

Clark - Campbell Nuptials

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at Clydeview Cottage, New Glasgow on Thursday Dec. 14th at 6:30 P.M. when Shirley Doreen Campbell youngest daughter of Mrs. Preston Campbell and the late Mr. Campbell exchanged marriage vows with Chesley William Clark, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark of Cavendish, Rev. Paul Richardson officiated at the ceremony.

Soft nuptial music was played during the service, with Mrs. George Dickson as pianist.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal chorus, the bride entered the room on the arm of her brother, Mr. Stirling Campbell who gave her in marriage. She looked charming, as she took her place under a beautiful evergreen arch which was banked with flowers.

The bride's friend, Miss Marion MacDonald was the bridesmaid, and wore a dress similar to the bride's with her corsage of pink roses.

Little Heather Campbell was her aunt's flower girl, wearing rose velvet and carrying a nosegay of yellow mums.

The groom was ably supported by his friend Mr. Beverley Dickson.

During the signing of the register Mr. George Clark cousin of the groom sang, "Because."

The bride's mother was dressed in forest green accordion pleated crepe wearing a corsage of yellow roses.

While the groom's mother chose black silk crepe in a flower-crepe design and a corsage of pink roses. After felicitations had been bestowed upon the youthful couple, about forty invited guests, were escorted by Mrs. Stirling Campbell to the dining room, which was very pretty in white and yellow streamers. The bride's table centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and with silver candlesticks and yellow tapers made a very pretty setting for the buffet supper prepared by Mrs. Brenton Dickson and assisted by Miss E. L. Campbell aunt of the bride. Those assisting in the dining-room were Mrs. Everett Haslam, Mrs. Wallace Dickson who poured at the bride's table, and Mrs. Ernest Houston and Mrs. Bruce Curtis, the bride's two aunts, presided over the second table.

Mrs. Ralph Dickson and Miss Eleanor Axworthy served.

The bride's gift to Miss Marion, was an identification bracelet and to the organist a brooch and ear ring set.

Pr: going away the bride wore a green gabardine suit, with brown hat, gold train, and brown accessories, and beautiful fur coat the gift of the groom. The young couple left for a trip through the Maritimes and on their return they will reside in Cavendish where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower in New Glasgow hall. The platform was prettily decorated for the occasion where Shirley was escorted by her friend Mrs. Richard Smith to an appointed seat. Several baskets of gifts were brought in by Mrs. Wallace Dickson and Mrs. Earle Houston. Mrs. Wallace Dickson cut the strings. The verses were read by Miss Lynetta Brown and the gifts were placed on the table by Miss Anna Stevenson and Mrs. Elmer MacDonald. Many beautiful gifts as well as numerous envelopes were received, which testified to the popularity of the bride.

Shirley thanked her friends and invited all to come and visit her. "For she's a jolly good fellow" was sung.

Mrs. George Dickson presided at the organ and played lovely selections. A delicious lunch was served. Later to music furnished by the Dolron Bros, dancing was enjoyed.

BALANCE CHANGING

Of the two races in Belgium, the Germanic Flemings are increasing at about the same rate the Latin Walloons are decreasing.

Around

The Armouries

The Garrison Hockey League is in full swing at last and the high flying Sigs seem to be capable of carrying on where they left off last year. The Arty team is plagued by lack of players, but nonetheless puts up a whale of a fight each time out.

Souris did not get in for the game Monday due to snow but they are expected on hand when next scheduled.

Taking no chances is the Recce team which has practice called for tonight. They expect a full turnout this time and if they get it the rest of the league might have trouble. At least they have the makings of a good team.

A change has been made in the Officers Mess with steward Charlie Toole leaving to take another position. His place is being filled by Sgt. Joe Peters who is popular with both the officers and other ranks.

Members of the N.C.O.s Mess enjoyed some extra curricular entertainment this week when Walter Munro took charge of the piano for the evening. Munro had been appearing with Don Messer's orchestra and made a big hit with the N.C.O.s. His music was smooth and did not need any special lighting effects to make it a danceable program. Also aiding in the evening's fun was Duke Neilson. The impromptu program made a big hit with everyone present.

A minor mystery causing amusement among those in the know is the reported wonderment of a Major over the disappearance of his favorite clerk. P.S. He unexpectedly turned up in another office and the Major is looking for a new one.

The 28th L. A. A. Regiment orderly room has a changed look these days with both S/Sgt. Moreside and Cpl. McCabe among the mix-ins. They have gone on course and will be absent for several months. In the meantime 'P.R.' is holding the fort alone.

Nice gesture on the part of the Recce Band recently. Asked to play for a state sponsored by a service club for their fund for local charities the Band accepted the job at its regular fee. On being paid they immediately donated the full amount to the Club's fund. Good going, boys.

Last Sunday Lt. Col. A. W. Rogers, officer commanding the P.E.I. Regiment, held his yearly training conference during which many matters of importance were discussed. Attending were Maj. Kennedy, Maj. McNeil, Captains V.L. MacDonald and R.J. Mahar and L.J. MacDonald and RSM, E.A. Jessome.

A concentrated four months training syllabus was instituted for the unit. It will include courses in gunnery, wireless and driving and maintenance which will be conducted by the A. and T. Staff and unit N.C.O.s. In addition the A. and T. Staff will make twice weekly trips to Summerside to instruct B Squadron of the western town.

Members of the Recce will be doing more drill on a regimental basis from now on. This is due to the announcement by Col. Rogers that he will hold a full dress inspection of the regiment once a month during this year. The first such inspection will be held later this month.

The Recce hockey team will be resplendent in their regimental colors with new sweaters, crests and numbers. It is an eye-catching outfit.

At the same time the unit members are sporting their new 'flashes' and are more than a bit proud of them. They were issued during parade Sunday. The flash is a stand-out with gold and black lettering on a yellow and black background.

Members of all units, and that includes new recruits, will benefit from the increased training time now allowed — and the increased pay rates. The latter alone provides a real incentive for those considering joining the Reserve and every regiment is expecting an immediate jump in recruiting.

WO. 2 H.J. Gallant is reported as confidently expecting to receive a splendid new combination Ronson lighter and cigarette case as a reward for his competitive efforts in the adding to the funds of the N.C.O.'s Mess. His nearest competitor so far is RSM. Jessome. Honorary member Wallie Higgins.
