SUMMERSIDE NEWS

Branch Office, Central St.

Branch Office, Central St. GREAT harvest weather. Mr. H. J. McGowan, of Moncton, is in town.

THE Hon. William Richards returned to the Island last evening. There were 109 passengers to the point yesterday and only 30 to Summerside in the evening.

REPORTS from various sections of the surrounding country say that the grain is generally of a good quality and well filled.

Mr. H. A. McDonald of Tyne Valley went to the United States yesterday morning to take a course in a cutting school.

THE four cardinal points of health are the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. Wrong action in any of the produces disease.

THE highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient action.

THE Public Library will be open in future on Saturdays from 11 to 1 and 3 to 5, the additional two hours being at the request of the ladies who found it hard to attend at the noon hour.

THE steamer Premier and Fastnet are both at this port tonight from Charlottetown, returning as soon as they can load and load. The trip to and from Charlottetown by either of these boats, has become very popular.

THE typhoid fever epidemic has almost spent itself. There have been very few new cases the past week, and those who took the fever have rapidly recovered.

WE regret to have to chronicle the death of Susie, daughter of the late James Linkletter, and wife of Mr. A. Murray of Linkletter road, which took place at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Richard Murray.

THE public schools opened Monday with the following number of scholars in attendance:—High School, grade 40, grade 2, 40; grade 3, 41; grade 4, 54; grade 5, 33; grade 6, 38; grade 7, 40; grade 8, 30. Eastern District School—grades 1 and 2, 53; grades 3 and 4, 45.

THE str. F. C. Batt left at 4 o'clock this morning with a party of thirty Summerside gentlemen for their chain company en route to Moncton to attend the races at that place to-day. After the races they come home direct and expect to reach here again at about 2 a. m. Thursday.

THE sloop Vixen will run on the Bedouque ferry in the Bay this afternoon. On Monday next, the Batt's regular day for laying out, she will run as usual, thus making up for the day off.

THE public mite box opening under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, which was held Monday night, was a success in every way.

THE Rev. Mr. Mages, the Hon. W. J. Kirby, Miss Jessie Strong and Mr. Compton, each sang a solo, and Miss Minnie Walsh gave an appropriate reading, the title of which was "The Reflex Influence of giving to Missions." These were interspersed with congregational singing, and the meeting closed with the doxology and benediction.

AMONG the more recent arrivals at the public hotels are the following:—Hotel Campbell—Mrs L. D. Duncan and two children, Gardiner, Me; D. B. McDonald, St. John; Mr H. W. Doherty, Cape Traverse; John Condon, St. John; Mr and Mrs J. F. Bentler, St. John.

CLifton House—Mrs R. J. Mahoney, Toronto, Ont; Mrs E. Doyle, Quebec; J. Tremaine, Halifax; J. F. Murray and wife, Cambridge, Mass; J. F. Eckhardt, Toronto, Ont.

BESIDES the usual number of tourists who have visited our town this summer we have had a great many strangers thrown in our midst by the conventions, etc., which have been held here, our railroad and boats making it a desirable place for such gatherings.

OUR town, itself, too, has come in for not a few compliments, regarding the beauty of its residences, lawns and gardens. The point we wish to make is that our town people should bear themselves as work more for the common end of making our little town still more beautiful, as every abundant room for improvement, and that when another year comes round and we should be in a better position to command praise.
