Berry Festival Group Irons Out Difficulties

MONTAGUE — A meeting of the committee chairman of the Montague Regional Strawberry Festival was held Tuesday evening. The meeting, called to determine the feasibility of holding the festival this year, was well attended with representation from all organizations who took part last year including a group from the Lower Montague regatta association.

ed they were quite satisfied with the arrangement and it had never entered their minds that such was the case.

BETTER ARRANGEMENTS
A discussion on better arrangements for prizes to racing boats and for more amusement and entertainment for all who attend the regatta took up considerable time of the meeting and it was then decided to hold a further meeting Monday, May 3 at 8 p.m. in the town hall. It is expected that each organization from the town of Montague will be well represented. It was the opinion of those present for Tuesday's meeting that each organization should carry out its own project with all net profit from such projects to go to the erection of the new rink. The Royal Canadian Legion and the Montague Y's Men have both indicated they would carry on their projects.

City Duplicate Bridge Club Places Well In Tournament

Four members of the Charlottetown Duplicate Bridge Club made a strong showing at the Spring Sectional bridge championships held last weekend, Friday to Sunday, at Truro, N.S.

In the open team - of four championship, in which 12 teams from all parts of the Maritimes competed, the Charlottetown quartet finished in a tie for second place — just one-half point back of the winning foursome. This one was made up of two sessions, and in the afternoon round, the Charlottetown team held first place. They dropped to second in the night session. The Charlottetown team comprised: Mrs. Hilda Green, Mrs. M.A. Farmer, Mrs. L.L. Duffy, and Mrs. J. Frank MacMillan.

He is survived by two daughters and two sons; Florence (Mrs. Louis Jenkins) of Lower Montague; Tena (Mrs. Harold Bulpitt) of Rosemeath; Daniel of Cardigan and Elliott of Toronto. Also two sisters: Mrs. Bertha Burke of Arlington, Mass., and Mrs. Amelia McKinnon of California.

Final results of the women's pairs play were not available when the island team left Truro late Sunday, but Mrs. Green said yesterday she is quite certain they did not repeat as champions.

Funeral services will be held today from the Dundas United Church at 2:30 p.m. Interment will be in the church cemetery. The funeral will be under the direction of the Montague Funeral Home.

The first day's play saw 92 entrants.
