Our Observations Are Wrong

Somebody's always proving one of our wise observations wrong. We said recently that fisticuffs in a hockey match was a frustrating business. You were dragged away before you could get in any damaging hooks or jabs. This certainly was not true in the game between the Junior Legionnaires and the Enman Drug Combines at Civic Stadium on Friday night. There were twelve major penalties for fighting and in some of those encounters the boys stood toe to toe and belted each other without much interference. We noticed one of the boys had time to feint with his left and then deliver a right cross. Claret flowed pretty freely.

We're thinking of writing a book for referees entitled: "The Importance of the Early Tackle." If we do, we'll send Friday night's officials complimentary copies. In fairness to the arbiters, we admit there was an awful lot of tackling to do, and those boys are paid to referee hockey matches, not play football. Then again, the players who usually play the role of peacemakers seemed very scarce. Most of the players seemed to want the battles to go on rather than stop them, which is rather unusual.

We were inclined to disagree with the decision to call off the game with only 3½ minutes to play. We admit there was a lot of fighting, but the boys were going to the penalty bench without protesting, in other words, the referee and his assistants seemed totally in control, and as long as there were enough boys left to play the game, it should have gone on. Do you remember the fighting in Chicago three or four years ago? It was much wilder than on Friday night, but the game wasn't called. Games are stopped mostly because of spectator involvement, and there was apparently no sign of this. The boys who went too far deserve stiff penalties, and no doubt will get them from the executive of the league, but, please, let's protect, if at all possible, the rights of the innocent bysitters in the stands who paid to see a finished contest.

Juniors Show Old-Time Form

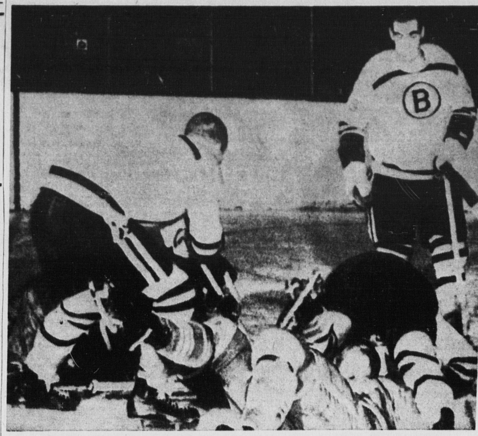
The Juniors showed a surprising reversal of form, and one good thing about this league is that it's never safe to bet your last penny on the result of any match. There are lots of surprises. Combines seemed to be gaining power, and the Juniors were definitely the underdogs. Still, they led 5-2 with only 3½ minutes to go, and barring a miracle, would have still been out in front when the final siren sounded. Once before when they seemed to be the weaklings of the league, they trounced Borden 12-4, "unpredictable" seems to be the word for them.

Lewis MacDonald's Borden Nationals seem to have stolen the spotlight from the other teams of late. In two games with the league-leading Eagles, they lost a close 5-4 game, and then won 5-2. Jim MacLeod is getting good mileage out of his boys. They seem a rough and tough crew without being too chippy, much like the Eagles in that latter respect.

Great Football Game

We saw a thriller diller of a football game yesterday which left me draped over the arm of the easy chair. The last five minutes of the game between Philadelphia Eagles and St. Louis Cardinals were as drama-filled as you'd want to see. The Eagles had it all sewed up, but a fumble and a penalty snatched the game away from them in the dying minutes of play.

LAST WEEK'S BOUQUET
We generally stick to Prince County
In handing out this floral bounty
But super performance takes us to the capital city.
It's the wonderful work of that gamy,
Forbes Kennedy's kid brother Jamie.
In junior play goal totals Jamie is sure sitting pretty.



THE KIND OF DAY WHEN THINGS PILE UP

Leaf defenceman Tim Horton is on the bottom of the pile in front of the Leaf goal Saturday night as he helps goalie Terry Sawchuk smother a Boston attack. Toronto beat Boston 6-3 but still remained in third place in the National hockey League standings.

Giardello Is Favorite Over Hurricane Carter

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Middleweight champion Joey Giardello makes the first defence of his title as a 9-5 favorite over hard - hitting Rubin Hurricane Carter at Convention Hall Monday night.

This is Giardello's home town, although he lives in Cherry Hills, N.J., and promoter Jimmy Riggio optimistically predicts a crowd of about 9,000 and a gross gate of $150,000. If the show draws $100,000, it could be called a smash success.

There will be no television of the 15-rounder. Starting time is 10 p.m., EST.

Giardello, a veteran of 16 years of pro battling, won the championship of the 160-pound division by outpointing the favored ruler, Dick Tiger of Nigeria, at Atlantic City, N.J., Dec. 7, 1963.

He was all set to battle Carter at Las Vagas, Nev., Oct. 23, but that fell through when the promoters failed to come up with the cash to cover the fighters' guarantees.

Without any television or theatre-television backing, Giardello's purse will depend on his own following. He will collect 60 per cent of the gross gate. Carter of Paterson, N.J., receives at flat $12,000 and the shot at the crown.

AN OLD STORY

The match itself is an old story of the ring-age and experience against youth and skill against sock.

Giardello has the skill, savvy and a strong jaw. Carter, 27, has lots of muscles, a jolting left hook and the hunger of the challenger for the title.

Carter, now the No. 2 contender, has a 20-4 record, including 13 knockouts. But all of his knockouts have been scored in five rounds or less.

Giardello, winner of his last seven scraps in a 25 month span, has a 95-22-11 record, including 32 knockouts.

Scoring will be the five point system, whereby the winner of each round get five points and the loser four or less. The eight count will be mandatory for knockdowns. Any fighter floored three times in a round will be the loser by technical knockout

Arkansas On Probation

DALLAS (AP) — The Southwest Conference placed the University of Arkansas on indefinite probation Saturday for violation of sports recruiting rules.

The penalty was without sanction, meaning it amounts only to a public condemnation. Arkansas, the Southwest Conference football champion, will be able to play in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 in New Orleans.

Arkansas was assessed the penalty for excessive campus visits by athlete, lavish entertainment of athletes, contacting athletes at a high school basketball game in violation of a conference rule, and too many visits by Arkansas coaches to the hometowns of prospective athletes.

Arkansas was publicly reprimanded and given the probation which will be lifted when the school has revised its practices of recruiting athletes.

Olympic Winner Told To Quit

MANILA (AP)—Tony Villanueva, winner of the silver medal in the Olympic featherweight division, was told Saturday he must never box again.

He suffered a broken nose in the Tokyo Olympic Games and recently underwent surgery. Doctors said the remodelled nose never would be strong enough to stand heavy blows.

Villanueva is an actor and has finished a movie since the games in October.

Patterson Kayo's Powell In Sixth

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) A lean, sharp Floyd Patterson, two-time former world heavyweight champion, knocked out Charley Powell in 1:21 of the sixth round of a scheduled 10-round bout Saturday night and apparently convinced himself he is on the rebound.

"I am on the road back," said Patterson after he had floored the San Diego fighter two times prior to the knockout.

Patterson, currently the World Boxing Association's second ranking heavyweight challenger, used the bout as a warmup for a scheduled 12-rounder with Canadian George Chuvalo of Toronto in New York Jan. 29 or Feb. 1.

Patterson weighed 197 for the bout, his second since suffering two one - round knockouts in heavyweight title fights with Sonny Liston Powell weighed 213.

Patterson was in command all the way and did not appear to be damaged at any time.

New Glasgow Rangers Defeat Moncton Hawks

NEW GLASGOW (CP)—New Glasgow Rangers first-period lead stood up Saturday night as they downed Moncton Hawks 4-1 in a Maritime Senior Hockey League game which featured a scoreless second period filled with penalties.

Hawks appeared to be trying too hard to recover from goals by Stew Young, Ben LeBlanc and, of course, Fleming Mackell as they found themselves with too many men on the ice twice in the middle period.

This contributed two of the 14 penalties handed out by referees in the 20 minutes. Rangers received the game's third bench penalty in the final period for the same reason.

But they got a goal from Frank McDonald to smother the Hawks' single scoring effort, a first-period marker by Phil Doiron.

Don Larin in the Moncton nets and Gary Waugh of the Rangers appeared outside most of the action as they handled only 17 and 19 shots, respectively. A crowd of 1,431 saw the game.

WINDSOR, N.S. (CP) — Halifax Schooners came back with three unanswered goals in the final period here Saturday night to down Windsor-Dartmouth 5-3 before a small Maritime Senior Hockey League audience of 591 fans.

Billy (Hap) Hanson gave the visitors a short-lived lead with the first goal of the game and then fired the tieing tally in the third after Jean Marc Dufour, Jacques Allard and Frank Barteaux had put Windsor-Dartmouth ahead. Ron Allain scored in the second for Schooners

Gilles St. Jacques shot the winner and Alf Flanagan an insurance goal for Halifax in the third, as Don Mason kicked out 14 drives in 20 minutes to protect the lead.

Mason played a strong game with 35 stops in the Halifax nets while Harvey Lerfold handled 21 for Windsor-Dartmouth.

Browns Tip Giants 52-20; Jimmy Brown Sets Record

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Cleveland won its first Eastern Conference title in the National Football League since 1957 Saturday in a 52-20 rout of the New York Giants, with Frank Ryan throwing five touchdown passes.

Ryan, an unsung hero of the Browns also scored once on a 12-yard run up the middle and completed 12 of 13 passes for 202 yards.

In Sunday's action, halfback Lenny Moore and receiver Ray Berry broke records as the Western Division champion Baltimore Colts finished the season with a 45-17 victory over the Washington Redskins.

In other Sunday games: St. Louis downed Philadelphia 36-32: Green Bay tied Los Angeles 24-24; Minnesota whipped Chicago 41-14: Dallas overcame Pittsburgh 17-14; and Detroit outclassed San Francisco 24-7.

In the American League, it was Buffalo 30 Denver 19; Kansas City 49 San Diego 6; Houston 33 New York 17.

GETS 105TH TOUCHDOWN

In Saturday's contest Jim Brown churned out 99 yards on 20 carries and scored his 105th touchdown, tying the all-time NFL record held by Hall of Famer Don Hutson.

Cleveland's Lou Groza put the Browns out in front with a 39-yard field goal in the first period.

The Giants, fighting back from what was undoubtedly Y. A. Tittle's farewell, drove to a score. Tittle's seven-yard pass to Dick James put the Giants out in front 7-3 after 4:10 of the second quarter.

That was all for the Giants. The next six times the Browns got the ball they scored.

JIMMY BROWN

In the Sunday Western Division tilt, Moore scored two touchdowns, giving him a record total of 20 for the season. Jim Taylor of Green Bay scored 19 in 1962. Moore, scoring in his 18th consecutive game, also won the NFL's scoring title with 120 points.

CAUGHT FIVE PASSES

Berry caught five passes, scored on a 30-yard strike from John Unitas and brought his 10-year reception total to a record 506. That eclipsed the mark of 504 set by Bill Howton, who played with the Packers and Dallas Cowboys.

Moore won the scoring title by five points over Cleveland's Lou Groza and Jim Bakken of St. Louis, who each wound up with 115.

The Green Bay Packers earned the right to represent the West in the Playoff Bowl at Miami against the Cardinals despite the tie.

The Packers finished with the same record as Minnesota, which walloped the Bears but outscored the Vikings in their two games against each other.

The Colts and Redskins were locked in a 10-10 tie at the half but Jerry Hill ran seven yards for the go-ahead touchdown in the third period before Unitas passed for a touchdown and Moore scored twice to break it open.

BROUGHT CARDS VICTORY

Bakken's 19 - yarder brought the Cardinals the victory less than two minutes after he had missed a 53-yarder that seemed to have left the Eagles the winners. Don Brumm's recovery of an Ollie Matson fumble set up the clincher.

Bart Starr's five-yard touchdown pass to Boyd Dowler and Taylor's one-yard plunge in the fourth quarter brought the Packers from behind. The Rams big play was a 95-yard TD heave from Bill Munson to Bucky Pope for the first score of the game.

Bill Brown scored three touchdowns on a 20-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton and a pair of one - yard plunges brought his season total to 16 and led the Vikings against the Bears.

The Milt Plum to Jim Gibbons aerial act clicked on 64 and 82 yard scoring plays as the Lions whipped the 49ers.

Parry Lee Dunn cracked three yards for the Cowboys' clinching touchdown in the fourth quarter against the Steelers.
