THOROUGHBRED HORSE

'DUFFERIN'

THE "DUFFERIN" will stand every Friday at Connolly's Livery Stables from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. At all other times during the season he will be found for service at the Government Stock Farm. This Horse was bred at Government Stock Farm, and is owned by the Government; will be four years old in August next, stands 16 1/2 hands high, weighs about 1,200 lbs., is of a rich bay color, and with fine symmetry and action. He was sired by imported Blood Horse "Abel," dam, imported English Blood Mare. Persons desirous of breeding blooded stock should avail themselves of his services, as he is the only thoroughbred on the Island, and comes nearer to old "Saladin" than any Horse we have had since his time. Terms $4.00, to be paid at time of service, or $5.00 1st of November next. By order of Commissioners.
