Morning Stock Letter

(Received over Pittfield and Co's Private Wire)
NEW YORK, April 14—In spite of the continued uncertainty, news from foreign exchange this morning is about the same as last week. President Roosevelt in a speech in Baltimore yesterday stressed the point that the Administration's serial program is a satisfactory solution to the unemployment problem. Short interest figures for last month showed a decrease of 71,364 shares. Dividend meetings scheduled for today are Best and Newberry, Proctor and Gamble, and Union Bag and Paper. We would expect an irregular market again today and subject to minor profit taking think the rails will do better. Carloadings statement to be published Friday should make very favorable reading.

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, April 14—The mining market of the Toronto exchange began the week with a show of strength, rising well in both index classifications and on heavy volume. The old share index was up about 1 1-2 points to 130.31 and the miscellaneous index was up about a point to 137.44.
 Pickle Court continued in the spotlight, rising to a new high at 6.95. The close at 6.85 recorded a net advance for the day of 45 cents. About 18,000 shares of the stock changed hands. Wide advances appeared also for San Antonio, McWaters and Central Patricia. San Antonio leading with a gain of 25 cents. McWaters traded 68,000 shares.
 A loss of 3-4 for Lake Shore was the heaviest reverse in the senior gold group. Recessions among the medium-priced gold issues came out for Malartic, Colossus, Buffalo-Ankerite, Macassa, McKenna, Pamour, Quebec Mining and Premier.

HOW EASY AND FASCINATING!

...when you Embroider from the NEW COLD TRANSFER PATTERNS

NO HOT IRONS NO FUSSING OR FAILURES Sensationally NEW

WHEN we announced the new Wonder Package of more than eight hundred Hand Embroidery Patterns, response by our readers astounded us! We knew the Wonder Package was well named; we knew women were taking a new interest in Embroidery and Quilt Work; but we certainly have been most agreeably and happily surprised by the hundreds who have called at our offices; the hundreds more who write letters like this: "I still do not see how you can furnish such a remarkable array of beautiful patterns for what I used to pay for only a half a dozen transfers." And this: "My daughter has taken up embroidering for the first time. When your Wonder Package arrived, she opened it, read the simple directions, became curious, and found a new outlet for her spare moments. She now embroiders beautifully." Others comment, again and again, upon the cold transfer feature. Wonder Patterns are transferred to the material by simply dampening the Pattern on the reverse side and rubbing with the bowl of a tablespoon! Now read the above heading again. Every word is pleasantly true.
