Rowe Sent To Showers As Tigers Lose To Red Sox 3-1; Bees Defeat Pirates 4-3

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, May 13—Bill Werber drove in all their runs with his first homer of the season as Boston Red Sox defeated Tigers 3-1 at Detroit today for their third victory in four starts against the world champions this year.

Bees' blow came in the fourth inning with Schooboy Rowe on the mound and Jimmy Fox and Eric McNair on second and first, respectively. Al Simmons' single, sandwiched in between a pair of walks and a double play, gave the Tigers their only run in the last half of the same frame.

Rube Walberg and Rowe started on the mound but neither finished. Rowe left the game at the end of the sixth with a sore arm while Walberg was taken out when the Tigers threatened in the middle of the fifth. Thorne Lawson and Fred Oesermueller finished.

Behind Monte Pearson's six-hit pitching New York Yankees evened the series with the St. Louis Browns at one all at St. Louis with a 4-1 victory.

In hanging up his fourth triumph of the season against one defeat, Pearson also fanned six. He spaced the Browns' hits over as many innings, their only run coming in the seventh on Sam West's single, a pair of walks and Lynn Lary's outfield fly.

Ben Chapman aggravated an old muscle injury while running out a two-base hit in the sixth and had to retire. He was replaced by George Selkirk.

Looking Over The St. Louis Cardinals

By Paul Mickelson, Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 13.—Down the sports trail with a gas mask—into the clubhouse of the gas house gang from old St. Looney.

Gas . . . There wasn't any ball game. Rain washed out the second engagement with the Dodgers, so the gang didn't get a chance to follow through with their cracks at Casey Stengel, whom they accused of swinging a bat at Leo Durocher.

"There," remarked Leroy Parmelee, "is the greatest and hardest fighting ball club in the game. An old fashioned country ball club that hates to lose. Right now, they're all burned up because it rained. They're letting off some gas."

Fines and Races . . . "We're the club to beat," said Manager Frankie Frisch, "but it's going to be tough with five in there and all of them making trouble. The five are us, the Giants, Cubs, Pirates and Reds."

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
MONTREAL, May 13.—Newark Bears evened the count in their three-game series against Montreal Royals today, pushing over a run in the ninth inning to take the second game 6-5.

Royals put on a stirring rally in the eighth inning to tie the score at 5-5 but failed to come through in the final inning. Frank Makosky who succeeded Marvin Duke received credit for the victory.

Four homers were hit, two on each side and all with the bases empty. Bill Baker, Newark catcher, had the day's best batting performance with three hits in four trips to the plate.

Five "Imports" Allowed Maritimes Baseball Clubs

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) AMHERST, N. S., May 13.—Maritime baseball clubs that so desire may import up to five players who possess amateur cards and are in good standing, the Maritime Provinces Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada decided today by a vote of 19-10.

The imports may come from other sections of the Maritimes, Upper or Western Canada or the United States. In the case of American players, they must also possess international permits and in all cases employers will have to produce affidavits proving the imports are acquiring proper positions in their new domiciles.

The resolution that allowed the new rule passed the meeting only after a lengthy verbal struggle and after amendments limiting the imports to three to a club or barring all imports, were defeated.

Leading the fight for new baseball talent were the delegates representing clubs in the Cape Breton Colliery League and from New Brunswick. Against it was arrayed Thomas McDonald, Halifax, President of the M. P. B. and several mainland clubs.

Warning was issued by McDonald and Sheriff C. D. Shipley, chairman of the Registration Committee, that the officials would have to be well satisfied as to the bona fides of each import before any card would be issued them.

President McDonald added that he had warned against importations early in February and that any clubs which had made expensive contracts would have to bear the brunt. If the M. P. B. discovered after the end of the season, that imports had received money for playing not only would the offending players be suspended but also all others who had competed against them.

He said he had the support of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada in his stand.

Madash Appointed Golf Pro For Guelph Club

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) GUELPH, Ont., May 13.—Appointment of Jack Madash of Amherst, N. S., as professional at the Guelph Fields golf club here was announced today. Madash was ranked for some years as one of the leading professionals in the Maritimes.

In 1933 he won the Maritime open championship and in 1931, 1932 and 1934 captured the Maritimes professional driving championship. Last year he finished well up in the General Brock open tournament and was one of the leading contestants in the Ontario open.

Joe O'Brien, who has been for years familiar to an "extrin" at local sporting events, announces that he is now on the retired list, and will not in future be a participant in any sporting or other public functions of a like nature.

Richardson Trains Hard For Olympics

(By Sydney Gruson) (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

TORONTO, May 12.—In his year of the Olympics, the name of Sammy Richardson may be written among the world's premier track and field stars. Unless some sensational unknown is uncovered when the Canadian trials are held in Montreal this summer, Richardson will lead this country's attempt to regain the laurels held in the good day of Percy Williams.

Richardson, the cheery, colored schoolboy sensation of only two years ago, has blazed a brilliant path in record-breaking performance. He may not be quite ready, but he's perfectly willing to show his worth among the world's best.

Remarkably developed for a boy of 17, Sammy stands out at present as the best broad jumper and sprinter of Canada. He is holder of the Canadian broad jumping record and has raced and beaten some of the best in the United States at sprint distances.

But the boy who got his early track victories at Toronto public and high schools doubts if he can defeat such United States sprint stars as Ralph Metcalfe, Jesse Owens, Eulace Peacock and Ben Johnson but he wants the chance to try it. There's one more hurdle to leap—the trials—and the chance is his.

It's in the broad jump, where Owens, Peacock and the Japs will give him his most opposition, that Richardson hopes to capture Olympic honors. That is the barrel-chested Richardson's specialty and the one to which he intends devoting most of his training in the coming weeks.

He jumped 24 feet, 11 inches to set the Canadian outdoor record at Winnipeg last year. For Olympic honors, Richardson will have to stretch that a foot or more. Sammy refuses to commit himself when asked if he can do enough stretching. The best he has done indoors is 24 feet, 10 inches, also a Canadian record.

"I'm getting up to 25 feet now," says Richardson. "I'm going to practice on the takeoff until I've got it down and then, I think I can push my mark up a few inches. I once jumped more than 25 feet, but the takeoff was foul. That's always been my biggest trouble."

Where Sammy has beaten the best Americans in the sprints is at 60 yards. His terrific starting speed has made him practically invincible at that distance in Canadian meets. But you have to run 100 metres at the Olympics and it's in the last few yards that Sammy sees the superiority of others.

He'll train for the sprints as well though. After he's taken some warm-up exercises and a few jumps—that's the way he describes his broad-jump training—"I'll jog around and see what I can do about bringing my times down."

Sammy is doing the 100 yards in 9.8 and must cut four-tenths of a second off that to equal the world's record.

"Any way, if I don't lick them this year, I'll be only 21 when the next Olympics roll around." That's the way he looks at it.

Government Grant To Aid Olympic Squad

OTTAWA, May 13.—Of $10,000 voted by the last parliament to assist Canadian participation in the Olympic Games at Berlin this year, $5,000 has already been paid to the Canadian Olympic Committee, according to a return tabled by Finance Minister C. A. Dunning in the House of Commons today.

The minister intimated this financial support would be given to the full amount voted.

Some vigorous protests have been received by the government against officials led to the Canadian athletes, chiefly on the ground of Germany's policies towards minority racial and religious groups.

Island Boxers Faced With Suspension

AMHERST, N. S., May 13.—The names of 40 Maritime boxers, including one amateur titleholder, were presented for suspension of their amateur cards in a sensational move today by D. W. Fraser, chairman of the Maritime boxing committee.

The list included several men who had fought as professionals for some years, he said, but he deemed it advisable to refer the full list to the registration committee.

The names recommended for suspension were: Wilfred Clements, Ronnie Gillis, Tony Odo, Johnnie Odo, Red MacMillan, New Waterford, N. S.; Mickey MacMillan, Dominion, N. S.; Ferdens Smith, Buckley Sampson, Toots Boutiller, Sydney, N. S.; Dannie Burchell, Bobby Jackson, Glace Bay, N. S.; Harold Kinman, Berwick, N. S.; Bruce MacCallum, Danny McQuarrie, Irvine Vall, Frank McIntyre, Peter Campbell, Leo Connors, Benny Binns, Maritime amateur middle-weight champion, Charlottetown; Al Leyden, Saint John, N. B.; Jimmy Allen, Moncton, N. S.; Art Jardine, Maccan, N. S.; Bobby Orr, Eric Gibbons and Dave Joggins, Joggins, N. S.

Mr. Fraser said the suspensions were proposed because the fighters allegedly had taken part in professional and unannounced bouts.

The names of Gus MacGibbon and Young Gillis of New Waterford, N. S., were not on the list but would be given consideration by the committee, he added.

Dynamiters Wait In Vain For Allan Cup

KIMBERLEY, B.C., May 13.—Kimberley Dynamiters, 1933-36 Allan Cup winners, and citizens of this shelter town today were puzzled over the mysterious disappearance of the famous trophy, emblematic of Canadian Amateur Hockey supremacy.

Nearly a month ago the Cup was reported started on the longest journey it has ever made—from one side of the Dominion to the other. Halifax Wolverines, 1934 champions, forwarded it to Kimberley and a reception was planned to honor the new holders of the trophy on its arrival here.

The date scheduled for its arrival passed and no word of the famous mug reached officials here. Letters and wires were dispatched to officials of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association but the whereabouts of the Cup still remains a mystery.

On April 29 citizens held the reception in honor of the home-town champions but the celebration was marred by the absence of the trophy they worked so hard to obtain.

Trophy Found HALIFAX, May 13.—Stuck away and forgotten in a corner of a local bowling alley, the Allan Cup was still in Halifax tonight.

Most Halifax sportsmen believed it had been shipped in April to Kimberley Dynamiters, 1933-36 winners, and none offered an explanation tonight when it was found in the city. It was packed and ready for shipment.

Indian Prince On British Polo Team

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) WESTONBIRT, Eng., May 13.—Selecting the strongest possible combination, Great Britain's polo authorities today recruited the Rao Rajah Hanut Singh, eight-goal Indian star, for duty against the United States in the Westchester Cup international matches next month.

The Rajah's selection, following the delayed nomination of Gerald Baiding, nine-goal ace, strengthens British hopes of capturing the trophy in the matches at the Hurlingham Club June 19, 23 and 29.

How Far Can You Go

The "FIRST QUART" Tells the Story

Out of the experience of thousands of motorists has been developed a simple method of comparing oil performance . . . the "First Quart" Test. It is just a matter of noting how many miles you go after a drain-and-refill before you have to add a quart. If you are obliged to add oil too frequently, try the "First Quart" Test with Quaker State. See if you don't go farther before you have to add that tell-tale first quart. And, the oil that stands up best between refills is giving your motor the safest lubrication. Quaker State Oil Refining Co. of Canada, Ltd., Toronto. Made in Canada.
