CASE SETTLED.—A case pending in the Supreme Court between John McQuaid and T. A. McLean, Esq., and referred by Chief Justice Sullivan to arbitration by F. L. Hazard, has been decided by the arbitrator in favor of Mr. McLean.

A MALICIOUS ACT.—The windows in the front of the Skating Rink building have all been broken by some destructive ruffians, who unfortunately have not yet been found out. A reward of $10.00 is offered by the Secretary of the Skating Rink Co. for any information that will lead to the conviction of whoever committed this disgraceful act, and we trust the culprits will be found and severely punished.

A business education will be of advantage to every man, whatever his future occupation may be. To the farmer it will teach business habits and attention to accounts, which will give them increased interest and success. To the merchant it will teach order, system, management, the practical value of book-keeping, and remedy many of its difficulties. To the professional man it will afford a clearer insight into the practical operation of business affairs, and give him facilities in obtaining obtaining practice.—E. F. Freedley.

THE REGATTA.—In reference to the paragraph which appeared in last evening's issue with regard to the invitations that have been issued to the St. John and Halifax oarsmen, we are informed by the Regatta Committee that they have specially invited these crews, but as it will take a large amount of money to bring the king four-oared crews of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to Charlottetown, we hope that the citizens will contribute generously to the regatta fund, and if they do we may look for one of the best contested races on October 1st next, that ever took place in Charlottetown.

THE WORCESTER.—The steamer Worcester left for Boston yesterday evening at six o'clock. She had a full cargo and the following passengers: Minnie Malone, May Carey, Mrs. Stone, N. A. DIED.—At New Glasgow, Sept. 7th, of jaundice, Austin Richmond Hill, only and beloved child of Elijah and Priscilla Hill, aged one year and eleven months.

Go to thy rest, fair child!
Go to thy nameless bed,
While yet so gentle, undefiled,
With blessings on thy head.

Fresh flowers in thy hand,
Buds on thy pillow laid;
Haste from this dark and fearful land
Where flowers so quickly fade.

Shall love with quick embrace
Thy upward way detain?
No! gentle angel, seek thy place
Amid the cherub train.

At the Afton Road, Lot 36, on the 2nd inst., Mary Steele, relict of the late Roderick Steele, at the advanced age of 99 years. Mrs. Steele was born in the western part of the Island, and retained all her faculties until shortly before her death. She leaves several children, grand-children and great-grand-children. Her remains were interred at St. Andrew's Church.

Artillerymen at Quebec.

St. John, Sept. 12. Lt.-Col. Armstrong and nearly all the artillery men who went to Quebec to take part in the shooting returned home yesterday morning. The competition will be continued to-day and to-morrow by various detachments. Up to the time Lt.-Col. Armstrong left Quebec the St. John men stood well up in front, holding second place in the forty-pounders and first in the sixty-pounders, as follows: 40 pounders—No. 2, Lewis, 59; No. 4, St. John, 54; No. 3, Montreal, 50; No. 2, Montreal, 45; No. 5, Montreal, 45; No. 4, Montreal, 44; No. 1, Montreal, 41; No. 5, Fairville, 30; No. 2, Carleton, 33; No. 6, Montreal, 30. 64 pounders—No. 2, Carleton, 59; No. 2, Montreal, 34; No. 2, Lewis, 34; No. 5, Fairville, 32; No. 4, St. John, 29; No. 1, Montreal, 24. [Up to the time this telegram was sent the teams from Nova Scotia and P. E. Island had not competed].

Presentation to Lieut. Stairs.

HALIFAX, Sept. 11. The Council Chamber was crowded with a brilliant audience to-day to witness the presentation to Lieut. Stairs of the address from the City Council. The address complimented him on the part he had taken in the Stanley Expedition, and the pride felt that the second in command to Stanley was a son of Halifax. Mr. Stairs, dressed in the uniform of an officer of the Engineers, in reply expressed his gratification that such a reception had been tendered him. He defended the Stanley Expedition for the relief of Emin Pasha from the criticisms of some who charged it with want of sincerity, and spoke of the great benefits which its results would accrue to British commerce and civilization. Governor Daly tendered congratulations on behalf of the people of Nova Scotia to Lieut. Stairs.

The Colt Stake Races.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 11. The races for the Maritime colt stakes came off on the Riding Grounds this afternoon. The weather was all that could be desired, the track in good condition and the thousands who witnessed the contests were very enthusiastic over the fine sport. Dexter won the two-year-old in two straight heats in 3.01 and 2.57. Sir Charles, belonging to R. C. Sharp, of Amherst, distanced the field and won in the three-year-old in the splendid time of 2.36. A. L. Slipp's Sea King won in the four-year-old in 2.39, 2.40, 2.40.

A New Paper.

LONDON, Sept. 11. The latest venture in London journalism is the Labor World, which is about to appear under Michael Davitt as editor. Davitt says the labor problem is the most vital issue that confronts the statesmanship of the civilized world, and will occupy the serious attention of the European governments for the next ten years. The paper will be a thorough home-ruler.

The Scheme Adopted.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Sept. 11. The Legislative Assembly by a vote of 97 to 11 has adopted Sir Henry Parks' scheme for Australian Federation. The Assembly appointed a committee to represent the Colony at the Common Eederal Convention.

A Drop in Sugar.

MONTREAL, Sept. 11. A despatch received here to-day from New York states that sugar has dropped from 81 to 74, and it is rumored that the great sugar trust will pass a dividend to-morrow.

Strike Ended.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 11. The strike has ended, the workmen accepting the employers terms as offered a fortnight ago. Little sympathy is felt for the workmen.

West India-Canadian S. S. Service.

OTTAWA, Sept. 11. Sir Ambrose Shea is expected here to-morrow to urge a re-organization of the West Indian Canadian steam service so as to accommodate the Bahamas.
