

ISLAND PROPANE GAS LIMITED

Announces NEW PRICE SCHEDULE FOR ISLAND PROPANE GAS USERS

Enterprise

MODEL 5170

The Island Propane Gas Limited wishes to announce that plans are now underway for the construction of a Propane Bulk Plant to be located at New Annan, P. E. I. This plant when completed will be able to service the entire Province of P. E. I. Therefore this new development makes it possible for our company to establish a new price schedule and at the same time pass on a savings to our Propane customers.

While the new plant will not be in operation until late in June, we are passing this savings on to you immediately.
