IN MEMORIAM

AUSTIN CAMERON

In the midst of life we are in death. These words were never more applicable spoken than on Friday afternoon, Dec. 6th, when it became known that Mr. Austin Cameron of Augustine Cove had passed to his eternal reward. His passing was a great shock to the community and especially to his family.

Although never very robust, Mr. Cameron had just come through an operation in the Prince County Hospital about a month previously, and had made a good recovery. On the above afternoon he was around as usual and had gone to the barn to do some small chores. He had been in the habit of attending to his wife thinking he was out longer than usual, asked his grandson to find out if anything had happened. Mr. Cameron had already passed away presumably soon after arriving in the barn. Dr. MacDonald from Crapaud, was called but nothing could be done.

Mr. Cameron was born in Augustine Cove 74 years ago. He was a son of the late G. W. W. Cameron and his wife Sarah Clark. In early life he attended U.C.C. in Charlottetown but shortly afterwards he returned to his home farm to work.

He was a very conscientious man in everything he said or did, and honesty and neatness, were truly his attributes. For many years he was secretary of the Tryon Peoples Cemetery and will be greatly missed by the men with whom he worked.

Forty-nine years ago he married Annie Clark Muttart, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eliphalet Muttart of Tryon. This union was blessed with one daughter, Marie, Mrs. Donald J. MacDonald with whom Mr. and Mrs. Cameron resided.

During his latter years, he was an extensive reader and was well qualified to talk interestingly on any subject.

He leaves to mourn besides his sorrowing widow his daughter and son-in-law two grandsons Elmer and Earle MacDonald, whom he dearly loved. One brother Artemas of Augustine Cove and later of Gasconade, and one sister Mary, Mrs. Major Carruthers predeceased him.

His funeral which was very largely attended despite the almost impossible condition of the roads was held from his late residence on Monday afternoon, December 9th.

The service was conducted by the Rev. E.H. Bean of Kensington, assisted by Miss Mary A. MacKenzie, Deaconess of North Tryon Presbyterian Church. The hymns sung were "Unto The Hills" and "Abide With Me". A duet "Near to The Heart of God" was feelingly rendered by Mrs. Lloyd Howatt and Mr. Bertram Thomson of Tryon. The music was in charge of Mrs. E. C. MacLeod of Albany.

The pall bearers were: Lorne Carruthers, Kenneth Cameron Harry MacFarlane, H. K. Howatt, Wendell MacFadyen, Walter Lord. Burial in the North Tryon Presbyterian Cemetery.

The following beautiful flowers were silent witnesses to the esteem in which the deceased was held.
