

MR. AND MRS. ORVILLE ERNEST WILLIS

Wed At St. James Church Will Live In O'Leary

A wedding of interest to friends and relatives was solemnized in St. James United Church, West Covehead, when Annie Greia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Proutie, Brackley, P.E.I. was united in marriage with Orville Ernest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Willis, O'Leary, P.E.I. Rev. W. H. Forsyth, pastor of the church performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli and mixed flowers. Mrs. Earl Clark played the wedding music. The guest list: Mrs. Stirling MacLeod, sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the entrance of the wedding party, and "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register. The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a ballerina length gown of white nylon lace and net over satin; the yoke was embroidered with flowers of seed pearls. She wore a chapel length veil, held in place by a headress of net and pearls, and carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty Roses.

The maid of honour, Miss Barbara Cudmore, wore a ballerina length gown of gold crystalite over satin, with a matching head-dress, and carried a cascade bouquet of deep pink and white carnations. Mr. Glydon Willis, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Ellsworth Proud and Mr. Carl Willis.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a dress of black printed taffeta, with white accessories and a corsage of white mums. The groom's mother wore a dress of bronze satin crystalite with black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow mums.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Gregor Hotel, Brackley Beach, and was capably catered by Mrs. Jack Cameron. The bride's table, beautifully decorated for the occasion, was centered by a three tier wedding cake, topped with lace and pink roses.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. W. H. Forsyth, and responded to by the groom, Mrs. Ellsworth Proud was in charge of the guest book.

Amid showers of confetti the happy couple left on a tour of the Maritimes and New England States. For travelling the bride wore a beige and gold flecked, tweed suit, with gold and brown accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. Upon return the young couple are residing in O'Leary. into your reducing routine. To add zest to slimming, join your mystery dieter in her adventure in figure fixing. Our model's goal is to lose 30 excess pounds by Valentine's Day. So here's a challenge—why not doff your excess pounds need to lose that amount of weight but you can aim to be ideal weight by that date.

This dietitian has noted that you overweighters respond with alacrity to columns reporting reducing triumphs. Such stories whet your interest because they prove it can be done. . . if other overweighters can reduce by right eating, you decide that you can too.

On this same premise, by participating with a resolute dieter from the start, your success can parallel her success.

Our mystery dieter is typical of most overweighters, as you will see from her letter requesting help. "I have followed your column with great interest and it is my hope that you can help me. I am 28 years old, 5' 4" medium frame, weigh 157 pounds! While I'm not circus material yet, I am dumpy and have gone from size 11 to 16 in eight years. I have tried hundreds of diets, one under a doctor's care, with pills. I was so sure I could diet on my own and without pills, I stopped the vitamins and regained the 15 pounds—plus two more.

HARD TO BEAT
"Honestly I want to lose weight. I realize it is simply bad eating habits that have added the extra pounds. I'm fond of sweets and while I say to myself, 'Keep thinking of that form-fitting suit you want!', I still find myself with a cookie in hand.

"In a department store recently I got a good view of myself in a full length mirror and nearly fainted. Then and there I resolved to get this fat off. I mean to show my husband I intend to go through with it. I know I can slim down if I eat properly. Won't you please tell me just how to proceed?"

Because our model is typical of many overweight young housewives, I asked if she would like to be our mystery dieter. She accepted eagerly. If you would like to join the crusade to slim down and stay that way, send for the new leaflet Stay Slim For A Lifetime Diet and the New Calorie Chart.

Tomorrow, our model's measurements will be given, and from then on we will report her progress every second week.

HAPPENINGS

Miss Wilma Taylor whose marriage takes place to Mr. Sterling McLure at 2.30 this Saturday in Trinity United Church is being pleasantly entertained by relatives and friends.

Mrs. William MacManus and Miss Bernadette MacManus entertained recently at their residence, 3 Stewart Street, at a buffet luncheon in honor of Miss Wilma Taylor. Tea was poured by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Taylor. Miss Beryl Shelton, Miss Shirley Douron, R.N., and Miss Bernadette MacManus assisted. After luncheon many beautiful gifts were presented to Miss Taylor. The accompanying good wishes were read by Miss Shirley Vessey.

Miss Shirley Vessey and Miss Pearl Mahar entertained at a kitchen shower Monday evening at Miss Vessey's residence, Green St., in honor of Miss Wilma Taylor. Many gifts were received for the colorful well equipped kitchen.

Miss Edna Foley read the accompanying humorous verses. The hostesses were assisted by Miss Marjorie Murray and Miss Edna Foley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh John McLure Fitzroy Street, entertained Wednesday evening at a supper party after the rehearsal of the McLure—Taylor wedding party at Trinity United Church.

Mrs. F. S. Reeves, Southport, has left for Florida, where she plans to spend the winter months. Mrs. Angus Cameron, King Square, has as her guest her grandson, Mr. William Monaghan, Ottawa.

Friends in this province will be interested to hear of the marriage in Vancouver, B.C. of Edwin Heath Saunders formerly of Charlottetown and Mary Margaret Rees of Toronto. Mr. Saunders is a son of Mrs. E. G. Saunders and the late Mr. Saunders.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Christmas Cake Is Baked

There was the spicy aroma of a baking Christmas Cake in the rooms of the house across the lane when we came to visit a moment there this afternoon. It is, we think, one of the delightful fragrances, and the making a solemn and lovely rite.

What pictures that scent of spices and fruits return to mind. Earliest memories it brings to either child or grown-up. And always the first one is that of a mother, the only mother for us in all the wide world. Busy at the various phases of the mixing, her face a little concerned that all would not go well with this work of her hands. Warning us to walk gently, later, so that no untimely jar might tend to bring its downfall. And no stealthy peeping in to the oven either no matter how much one might like to see the mixture climb toward the top of the pan that too, would be bound to bring some imperfection to mar, not only the Fall day but also to extend to the season we loved.

Other scenes too are in the loved scent: always the hustle and secrecy and the happy expectancy of the season ahead; the "good-will-to-men" in folks' hearts; the shining eyes of the children as they anticipate its joys; the tree selected in the woodlot or along some hedgerow—a dear tree, trim and scented with the delights and mysteries of woody places. And tenderly carried home to be a thing of beauty in a hallowed corner there. And one night the lights from the Church shining out brightly along the snow, in token of the Christmas Concert And at home the greens above lintels and mantels, the cards gay and bright, the gaily wrapped parcels, the colorful Christmas lights.

And somewhere a glimpse of the scene of the Nativity—the Babe, Mary, Joseph, the manger, soft with the down of dried grasses—the beamed stable, the quiet cattle in mind, a picture set in the surroundings that folks on farms, young and older know so well. And a star—always a star in the night.

BASILICA M. A.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mother's Auxiliary of the Basilica scouts and cubs was held in Holy Name Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 13 with a large attendance of mothers.

Mrs. Roy McCabe, the president, opened the meeting with prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. E. Blanchard, and were approved as read. In the absence of the treasurer Mrs. V. Snow the report was read by Mrs. J. Dorsey and showed a satisfactory bank balance. The returns from the Christmas Cards showed that nearly all the cards had been sold.

Mrs. Allan McKinnon, Chairman of the telephone committee asked for additional workers, Mrs. Gerard Mullally, sewing committee, reported that 8 neckerchiefs had been passed in.

It was moved by Mrs. James Lawton and seconded by Mrs. Allan McKinnon to lottery a fruit cake and to have Mrs. Niel MacNevin make the cake again this year.

Mrs. Alphonsus McQuaid sick committee reported making 1 visit to a sick cub and bringing him a treat and that two get well cards had been sent to members.

Such a large number of boys entered Mrs. M. McDonald's Pack it was necessary to divide the Pack and Mrs. J. Dorsey has taken over the C Pack and has as her helper Miss Doris Coady.

The lunch committee for the Dec. 11th meeting is Mrs. Frank Hughes, Mrs. Niel MacNevin, Mrs. L. Connolly, Mrs. Allan McKinnon, Mrs. Gerard Mullally and Mrs. E. J. Chinnery. The meeting adjourned on motion of Mrs. G. Mitchell seconded by Mrs. N. MacNevin.

The Christmas scene, a great glittering one, bright against the dark blue sky of the night. And bells? Yes, ringing out the song of the angels—the "Unto-us-is-born" of the Christmas.

Windows—town, country so beautifully lit, Christmas trees aglow. And the chimneys and the carols. How we love them; the solemnity of "The First Noel"; the frost and sparkle and joy of "It came upon the midnight clear"; the magic of "Hark the Herald Angels sing"; the tenderness of "Away in a Manger."

Gentler voices, kinder hearts. All these things and many more we see when we catch the aroma of a baking Christmas Cake. Such a one Jeanie, busy and a little concerned over it all but obviously enjoying the rite, baked this afternoon and the children Granddaughter and Mark admired to-night with delight. They, too, it was evident, saw all of Christmas in the sight.
