

C.U.P. decides to expand

OTTAWA (CUP) -- Members of Canadian University Press (CUP) agreed March 20 to establish four full-time regional bureaus across Canada as part of the second stage of an expansion program of its national news service.

More than 40 student newspapers voted at a three-day conference at Carleton University to establish bureaus in Vancouver, Halifax, Montreal and in the prairies, and also to hire a business manager to handle the national press organization's financial affairs.

The meeting, attended by more than 100 student journalists, was called because CUP's 39th annual conference held in Vancouver in December, ended in deadlock over the expansion issue.

They approved a record budget of $188,900, up 70 per cent from last year's, to finance expansion.

A full-time bureau was established in Montreal in September, and B.C. has had a part-time operation since the fall. The four bureaus will move news through telex and telephone, as well as coordinate coverage in each region for dissemination there and through CUP's national office. CUP's four regions include the four Atlantic Provinces, Quebec, Ontario and the four western provinces.

An Ontario regional bureau was rejected because Ontario papers do not want one at present. A proposal for a Quebec special affairs reporter was defeated in a tie vote.

Quebec member papers had placed a priority on the reporter, who was to be posted in Quebec City to cover francophone student affairs and the province's national assembly.

Delegates subsequently voted to instruct CUP's Ottawa-based national affairs reporter to report on Quebec developments. Applicants for the position must be bilingual.

That position and educational affairs reporter, which were added to CUP's office staff as part of the first expansion phase last year were reconfirmed as part of next year's staff. The latter is also vice-president of the organization.

So how come I was all by myself most of the time for the final all-nighter?? Sincerely hope no one was missed on this list.

There will be a VERY IMPORTANT meeting for everyone on this list PLUS anyone even slightly considering becoming anything close to a contributing member of UPEI's student newspaper next year. The meeting is Monday, April 4th at 12:20 - 2:00 pm in the Duffy Amphitheatre (HA! HA! April Fool), really in the Cadre Office to talk about a PARTY and next year's newspaper.

The Cadre would like to sincerely thank the following non-students for their support in the form of voluntary subscriptions:
Mike Hennessey, Rebecca Smith, Leon Loucks, Ronald Collins, Ralph Hazelton Jr., Ron Baker. It is not too late for any other kind, honest folks to give a little ($2.50 maybe).
