Juvenile Teams Clash

TWO fine Charlottetown juvenile teams clash this afternoon at the Sports Arena in the second game of their two-game total goal series.

Prince of Wales College Welshmen downed Abbies 11-8 Thursday afternoon in the opener at St. Dunstan's rink and carry a three-goal margin in today's final which is scheduled for the Sports Arena at 6 o'clock.

However, the fact the collegians had a three-goal edge on the Abbies and Black doesn't mean youngsters youngsters don't let little things like a few goals bother them and Abbies will be going out early in today's game in an effort to bring things back on equal terms.

Meanwhile Summerside juveniles are anxiously waiting for a winner to be declared so they can tackle the survivor in a two-game series for the Prince Edward Island juvenile championship. Again this final series should be a thriller with neither team holding any advantage over its opponent.

These boys in juvenile ranks play good brand of hockey and folks surely should see to it that they get word of good crowds at their battles.

Let's give a better boost to this brand of hockey.

Fight For Positions

TORONTO Maple Leafs catch up with Chicago Black Hawks tonight in "games played."

Punch Imlach's crew enter tonight's battle with Detroit Red Wings a full six points up on the Hawks. After the smoke of battle clears at Maple Leaf Gardens, both Leafs and Hawks will have played 40 games with the Hawks leading by one.

All Eyes On Forbie

IF DETROIT is going to make those Stanley Cup playoffs, it would surely be nice to see Forbie in Toronto.

Forbie is expected to be in Toronto tonight all eyes will be watching as Wings try to upend Leafs. If Forbie could sink one for the Abbies tonight, Detroit would be happy.

Wings, however, haven't enjoyed too much success with Leafs this season. But backers of Detroit will quickly tell you that last season they were the better team.

But what happens in those playoffs? Leafs won the first game in the Wings in overtime in the semi-finals and then proceeded to lose the series. A couple of weeks ago Wings were beaten 6-1 by Chicago Saturday and 8-2 by Toronto Sunday (both games in Detroit). Yet last Saturday night they looked great in Montreal as they killed the Hawks 4-2.

It's hard to predict for a team that does things like that.

Ramblers In Town

AND on the local scene Amherst Ramblers are in town for the first game of the Maritime senior hockey championships with Sandy's Paradise Royals.

Ramblers will be expected to be heavy favorites to repeat as champions but the local boys insist they'll make things extremely interesting for the NSHL bosses.

A packed Sports Arena is certain to view this one and fans are most likely to witness the fastest hockey of this season. Get your tickets early.

The program consisted of 20 age competitions along with costume parades for boys and girls in grades one and two.

A feature was a Mirror hockey game between Queen Square Area and Lions which ended in a scoreless deadlock.
