CONCERT IN THE LYCEUM

The concert in the Lyceum Theatre on Wednesday evening was a decided success, and the promoters as well as the performers are receiving the congratulations of their friends. The programme, as published, was carried out faithfully and well, and despite the note to the contrary on the foot of the list of items nearly every one who took part was encored. Vocal solo were given by Mrs James Byrne, Miss Emma Benoit, Mr McLaughlin, Mr C Roy, Mr Leslie Cook and Mr Eugene Brown. The Misses Butler contributed a duet, and there were two quartettes, the first by the Misses Smith and Benoit and Messrs Maloney and Cook, and the second by Messrs McInnis, Brown, Hennessey and McLeod. There was also a chorus by St. Dunstan's Glee Club, and another by a number of young ladies from the convent. Readings were given by Miss Bessie Burke, Major Weeks and Mr. T. A. McLean. The Misses Murphy gave an instrumental duet, and made their second appearance later on assisted on the piano by Miss May Carroll. Mr. Major Galbraith played a cornet solo, and the League of the Cross Band gave the opening selection. The stage was prettily decorated. During the intermission candy was sold. The proceeds went towards the senior class of the Convent de Notre Dame. The receipt were in the neighborhood of $90. The piano used on the occasion was kindly loaned by Mr W J O'Reilly.

The St. John Sun pointed out that the present Government have made eleven appointments from the House of Commons—four members have become judges, four senators, two departmental officials, and one a lieutenant-governor—and asked how this could be reconciled with Mr. Mulock's bill to make it unlawful for any member of Parliament to accept an office of emolument. The Telegraph replies: "One thing is certain, in making appointments from members of the House of Commons the Liberals are but following the example of their predecessors in office." And the Montreal Gazette says "apparently the Liberals have quite abandoned the position that pledges made in opposition are of any account when the party is in power. They have made a political principle of the old saw that 'promises are like pie-crust—made to be broken.'"

STEAMER LATE.—Owing to the thick weather of the past two days, the Princess has been later than usual in arriving from Picton, and the proportion of mail matter sent out by the early train each day was necessarily small.

AT THE BUTTS.—The shooting match to have taken place on Greenwood range yesterday between teams representing Charlottetown and Pownal was not fired, the bad roads and the uncertainty of the weather making an indefinite postponement necessary.

MURDERED FOR INSURANCE.—Mrs Rebecca A Rosenbarger was arrested at Princeton, Ind, last week on the charge of poisoning her sixteen-year-old son. Three weeks ago Mrs Rosenbarger took out a life insurance policy for $2,000 on the boy's life, payable to herself.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—The holiday was generally observed. The stores and public offices were closed. The weather throughout the day and evening was mild though a trifle moist, and the street crossings were very muddy. To-day, however, this latter grievance is being remedied by men with brooms.

GOOD BUTTER MAKING.—On Tuesday last, the 22nd inst., the butter factory at Park Corner, packed 726 lbs. of butter. This is good for the season. Mr. A. FUNERAL TO DAY.—The funeral of the late Alber Dinah McEwen, who died on Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr Duncan McNeill, Bayfield Street, took place this afternoon at one o'clock, to Cornwall Cemetery. The attendance was large.

A KINDLY ACT.—The inmates of the Prince Edward Island Hospital and of the Hospital for the Insane were kindly remembered yesterday by the children of the Kindergarten. The delicacies were conveyed to the respective institutions by Mr. Harry Worth, whose kindness is greatly appreciated.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.—The Ven. Archdeacon Phair conducted a Thanksgiving service yesterday morning, and delivered a very impressive sermon. The poor fund of the parish was considerably augmented by the collection. In the afternoon the Archdeacon gave a highly interesting address to the Women's Auxiliary to missions in the schoolroom.

SHORTAGE OF FISH CATCH.—The shortage of the fish catch is evident from a remark that a leading merchant in the business made to the Halifax Herald. His warehouse is full of an immense stock. Yet he said he did not expect to have enough to fill orders, implying that stocks elsewhere are light. Fishermen are receiving more than one dollar per quintal higher price than a year ago.

SCOTT ACT.—Before Stipendiary Magistrate Blanchard, at St. Peter's Bay, on Tuesday evening, Jane Dingwell, of Morrell, was fined $50 and costs or two months imprisonment for an infraction of the Scott Act. An eloquent address was delivered by the Bishop. Rev. Mr. Godfrey will to-day be inducted into the charge of the parish.

THANKSGIVING TEA.—The annual Thanksgiving tea at the Poor House yesterday afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by the inmates of that institution. The tables were well filled with delicacies, and the walls of the institution were appropriately decorated with evergreens. After the repast came singing, and an address by Mrs. Smallwood. Before the close of the proceedings Sergeant Allen, upon behalf of those under his care, thanked the kind ladies of the W. C. T. U., and those associated with them for their thoughtfulness in remembering the poor on this and former occasions.

THE LOBSTER PACK.—The Halifax Herald reports that "The lobster pack this season fell considerably short of that of last year and prices were higher than ever before. The figure obtained on the other side is about $10 per case. Those in the trade believe that next year a similar amount will be obtainable, but only for the very best qualities. Nothing, in fact but the very best goods will be saleable in Europe. This season's output contained some of the illegal goods, but this year practically no illegal packing is being done and next season's goods will be more uniform. With lobsters at $10 it is perfectly useless to think of disposing of anything but the very best qualities."
