

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 22, 1896.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Look out for a second letter from Mr. W. S. Stewart, Q. C. It will appear to-morrow.

—Toronto Star: Possibly what is on the way to the two-dollar mark, which far exceeds Sir William Van Horne once prophesied it would reach.

—Summerside Journal:—"The Liberal Conservative leaders of Prince Edward Island should meet at Charlottetown, and take action as better organization is unquestionably needed in this province. It is folly to put off getting the party into fighting shape until the eve of an election, and then expect to win."

—The following statement from the Winnipeg Free Press is open to question: "Some Liberal newspapers and politicians have given the impression that in the late contest their party were fighting, not for principle, but for the spoils of office; but the responsible leaders of the party will not doubt take care to correct this as time goes on. Our politics are low enough, goodness knows, but they have scarcely sunk to the level of mere office-grubbing."

—A denial is given to the story recently sent out from Ottawa by one of the industrial and ingenious inventors of despatches for Liberal newspapers that the present Government intended to cut off the heads of all or most of the deputy ministers. The motive for recommending this course was properly clearly indicated in the following sentence:—"The warmest friends of the Government and their most influential supporters both in and out of Parliament have urged them to adopt as a matter of public welfare, the removal of all deputy ministers whose antecedents and sympathies have been Conservative and replace them with men anxious to see the Ministers acquit themselves with credit and willing to work hand and glove for the purpose of accomplishing the best results in administration."

—This, the Montreal Gazette remarks, is as about as clear a demand as has yet been formulated by Liberal heeled that Conservative officials should be dismissed simply because they were Conservatives, and Liberal appointed instead simply because they were Liberals.

—The Quebec Legislature is expected to meet about the 17th or 18th of November. The whole business portion of Enfield, Mass., was wiped out by fire on Monday, Nov. 10, 1896.

—The Bishop of Peterborough is named as the probable successor of the late Archbishop of Canterbury.

—Russia is mobilizing her army, and it is believed that she will receive the mandate from the powers to occupy Constantinople.

—The Prince and Princess of Wales will take up their residence at Sandringham the last week of this month and will entertain large house parties.

—The Halifax city council has decided to abolish the office of city treasurer, combining it with city clerk. This is the result of a long agitation regarding city officials and salaries.

—A despatch from Paris says advances received there show that disorders occurred at Van, Armenia, on Sept. 22, followed by a terrible massacre on October 2. No details are given.

—Grain riots have already occurred in several parts of northern and central India on account of the failure of the harvest. There is no hope of rain there now and prices are rising.

—A despatch from Rome says the Pope, in response to the appeal from Mgr. Anasazi, Catholic bishop of Armenia, has sent a large sum of money for the relief of distressed Armenians.

—A Spanish battalion and a number of loyal natives have occupied the town of Navarino, in the Philippine Islands, which had been partly fortified by the rebels. The insurgents made a strong defence and lost 114.

—Charles H. Smith, a heavy operator on the Chicago board of trade announces that he will bet $10,000 to $3,500 that McKinley will be elected. George Castle, a wealthy theatrical manager, offers to bet $3,000 to $1,000 on McKinley.

—United States Minister Terrell has lodged with the Turkish government a claim for $40,000 indemnity on behalf of Mrs. Lenz mother of Frank Lenz, the Pittsburgh bicyclist who was assassinated by Kurds while travelling through Asiatic Turkey in 1893.

—The prohibition state committee has issued an appeal to the voters of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in which it is stated that "The success of either party means the continuance of 232,000 saloons and the annual waste of $1,500,000 and 60,000 lives."

—It is learned at the Vatican that the Pope is sending special instructions to Archbishop Martini, the newly appointed apostolic delegate to the United States, in regard to the attitude of the Catholic clergy in America in the present political campaign and presidential elections.

—Cores, Turkey and India are sending their women to America in large numbers to study medicine. In the Oriental countries it is degrading for a man to touch a woman not his wife, and thus an excellent field is open to the women who are intelligent enough to equip themselves as doctors.

—Advices from Ottawa state that the Minister of Finance has decided to ask for tenders for printing Dominion bank notes, postage and revenue stamps for the Dominion. The contract has been held for some years by the British American Bank Note Company and was worth about $100,000 per annum.

—Kaiser Wilhelm's artistic tendencies have broken out in clothes. He designed the hunting costume which the Empress wears when she accompanies him on his shooting trips, while one he made up for himself pleases him so much that he has had a bronze statuette cast of himself clad in it and put in hand.

—The Constantinople correspondent of the London Post says: "It is officially known here that Mr. Terrell, the United States minister, has not for the last 10 months mentioned to the porte the passage of a guardianship through the Dardanelles. In fact cordial relations exist between the United States and Turkey."

tree upon her sweet, thoughtful lip."

—Sir William Vernon Harcourt has written a letter to an engineer, in which he says he shares the general regret at Lord Rosebery's retirement from the leadership. Sir William adds:—"This will be news to those wisecracks who are so assiduously trying to prove my hostility and rancorous feeling toward an amiable and distinguished statesman and colleague."

—The shipment of 25,000 reinforcements to Cuba will begin early in November. A despatch from Havana to the Madrid Imperial says that in the recent fighting in Pinar del Rio province, Macrao lost a number of officers, including his chief supporters. His men, the despatch says, are now split up and wandering about the country without camp and without food.

—At the Grand Trunk hall-yeast meeting a shareholder who happened to refer to the contingency of war with the United States was rebuffed. At the Congress of the Chambers of Commerce, when one of the Canadian delegates ventured a few heated remarks on the same possibility he received a similar hit to change the subject, and was called to order by the chairmen.

—The funeral of the three firemen, King, Laporte and Carpenter, who were killed at St. Peter street (Montreal) fire took place on Tuesday at Notre Dame Church, and was very largely attended. Twenty thousand people thronged the church and thirty thousand lined the streets. About $6,000 have already been contributed from different sources in aid of the widows and families.

—An official cablegram to Consul-General Marguendo, of Uruguay, from the president of the republic announced definitely the formation of a syndicate in England to furnish funds for the construction of a new port at Montevideo. The work will be immediately commenced. The project involves the expenditure of about $15,000,000 gold. When completed the port charges, which now amount to nearly five dollars per ton, will be reduced half.

—A Washington despatch says it can be stated on good authority that there has been no change in the declared policy of the United States government with respect to Cuba, nor is any contemplated. As is well known, the sympathies of the administration, as individuals, are with the insurgents, but if they gain their independence they will be without any interest other than amicable on the part of the government of the United States.

—Since the Czar complimented the "very fine escort" which the Channel squadron rendered on Oct. 18, the British fleet has been taken to the condition of the British navy. Mr. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, has been devoting much thought during the recess to the whole port account of naval defence, and he is credited with the intention, in next year's naval estimates, of very considerably increasing the sum at present provided for subsidizing merchant vessels to act as armed cruisers in time of war. The present amount set apart for this purpose is $2,485,700, and rumour has it that the sum will be increased to at least $30,000 in order to allow of nine more vessels participating in the sum annually set aside. Among the new conditions proposed will be not merely an increase in the number of ships, but greater efficiency in their manning and equipment. It is reported that the price to be paid for the new first-class cruisers is $445,000 each. The highest tender was Messrs. Armstrong's, including price being about $500,000, evidently showing that they did not want the work.

—Prospects of the Markets. Judging by reports in the press, the prospects of the markets are decidedly better than they were a week or two ago. There has been a decided advance in wheat, and a smaller advance in oats and other grains, while bad weather and rot on both sides of the Atlantic seem likely to create a demand for potatoes. The advance in wheat amounts to sixteen cents a bushel. As to grain the Montreal Gazette to hand this morning reports:—"In sympathy with other markets the local one continues excited and very strong with prices steadily tending upward. The demand for all lines was active, and a large amount of business was done on export account. A round lot of No. 1 hard Manitoba wheat was sold at Port William at 90c, and this figure was bid for more. A despatch received from Winnipeg about 5 p. m. stated that the "Flour King" had put up the price of No. 1 hard wheat 5c per bushel, which makes a net advance of 7c per bushel, dealers not paying 7c at all 15c freight rate points. On spot peas advanced 1c per bushel, with sales at 55c to 55 1/2c. Oats sold freely at 28 1/2c to 29c, which is another rise of 1/2c to 1c per bushel. Feed barley changed hands at 34c, and a round lot of rye was placed at 43c. Buckwheat advanced 1c, with sales of car lots at 40c. We quote: No. 2 oats, per 34 lbs. $0.28 1/2 to $0.29 Maltng barley.....0.43 to 0.43 1/2 Barley, feed.....0.60 to 0.34

—Toronto advices report sales of mixed and white oats in car lots at 21 cents per bushel, but it is added that the supply is considerably in excess of last year. This will account for private advices to shippers here that prices of oats have receded, and for their refusal to give more than 20 cents. The Toronto Globe reports:—"Oats—Export demand good and prices are firmer. Good heavy mixed oats, middle freight west, were quoted at 22c to 22 1/2c, and white at 21c; and from 22 to 23c east, according to location."

—The cheese market was quiet and fairly steady. The tone of the market and the sentiment were the transactions at the wharf, where 3,000 fall cheese were offered. They were turned over at a range of 10c to 10 1/2c, which is about steady as compared with last week.

—The butter market moved along quietly and rather slowly. Sellers still ask 19 1/2c and better, but the majority of bids are in the vicinity of 19c.

—The Mail and Empire reports:—"Cheese—There is not much business on spot, but values are very firm; finest western September, 10 1/2c to 10 3/4c, finest western August, 10c to 10 1/2c. Butter—The market is not active but the tone is firm owing to the very strong ideas entertained by factory men in the country. Some are asking as high as 19 1/2c to 20c, but of course very little has been done on that level, although 19 1/2c has been quite freely paid for strictly factory stock here. The price now, however, seems to be about 19c."

—English advices report cheese firm, demand moderate. Finest American white, August, 49c; finest American colored, 50c. Butter—Finest American, 85c; good, 80c.

—Neither pork nor potatoes have yet begun to move in this Province. Liverpool, G. B., advices report pork, prime mess, fine western, 47s. 6d.; medium western, 46s. The Chicago quotation, is for Oct. 10th delivery, $7.15 per barrel.

—PLEASE REMEMBER that these are bright, new, fresh goods, and new shapes and patterns. Ladies' Night Dresses, made of the best grade flannelette, tucked down collar, full large sizes, and extra long. These are regularly worth $1.00, our price 85c each.

—Ladies' Night Dresses, made of good flannelette, with pointed and square yokes, full width, 58 and 60 in long, assorted patterns, only 65c each.

ENGLISH PUBLIC FEELING.

Its Force is Felt on the Continent. (From the N. Y. Post.)

The isolation of England, in face of the insolent defiance of the Sultan, was counted and it would have been a source of imminent danger for any other power but England. Not only her geographical position, her indisputable naval supremacy, and the vastness of her resources render her comparatively indifferent to Continental combinations, but she possesses what is perhaps an even greater safeguard and a more potent means of action. It is the power inherent in a free people, guided by a proud sense of patriotism, and acting with that skill which only a long and disciplined enjoyment of liberty engenders—this is the art of making public opinion felt and respected. I doubt whether it would be possible to name in the later history of Europe any great abuse or enormity which has long withstood the outcry of the British press or the outburst of organized indignation meetings in England. It may be objected that such demonstrations have only been aimed at abuses or acts of injustice which had already been foredoomed as scandals. But that only confirms the alliance on the efficiency of a public interest shaped by a long political education. The enormous power of English opinion beyond the confines of this island is the more effective as it influences the enlightened and liberal sections of the public on the continent. In the present instance the uprising of public feeling which is literally "convulsing England" has rapidly spread to Italy, where public meetings have been held and committees organized in support of Crete and Armenia; it has invaded Germany in spite of the repressive efforts of the Government; it has affected France; for, in the midst of the Rousaphic paroxysm, it was decided to petition the Czar in favor of the Armenians.

A FATHER'S THANKS.

Sir,—The Independent Guardian refused to publish a communication from the undersigned, relative to a remarkable cure of disease by Dr. Conroy of this city. I did not know that the doctors of this community held the censorship or could throttle the press—see local column of the Guardian, 22nd inst.

The doctor above mentioned saved the life of my child, and I think it should be published, regardless of etiquette. Sir Morrell McKenzie and others have received knighthood and pensions for prolonging life, but our own Dr. Conroy denied a notice in our independent Guardian. Kindly publish this, pro bono publico. I am, yours respectfully, D. McDONALD.

LEGENDARY LEATHER. Gravely enough tradition tells that St. Crispin, the first shoemaker, got his leather from the Angels. Perfunctory enough, many shoe wearers might inquire whether some shoe factories to-day don't get their leather from the devil—it's so burnt up, and so full of holes, and so conducive to sweating. God bless 'em! It's made from bad leather—everybody knows that.

But since the first of the guise poor leathers to-day, that they can't stand the wear and tear, from the worthless kind.

Any leather which can stand hot water, can't stand perspiration, and will soon wear out, from foot acids generated in the shoe.

The Chrome tanned leathers now used in the "Slater Shoe," are the only kind which will bear twenty minutes boiling in hot water, and come out as soft, pliant, tough and glossy, as when put in the pot.

It is waterproof, sweat proof, and as nearly wear proof as leather can be made, but the average Shoe Dressing will burn up even this sort in a few months. Slater Shoe Polish, used once a week and dusted regularly, retains its lustre for seven days, and makes this Slater Shoe leather, with good care, give a year's service.

The Shoes are $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 (stamped on the sole). The Polish is 25c. per bottle. Get a copy of "LEATHER FOODS" (free) from
