PRINCE COUNTY Grammar School.

THIS Institution will be re-opened after the Midsummer holidays, on MONDAY, the 5th day of August next. Parents desirous of giving their children a good education would do well to avail themselves of the facilities afforded.

In addition to the ordinary branches of English education, instructions are given in the Greek, Latin and French Languages, Mathematics, &c. As it might be considered not in good taste on the part of a teacher to say anything in favor of his method of imparting instruction, I submit the following letter for publication from a gentleman who has several times visited my School, and who is well known in the community.

ALEX. McRAE, Master. Summerside, Aug. 9, 1867.

TREASURER'S OFFICE, July 22, 1867.

My Dear Sir.—I am about removing my two sons from the Grammar School, at Summerside. I cannot, however, do so without expressing to you my satisfaction at the progress they have made while under your care.

Having had several opportunities of hearing lessons taught at your School, I consider the system good, and I sincerely hope it may long prosper under your very efficient management. I remain, dear sir, Yours, very truly, JAMES WARBURTON, Colonial Treasurer.

Mr. McRae. Normal School. THIS Institution will be re-opened on Monday, the 2d of September next. The examination of Candidates for entrance will begin on the Thursday previous (the last Thursday of August), at the hour of 9 a.m. No Candidates absent at the preliminary examination can be admitted until the following Term.

A Card.

FOR the assistance given me and mine, at the late fire in St. Eleanor's, by my neighbors and friends, I feel more thankful than I can express—especially to the ladies; also to the children—a goodly lot.

For care and honesty, perhaps there never was anything of the kind so well conducted. My Stock, consisting of Drugs, many of a dangerous nature in a fluid state, Glass and contents, Confectionary of all sorts. Nuts, Candles, Maple Sugar and Fruits were, no doubt, temptation enough to the little ones. To their credit—and their parents—are it spoken, not a cent's worth was pilfered, not a glass carelessly broken—although the whole saved was moved and removed that night.

Thinking numbers who are "so sorry" for me, they will be glad to learn I am not such an object of commiseration as they may depict. In the first place, the Almighty has this season always, seemingly blessed us with an abundant crop of corn committed to His care. Again—I philosophise a "lectie." Thus, if I had insured all my property year after year for twenty-four years, as my neighbor has done—I think I would be more out of pocket than I would put in with insurance.

To those who do truly sympathise with me I say—positively, recollect.—You should just see how I set my "teeth in the bed-post" next morning—grieving that I was not insured this season at any rate, philosophically again—only on another tack.

The Subscriber, grateful for former favors, informs his numerous friends that he has removed all saved to a part of Mr. A. E. Holland's Shop, where the business will be carried on as usual. JAMES J. FRASER. St. Eleanor's, July 5, 1867.

Mrs. S. A. Allen's PREPARATIONS FOR THE HAIR.

Mrs. S. A. Allen's WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER is suited to both young and old. It strengthens the Hair, prevents its falling or turning grey, and imparts to it a beautiful glossy appearance. It never fails to restore GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL YOUTHFUL COLOR. It is not a Dye, but acts directly upon the roots of the Hair, giving them the natural nourishment required, producing the same vitality and luxuriant quantity as in youth. It will restore it on bald places, requires no previous preparation of the hair, and is easily applied by one's self. One bottle will usually last for a year, as after the hair is once restored, occasional applications once in three months will insure against grey hairs to the most advanced age. The Restorer Reproduces and the Hair Dressing Cultivates and Beautifies. Principal Sales Office, 106 Greenwich Street, New York City. August 1, 1867.

Mrs. S. A. Allen's WORLD'S HAIR DRESSING, or ZYLOBALSAMUM, is essential to use with the Restorer, but the Hair Dressing alone often restores, and never fails to invigorate, beautify and refresh the Hair, rendering it soft, silky and glossy, and disposing it to remain in any desired position. FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN, whose hair requires frequent dressing, it has no equal. No lady's toilet is complete without it. The rich glossy appearance imparted is truly wonderful. It cleanses the Hair, removes all dandruff, and imparts to it a most delightful fragrance. It will prevent the Hair from falling out, and is the most economical and valuable Hair Dressing known. Millions of bottles sold every year.
