

Regina Pats And Marlboros Tie

TORONTO (CP)—Regina Pats crossed up the experts Friday night as they held the powerful Toronto Marlboros to an overtime 4-4 tie in the first game of their best-of-seven Memorial Cup series.

Playing before a slim crowd of only 3,855, the western Canada champions battled from behind twice in the second period to even the count and then went ahead 3-2 at 18:22. They made it 4-2 early in the third session before the eastern Canada champions and defending cup titleholders knotted the count before regulation time ran out.

Regard's first goal made it 2-1 but goals by John Kowalchuk, last minute replacement from Fort William "anadians, and Joe Lunningham gave Pats a 3-2 lead at the end of the second period.

Bryhan Whittall made it 4-2 early in the third but Marlboros came back with goals by Carl Brewer and Girard to tie the score.

The second game of the series will be played here Sunday afternoon with the third and fourth scheduled for Wednesday and Friday. Marlboros outshot the Pats 40-26.

Remember When

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Derby County, after 62 years in big-time soccer, won the Football Association Cup Final 10 years ago today with a convincing 4-1 victory over Charlton Athletic.

Runners-up on three previous occasions, the Rams had to go over time after the teams were tied 1-1.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

This province has always been noted for the good horses produced here. Years ago before the advent of the automobile, buyers from other parts of the Maritime and the United States made visits here and bought carriage horses that could not be excelled anywhere.

Locally there were traders who moved prospects and some of them handled as many as 100 horses a year. When that era closed it was followed by the production of speed by our farmers and it is a well known fact that Prince Edward Island has for years been the mainstay in breeding trotters and pacers for these provinces by the sea.

One of the many successful breeders was a man mentioned in George E. Crozier of Hamilton, whose May Abbe by Abner T. Clegg, dam Mignonette, has produced such good ones as Jolley Lad, a 4-year-old that in the ownership of Mrs. Keith Thomas of Halifax and driven by Johnny Conroy, took a record of 2:13 on the 10th of October last year at Truro.

In 20 starts he was seven times first, four times second and twice third and this year is a 2:25 class pacer.

May Abbe is also the dam of Falley Abbe, a 3-year-old by Pagnac; also Ginger Will by Ginger, that Mr. Crozier is planning to have prepared and raced this year. He also has a yearling filly full sister to Jolley Lad.

By the way, Mignonette was by Great Britton 2:02 1/4 and her dam was Gavotte by Dillon Axworthy 3:20 1/4, second dam Croisette by Bellini 1:13 1/4. She is the dam of Babe Britton 2:08 1/2, Richard Budge 2:08 1/2, Abner Britton 2:10 Squire's Princess and Miss Darnley, both owned by Harry W. Crozier, Danley, P.E.I. Mignonette was foaled in 1931 being bred by Albert F. Curtis, Ballardville, Mass., and produced in her 17th year Miss Darnley. Her last owner was Harry W. Crozier.

GOLD
When the winter attends the meetings of the USTA we always look forward to meeting Warren O. Hartman of Wadena, Minn., because of the warm welcome he gives us. When our Annual Review came out we sent him a copy and had a nice long letter from him and he stated that he had six head in training, three of them by Prince Richard, one by Chief Counsel and a very fine 3-year-old trotting filly. His partner, Mr. McIntyre, has the good trotter Mr. Key 2:08 3/8 by Long Key, dam Calumet Early. He started 15 times and was 13 times first and twice second.

We think we have cold weather here, but just listen to this: "We have had a long cold winter so far. It has been as cold as 40 below zero and around 20 below for many days. We also have a great lot of snow and it has been very hard to do anything with the horses. We expect to go on every day from now on. We did get quite a bit of work into the colls last fall and that will give us something to go on with.

"We will start to race about the last of May in Manitoba, where Mr. McIntyre has friends that he always looks forward to seeing. The only fault I find with us going over there is that the horses are so very hard to beat. Of course being so optimistic, I cannot help but think that this is the year we beat them, but I also hope for our very good friend and Mr. McIntyre's stable, Mr. Hartman also enclosed entry forms for the Tri-State Racing Circuit for North and South Dakota and Minnesota. The circuit starts on June 20 at Cando, N.C. and continues until September 16 at Glenwood, Minnesota. All the tracks are half mile and all the Fairs are on good surfaced roads.

A panel of prominent harness horse owners and trainers has selected Scott Frost and Adios Harry as the pre-season choices for cop honors in the nation's free for all trotting and pacing ranks respectively. The poll was conducted by The U.S. Trotting Association. At the same time, the 23 panel members named Saboteur and Belle Acton as the top 3-year-olds, thus sealing their winter book favoritism for leading sophomore classics. Saboteur is a trotter, Belle Acton a pacer. Scott Frost, Harness Horse of the Year in 1955, drew 18 of the 23 first place designations in the free for all trotting class and a total of 199 points on a 10-5-4-3-2-1 basis.

4-YEAR OLD
Although only a 4-year-old this year, Scott Frost proved his ability to go with the aged stars by winning the $75,000 American Trotting Classic at Hollywood Park last fall. The colt is owned by Saul Camp of Shafter, Calif. Trailing him in the voting were Galophone, his shadow in the 2-year-old class last season, Danley, Genesee, Glenway, Stenographer and Gene Mac. Adios Harry, who paced a mile in 1:55 last season, was an even more convincing choice in the free for all pacing class.

FOX OR CAT
His little act gave me cause to wonder. I guess Hawk-eye felt the same way for he stopped to examine the tracks as we crossed the road together. "Is that a fox or cat?" was his query. "It's big enough for a small vixen but its a worthwhile information in the process."

I enjoyed it all but the sun was low in the west and evening shadows were creeping over the land when I reached the car. It was good to relax and listen to the engine purr. I had all the walking length by the hind feet... after he had taken his last nose dive naturally... and his whiskers were only a few inches from the ground. At 12:30 my legs began to lag and stomach felt as if it hadn't had food for a week. I set down the pack-sack on the south side of a vacant house that faced the spruce swamps extending eastward from Moss Lake — the old home gone lake that always beckoned during the years in the First World War. I rucked up a seat and low table from some loose boards and "bled" tea. The pack-sack felt quite light after I had finished my repeat and I felt equal for another five mile hike. A staple article of diet on a hike like this is hard boiled eggs. Not the 5 or 10 minute longer... till the yolk is white and mealy. I carry salt and pepper and eat them like an apple or plum.

Afterward I reclined with my back against the house and absorbed the sunshine. A raven kept circling low over the spruce swamp in front tilting its wings on a steep slant to get a better look at something beneath and I wondered what it was. It finally flapped away, rather reluctantly I thought. Space does not allow for any more detail. Suffice to say I braved deep snow to view a heavier dam still lying in its winter sleep under two feet of ice and snow. I talked to farmers and got the low down on game conditions and picked up a worthwhile information in the process.

I enjoyed it all but the sun was low in the west and evening shadows were creeping over the land when I reached the car. It was good to relax and listen to the engine purr. I had all the walking length by the hind feet... after he played in daylight. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two

UNBEATEN IN 49 BOUTS

Rocky Marciano Officially Retires From Boxing Wars

HUNTERS' CORNER

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Marciano retired Friday as heavyweight champion of the world—unbeaten in his 49 pro fights—to spend more time with his wife and baby daughter at his Brockton, Mass., home.

If Rocky can resist the lure of a comeback, he will be the only unbeaten heavy titleholder ever to quit without losing a pro fight, even boxing a draw. Gene Tunney made it stick when he stepped down in 1928, but he had been beaten earlier in his career by Harry Greb. Jim Jeffries, a non-loser when he returned, tried to come back and was knocked out by Jack Johnson. Joe Louis also failed in a comeback attempt.

Marciano, who will be 33 on Sept. 21, said he weighed 212 pounds, about 23 more than his normal fighting weight. He insisted physical condition had nothing to do with his decision to stop fighting.

"I am retiring because of my wife and Mary Anne (his 3 1/2-year-old daughter)," said Marciano at a news conference held after the fight. "Barbara has been after me to quit for some time. After the Don Cockerill fight (in San Francisco, May 16, 1955) we spent a month together in Mexico. She did a lot of talking about our not being together and how I had to be introduced to the baby every time I went home. I never spent more than two weeks in a row at home."

Although there are only estimates on some of his early bouts, it was believed his purses totalled about $1,700,000, before manager's cut and taxes.

Asked how he stood financially, Marciano said "I'm not afraid of the future. I'm comfortable. I'll be able to do all right."

Marciano's retirement, of course, threw the heavyweight class into a wild turmoil. Charley Johnston, the manager of Moore, claimed the title.

Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club who attended Marciano's press conference with manager Weill and trainer Charlie Goldman, said he planned an elimination tournament.

"I will ask the New York state athletic commission, the European Boxing Union and the National Boxing Association to recognize the winner of the tournament that we, or any other promoter, run," he said.

Moore won't believe it. SEATTLE (AP)—"I don't believe it," Archie Moore said Friday after being notified of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano's announced retirement.

"I think he's crying wolf—just like the little boy who cried wolf three times. Maybe, he's trying to get a little more publicity."

But if the Rock's retirement is bona fide, Moore-claimed he is the heir apparent to the crown. The venerable Archie, who professed "to be 39," is light-heavy champ and rated by Ring magazine as leading contender for the heavyweight title.

Moore was en route to Los Angeles Friday morning from Vancouver, B.C., and had stopped off at the Seattle-Tacoma international airport to clear customs.

Told about International Boxing Club's announced plans for a heavyweight elimination tournament, Moore said he opposes the idea.

"I don't believe he retired, but I've said all along I'm the champ if he does."

"If they want the title, the line forms at the right. They gotta fight me first. And I'm ready to take on all comers."

Soccer Selectors Recall Maestro
LONDON (AP)—England's soccer selectors Friday recalled old maestro Stanley Matthews for the match against Brazil at Wembley Stadium May 9.

But the 41-year-old wing wizard was missing from the 17-strong party named for England's tour of the Continent next month. Matthews, still regarded as one of the finest wingers in the game, is due to play in Kenya and South Africa in mid-May and June.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two homer of the season. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

A's, BOSOX, TIGERS LOSE

Chicago, New York and Cleveland, running one-two-three in the American League, continued their winning ways Friday while the Ted Williams-less Boston Red Sox remained in their dismal slump.

The White Sox, who have lost only one game in six starts, took a slugfest from Kansas City 9-7 to maintain their first place percentage lead over New York. The Yankees defeated Boston 5-2 for their fourth straight over the Red Sox and Cleveland edged Detroit 4-3 in ten innings.

Those were the only games played in daylight. Bill Pierce, although slugged for four home runs, outlasted four Kansas City pitchers as he staggered to his third victory without a defeat. The little lefthander had the benefit of 13 hits behind him, including a home run by Walt Dropo.

The big Chicago hitters were George Kell and Minnie Minoso. Kell cracked three singles and drove in a run. Minnie banged a single and double and batted in three tallies. Art Ditmar was the Sox starter and loser. The Sox clipped Pierce for 12 hits with Harry Simpson having a field day. The bespectacled outfielder, continuing his torrid spring pace, batted two home runs and two singles, scored three times and drove in three runs. Hec Lopez and pinch hitter Bill Renna also homered for the losers.

ERRORS YIELD RUNS
After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two homer of the season. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two homer of the season. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two homer of the season. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two

Chisox, Yanks, Indians Continue Winning Ways

Chicago, New York and Cleveland, running one-two-three in the American League, continued their winning ways Friday while the Ted Williams-less Boston Red Sox remained in their dismal slump.

The White Sox, who have lost only one game in six starts, took a slugfest from Kansas City 9-7 to maintain their first place percentage lead over New York. The Yankees defeated Boston 5-2 for their fourth straight over the Red Sox and Cleveland edged Detroit 4-3 in ten innings.

Those were the only games played in daylight. Bill Pierce, although slugged for four home runs, outlasted four Kansas City pitchers as he staggered to his third victory without a defeat. The little lefthander had the benefit of 13 hits behind him, including a home run by Walt Dropo.

The big Chicago hitters were George Kell and Minnie Minoso. Kell cracked three singles and drove in a run. Minnie banged a single and double and batted in three tallies. Art Ditmar was the Sox starter and loser. The Sox clipped Pierce for 12 hits with Harry Simpson having a field day. The bespectacled outfielder, continuing his torrid spring pace, batted two home runs and two singles, scored three times and drove in three runs. Hec Lopez and pinch hitter Bill Renna also homered for the losers.

ERRORS YIELD RUNS
After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two homer of the season. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two homer of the season. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two homer of the season. Redleg pitcher Johnny Klippstein went the distance for Cincinnati, yielding eight hits and four runs. Cincinnati clubbed out a dozen hits off four Chicago pitchers — Russ Meyer, Jim Brosnan, Jim Tremel and Jim Davis.

Redleg catcher Ed Bailey broke Cincinnati ahead with a homer over the centerfield wall that scored Ray Jablonski and Wally Post.

Those engagements probably account for his omission from the party to four Sweden, Finland and Germany. Matthews last played for England against Wales at Cardiff last October. Sports writers clamored for his return after England managed out a dull 1-1 tie against Scotland three weeks ago. England plays Sweden in Stockholm May 16, Finland in Helsinki May 20, and Germany in Berlin May 28.

After picking up a pair of unearned runs in the fifth inning he to three Red Sox errors, the Yankees led the game in the eighth when Elston Howard walloped a two-run homer. Don Larsen, who failed to hold a lead against Boston at the Yankee Stadium last week, went the distance this time. He limited the Beantowners to six costly errors in the fifth, collected three of the hits. The loss was charged to Tom Brewer. He has never been able to beat the Yankees in four decisions. Williams, still sidelined by a foot ailment, lined out as a pinchhitter.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer in the 10th proved the deciding blow for Cleveland as Detroit came back with one run in its half on a four-bagger by Earl Torgeson. All but one run were knocked in by home runs. Vic Wertz got his third for Cleveland and Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell reached the seats for Detroit.

Don Mossi, who relieved starter Mike Garcia in the ninth after Kaline's homer had tied the score at 2-2 an inning before, was credited with the victory. Frank Lary gave up all Cleveland's runs to absorb his second defeat.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs turned in their first win in six games Friday night, defeating the Chicago Cubs, 7-4, before a crowd of 11,602. Cub outfielder Walt Moryn scored all the Chicago runs with his first two