CENSURE OF THE GOVERNMENT BY THE COLONIAL MINISTER.

We perceive by the Gazette of last evening that Mr. Haszard has really written an editorial at last, for we think it would be impossible to find in the community any one else so stupid as to contradict himself several times in the space of a short article. All we can gather from the editorial is--that Sir Donald Campbell has received a Despatch from Lord Grey, in which his lordship severely takes him to task for daring to issue Warrants, when no cash has been provided by the Assembly to meet them. It will be well for Money changers to be on their guard against those spurious bits of paper--which have been issued, we are informed, as well in payment of public salaries, as for the support of jails--for as no money has been appropriated for them, they cannot be received at the Treasury without the special sanction of the Legislature—a sanction they are not very sure of.

We sympatize with the Government in the pain they must feel from the noble Secretary's censure. But we beg of the old lady of the Gazette that she will not send her last No. to Downing street, as it would be to the dishonor of the Colony for people there to see it insinuated in our official paper, that Lord Grey is a gentleman not of "a rightly constituted mind."
