The bride was attended by Miss Mary Cameron, of Augustine Cove, and Mr. Frank Nelson, of Cornwall, was "best man." Miss Bertie Lee presided at the organ, and rendered the wedding march in splendid style. MR. HECTOR'S LECTURES.—A St. John gentleman at present visiting our city tells us a great treat is in store for everyone who attends the lectures to be given in the city on Saturday and Sunday by Mr. Hector, the Black Knight. We, therefore, advise all who can possibly do so to attend Saturday evening. The admission is by silver collection, and everyone is invited, but the lectures are well worth the full price charged by all prominent lecturers.

MR. HUNTER'S REMARKS.—The Rev. Mr. Hunter, in those wonderful "preliminary remarks" made some straight cuts to many a conscience. "A mighty time is coming and you must either come in with it or get out of the road. If you are in the way you will be run over and left behind." "Perhaps it would be better for the church and the world if some of you were dead and buried." Mr. Hunter then called on Mr. Sproule, of Montreal, who was converted five weeks ago, last night, in the Fredericton revival. He spoke very humbly of his great change after 20 years of a life of sin and drunkenness. He was drinking hard two days or more before he was converted, but since he gave himself up to God he had enjoyed such peace and joy of heart, he prayed God to let him die rather than allow him to go back to his former miserable life in sin.

Mr. Hunter then read and commented on Matthew xxv. 22, and following verses. I. He remarked with reference to Jesus that He (1) made bountiful provision. God always provides for us, and if you were to pick up a snowflake from the sky by the hand of an angel, you would find it there. (2) His protection. How He shelters and watches over us all our lives. (3) Prayer. He spent whole nights in prayer. "Get it alone with Jesus if you want to be a power. Let not the man of business, the railway man, or any person, on men's duties without first going to Jesus for help." (4) His pity. How He pities us in our low estate. II. See as regards the disciples. (a) They met difficulty. Jesus knows all about us. Go through whatever you have to meet on the way to Jesus. "If hell is the way go through it." (b) Determination. They proceeded in spite of the storm. (c) Distress. Jesus came in the darkest moment. He comes in the darkest hour of bereavement and sorrow. He related an incident in connection with the funeral of the late Rev. J. A. Gordon, D.D., in which Mrs. Gordon was so composed during this great trial, and set of a friend who asked her about it. "What is the religion of Jesus for if not for hours like this?" (d) A desire to be with Jesus in the hour of danger. "Lord suffer me to come unto Thee," said Peter.

III. What Jesus said. "Fear not." Do not be afraid of the least insect, neither fear the indifference and slowness of the church. We talk of pentecost. Why we have a double pentecost every day of our lives. Six thousand are converted every day.

Mr. Crossley sang "Can a Boy Forget His Mother's Prayers?" very impressively. He then spoke of the "unpardonable sin," from Mark iii. 29, and showed that the Master left no uncertainty about what it is—the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost was ascribing the works of the spirit through Jesus to the agency of the devil. They said the man of Christ only showed him to be a greater devil. The unpardonable sin was the state of mind which made this possible. He spoke to (1) two classes (1) those who thought they had committed this sin, who had no cause for fear. (2) those who feared they had sinned away the day of grace. This fear and a desire to be saved were evidences that they had not committed the sin. (b) The backslider. Satan tries to get every backslider into the VI. chapter of Hebrews, but that does not refer to backsliders but to total apostates. Luke XV. concerning the returning prodigal is for the backslider. (c) Those guilty of heinous sins—drunkenness, sleeping, blasphemers, Magdalen, and a Sani of Tarsus, and would save them. Strong words were spoken on the mistaken idea that a person has no feeling, when this very fact proves they have.

Second class.—Those who committed this sin. This is a most alarming condition. You call up past experience, and ask, "Why did I not feel as I used to under the preaching of the Word?" Ah, because you have so long resisted the Holy Ghost that you have reached the awful condition described by St. Paul as "past feeling." Any who have laxiousness about their souls may well cry out in alarm. A person freezing to death feels alarmed first, then more comfortable, then he wants to be put to rest; if he does he will never awaken again until the day of judgment.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Nature and grace combined to make this a most enjoyable and successful night. Besides the evangelists, the Rev. G. M. Campbell, E. C. Corey, W. J. Spargo, Mr. Bow, W. H. Spargo, H. R. Baker and Mr. Sproule were on the platform. The Rev. E. C. Corey led in prayer, and the whole assembly joined heartily in singing "Scatter seeds of kindness." A sweet "Let us wait and murmur not," was beautifully rendered by Rev. Mr. Crossley and Miss Collins.

Mr. Hunter, in those wonderful "preliminary remarks" made some straight cuts to many a conscience. "A mighty time is coming and you must either come in with it or get out of the road. HOME MISSIONS MEETING.

The committee on home missions of the Presbyterian Church met in Chalmers Hall, Halifax, on Tuesday. Rev. T. F. Fullerton and Mr. T. C. James, of Charlottetown, were among those present.

Reports were received from the various fields of the synod of the Maritime Provinces. These reports showed excellent work by the stronger congregations, mission stations during the summer. Another pleasing fact which came out at the meeting was that the stations had raised more money than hitherto, so that both the stations and the congregations were better off than ever before. The debt on the home mission fund has decreased, and now stands at $2,000.

In the afternoon, a joint meeting of the augmentation and home mission committee was held. The time was spent in discussing the re-arrangement or grouping of congregations and mission stations so as to render weak congregations more nearly self-supporting, and to embrace mission stations within stronger congregations, thus relieving the home mission board of some burdens now borne by it. This it is hoped that both the augmentation and the home mission funds will be able to do. The congregations and the mission stations of the church benefited. It is estimated that forty per cent of the demands upon the fund might be saved if some such grouping as that proposed were consummated. It is stated that there is a probability of allowances to congregations from the augmentation fund being curtailed, owing to the inadequacy of the fund to meet demands made upon it.

The re-arrangement proposed will be sent to presbyteries, who are asked to report to the agent of the church not later than April. Then another meeting will be held and the committee will report to synod.

Spain has wasted 22,000 lives in trying to retain Cuba, and her hold on the island seems weaker than ever. It is pretty evident that Spain does not understand the E. of colonial government. England has not had so brilliant a colonial career as Spain in a century, and her Colonial Empire is greater to-day than ever it was before. Spain had better take a leaf out of the history of British colonial administration and grant Cuba self-government.

A Former Resident thought to be Dying of Bright's Disease, cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

LISTON'S (Special Nov. 2.—A despatch reaching here relating to the dis-every in Neepawa, Man., or Mrs. T. H. McKee, formerly living here was a surprise to her friends and acquaintances. It was met by doubt, however, until confirmed by a report from Neepawa. Her case was well-known here, as this lady was treated by several of the local doctors for Bright's disease, and her friends thought as did her physicians, that her case was hopeless, and it was as a last resort that she left here for climatic change. This Mrs. McKee was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills in a few weeks, speaks volumes in their favor.
