San Francisco Rout Mets; Red Sox Down Chicago

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two home runs by Tito Fuentes and one by Jim Hart led San Francisco Giants to a 10-4 rout of New York Mets Thursday and kept the Giants in the thick of the National League pennant race.

The result moved third-place San Francisco within 2 1/2 games off first place Los Angeles Dodgers and left the Giants 1 1/2 games back of Pittsburgh Pirates. The Pirates met the Dodgers in Los Angeles Thursday night.

Fuentes' first home run ignited a three-run Giant first against Met starter Bob Shaw. Fuentes connected again in the fifth with winning pitcher Bob Bolin on base.

Hart's 32nd homer came in the third and opened a 5-2 lead for the Giants. Al Luplow and Chuck Hiller homered for the Mets, before 6,072 fans, smallest crowd in Candlestick Park this year.

BOSTON (AP)—Carl Yastrzemski drove in a run with his 1,000th major league hit in a four-run second inning Thursday in helping the Boston Red Sox to a 5-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox in an American League baseball game.

Yastrzemski's line single to right centre capped the decisive uprising and enabled the Red Sox to post their eighth straight home triumph over Chicago with a sweep of a tree-game series.

Boston has a 10-6 season record against the White Sox with two games left in Chicago. Rookie right-hander Darrell Brandon surrendered a run on doubles by Duane Josephson and Jerry Adair in the top of the second and gave up two more runs in the eighth.

NEW YORK (AP)—Rookie Stan Bahnsen pitched a seventh-inning and kept New York Yankees from dropping into last place in the American League Thursday by beating Washington Senators 10-5 in the second game of a doubleheader.

The Senators won the first game 5-4 behind Pele Richert and clinched their first season's series against New York since 1933. The split left New York in eighth place, one-half game in front of Boston and one game ahead of last-place Washington. The Yankees broke the second game open with a six-run seventh-inning with a two-run homer by Tom Tresh and a two-run single by Joe Pepitone the key hits.

Bahnsen, making his first major league start, gave up home runs to Jim King, Ed Brinkman and Dick Nen. King and Nen walloped two run homers in the first game as Mel Stottemyere, a 20-game winner last year, suffered his 18th defeat.

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago Cubs sent 10 men to the plate in six-run seventh-inning Thursday for an 8-2 victory after Tony Cloninger of Atlanta Braves had retired the first 16 men he faced.

Ferguson Jenkins of Chatham, Ont., snapped the Braves' eight-game winning streak with a four-hitter. Cloninger gave up a single to Adolfo Phillips in the sixth, the first Cub hit, but was chased in the seventh.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Pinch hitter Charlie Lau singled home the winning run in the bottom of the ninth as Baltimore Orioles nipped California Angels 4-3 Thursday night and completed a sweep of a two-night doubleheader. Rookie Tom Phoebus, making his first major league start in the opener, blanked the Angels 2-0 as the Orioles edged closer to their first American League pennant.

After being temporarily stalled by a four-game losing streak, the Orioles reduced their pennant - clinching number to seven. Any combination of seven Oriole victories or losses by second place Detroit-Tigers will assure Baltimore of the flag. Brooks Robinson opened the Oriole ninth with a single but Sam Bowers forced him at second. Bowers stole second and moved to third on infield out. Russ Snyder was purposely walked before Lau delivered.

Brooks Robinson and Curt Blefary whacked conservative homers in the sixth inning of the opener, helping Phoebus to the victory. Phoebus, making his first major league start since being recalled from Rochester of the International League, struck out eight and allowed only four hits. Only two California runners reached second against the youngster.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bert Campaneris' run - scoring sacrifice fly in the 11th gave Kansas City Athletics a 1-0 victory over Cleveland Indians Thursday night, extending the Athletics' winning streak to seven games. Campaneris' fly to centre scored John Donaldson, who had drawn a lead-off walk and raced to third on Tim Talton's single - only the third hit off Loser Sonny Siebert (16-8). Steven Kansas City, pitchers scattered 10 hits, Wes Stock picking up the victory as the Indians went down to their fifth straight loss.

Peakes Must Drop Players HALIFAX (CP)—Peake's Station P.E.I. has been ordered by the Maritime Amateur Baseball Association to drop its 15-year-old players for the remaining games in the Maritime Bantam semi-final series against Saint John Metro All-Stars. At the same time, MABA president A.D. Chalmers of Halifax said the P.E.I. champions have been granted permission to add 14 year-olds to replace the nine over-age players. Age-limit for bantam baseball in P.E.I. is 15, against 14 for New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Peake's Station won the series opener 13-10 last weekend in P.E.I. "This win still belongs to them," Chalmers said. Remaining games in the best-of-three series will be played Saturday in Saint John.

George Punch Imlach Lashes Out At Brewer

PETERBOROUGH, Ont. (CP) George (Punch) Imlach, manager-coach of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League says ex - Leaf Carl Brewer will never play for him again. Imlach also said the mere mention of Brewer's name has been banned from Leafs' training camp which opened here Thursday.

Brewer, 27, a defenceman, left training camp last fall and last week announced he is seeking reinstatement as an amateur player for Canada's national team in the world hockey championships in Vienna next March. But to be reinstated he must be removed from the Leafs' suspended list where he was placed when he quit the team a year ago.

"If he walked into camp today and said he wanted to sign a contract and be reinstated as a pro, I would ask him which of the other five National Hockey League teams he wanted to play for," Imlach said. "Then I'd attempt to make a deal for him."

LEFT THREE TIMES Imlach said Brewer has walked out on the Leafs three times - first to play football for McMaster University in Hamilton, then out of last year's training camp and for the third time, this summer.

"This summer he walked into my office and offered me a contract," Imlach said. "Then I offered him one. Next I read in the paper he had decided to play for Canada's national team."

Imlach said he may have to remove Brewer from the student's inactive list now that he has completed his studies for a bachelor-of-arts degree at the University of Toronto. "I will have to move him to our reserve list if the other NHL teams make the request," he said. "But his status remains the same—a suspended player."

Imlach also said assistant manager - coach Frank (King) Clancy will negotiate players' salaries this year, a task usually performed by Imlach. "This is not a last - minute switch," Imlach said. "We decided this last June."

Clancy said the players will not find him easy to deal with. If any walk out unsigned, he will ask Imlach to suspend them. "And you can bet I'll back Clancy to the hilt," said Imlach, adding that last year Toronto players drew more than $400,000 in wages. Clancy said bonus clauses will be granted the players. "If they want bonus clauses, I'll be happy to oblige. With me it will be produce and the sky's the limit."

Imlach also plans to talk with winger Eddie Shack here next Tuesday. Shack a month ago was sent to Victoria of the Western Hockey League for training and Imlach said only that the move was a disciplinary one. "If he levels with me, he will stay in camp here in Peterborough," said Imlach, who last year shipped Shack to the Leafs' Rochester farm club in the American League at the beginning of the season. Shack regained a berth with Toronto and scored 26 goals.

Sandy Koufax Heads League NEW YORK (AP)—Sandy Koufax has taken a solid lead in the National League earned-run competition while shooting for a record fifth straight championship. The pitching ace of the league - leading Los Angeles Dodgers heads the league with a 1.81 average, figures compiled by The Associated Press showed Wednesday. Gary Peters of Chicago White Sox is the American League leader with 2.02. The leaders were based on the minimum of 140 innings. Koufax broke the NL mark and tied the major league record last season by leading in E.R.A. for the fourth consecutive year. Lefty Grove paced the American League four straight times starting with 1929. This year, the Dodgers' southpaw has allowed 56 earned runs in 279 innings, and has pitched five shutouts. He has won 23 games and lost eight. Juan Marichal of San Francisco Giants is second with a 2.06 P.A. Peters, who won the AL title in 1963 with a 2.33 average, has a 1966 record of 46 earned runs in 205 innings and a 12-10 won-lost mark. Steve Horgan of Cleveland Indians is the runner-up with a 2.57 average.

Gallivan Sees Closer League

SYDNEY (CP)—Montreal broadcaster Danny Gallivan said Thursday Detroit Red Wings 'could be in trouble' and New York Rangers should have a better National Hockey League season than they did in 1965-66. Gallivan, visiting his former home here, said in an interview Detroit will suffer from the loss of defencemen Bill Gadsby and Doug Barkley. Gadsby retired after last season and Barkley is finished as a player because of an eye injury. Gallivan said the Rangers will get a lift from the return of Rod Gilbert and Jean Ratelle, both injured last season. He said Al MacNeil, a Sydney native traded to the Rangers this summer by Chicago Black Hawks, will help the New York defence.
