line, most of them in top shape. There are a number of boys from P.E. Island caretaking and doing all right. Some stables are short of good caretakers at present. I have most of the horses worked down to 2.20, a couple in 2.16. I shipped Dean Gallon to Mr. Semple last week. I hope he can improve on him as he is real nice horse to handle. Kalmuck's Last, owned by C. H. Sutherland, Sydney, is in training and I look for him to take a good record this year. Wishing you all the best of racing season, Rannie."

Harry Howell Key Figure Furious Cobb - Lajoie Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—The recent death of Harry (Handsome Harry) Howell, former American League pitching star, recalls that he was a key figure in the furious battle between Napoleon Lajoie of Cleveland, and Ty Cobb of Detroit for the American League batting title in 1910.

The battle was so close that only seven ten-thousandths of a point separated them at the finish with Cobb the winner, .3848 to the Frenchman's .3841. What made it so close was that Lajoie came up with eight hits in the last double-header of the season, six of them on bunts which were palpable gift hits by the co-operative St. Louis Browns.

Lajoie's six bunt singles — all down the third base line — smelled so fishy that league president Ben Johnson ordered an immediate investigation. Rookie third baseman John (Red) Corriden of the Browns
