Bringing In The Cows Brings Back Memories

And another week sweet and new came in to us with the reveille of the lawn-birds this morning. We awakened to find the sun burnishing the leaves of the Virginia creeper which in its summer abandon almost flames the tiny small-paned window to the east.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN BURNS KEENAN

TYRONE IS SETTING FOR LOVELY SUMMER WEDDING

St. Anne's Church, Tryone was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday morning July 30th, when Ethel Margaret Callaghan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Callaghan was united in marriage to John Burns Keenan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Keenan of Hodgeville, Saskatchewan.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilfred McCordie, cousin of the bride. Present in the sanctuary was Rev. Charles MacCarthy, pastor. Serving the Nuptial Mass was Louis MacCloskey.

Organist was Miss Mary McElroy and Mrs. Amos Callaghan sang appropriate hymns for the occasion. The sanctuary was decorated with summer flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace and gossamer tulle featuring a bateau neckline of scalloped lace. The fitted bodice buttoned in back with tiny covered buttons, extending below the waist. The sleeves were short with matching gauntlets tapering over the hands. Worn over bridal satin and hoop a frou frou ruffled skirt was gathered under an over skirt of tulle, scattered with lace appliques tapering to a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil of hand rolled silk illusion was gathered to a halo of iridescent and pseudo pearls. Her bouquet was of red roses.

The bridal attendants were her sister, Mrs. Leo McIsaac, Miss Tena McCloskey and her niece, Miss Mary Beth McIsaac as flower girl. Her bridesmaids, wore pale pink and pale green gowns of brocaded taffeta with matching headpieces and mitts. They carried nosegays of mixed flowers. The flower girl looked dazzling in pink nylon, matching matching headdress and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

The groom was attended by Mr. Leo McIsaac and ushers.

Mrs. Peter Nicholson, Mrs. Maurice Howatt, Miss Margaret Kennedy, Mrs. William Waddell and Mrs. William Halliwell. The silver service was presided over by Mrs. Albert Todd. A three-tier wedding cake marked by silver tapers and white candles centered the bride's table around which assembled the bridal party.

Mrs. Ivan Kennedy was in charge of the guest book. The gifts to the soloist, organist, ushers and attendants were oil paintings which were painted by the groom. Following their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McDonald left for Mimico, Ontario, where they have taken up residence at 108 Main Street. Mr. McDonald is employed with the Canadian National Railways and Mrs. McDonald is a Presbyterian deaconess.

For travelling the bride wore a Windsor blue silk suit, blue shoes and bag, pink picture hat and gloves. She carried a navy topper. The good wishes of a host of friends were extended to this happy couple.

For travelling the bride chose a dress of pale blue and white. She wore a white shawl with navy and white accessories.

Following the reception the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes via Cabot Trail.

On their return they were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo McIsaac. They plan to reside on the island.

Previous to her marriage the bride received many beautiful gifts at a number of functions held in her honor.

FINE SHEEP
Merino sheep, backbone of Australia's great wool industry, are believed to have originated in North Africa.

WIFE PRESERVERS

To make a quick orange jam to serve over hot biscuits or pancakes, take two cups of orange pulp and juice, the pulp and juice of one lemon, and one and one-half cups of sugar. Boil the mixture quickly for about 10 minutes or until syrupy and clear. This makes two cups.

Daubney-MacCallum Wedding Is Solemnized

A quiet family wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents when Myrtle Irene MacCallum daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George MacCallum Charlottetown P.E.I. was united in marriage to Peter Edwin Daubney son of Mr. Fred Daubney Manotick Ontario and the late Mrs. Daubney. Reverend Harold Milton officiated at the ceremony.

The wedding music was provided by Patricia MacCallum and John Bartheaux. The home setting was attractive with a variety of summer flowers.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a street length gown of blue organza over taffeta with a band of matching feathers in her hair. Pearl necklace and earrings complete the outfit and she carried a cascade of yellow roses.

Mrs. MacCallum mother of the bride wore a figured silk crepe dress of grey and pink. Her corsage was pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home. The toast to the bride was proposed by Reverend Harold Milton, the groom responding.

The couple left for a trip through Maine. For travelling the bride wore a summer suit of green tweed with a brown feather hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses. After the trip the couple will reside in Thurso, Quebec, where the groom is employed with the Singer Manufacturing Company.

The bride is a graduate of Mount Allison University and the groom of the University of Toronto. Prior to her marriage the bride has been on the teaching staff of Elmwood School for Girls, Ottawa, and more recently in the Editorial Office National Research Council, Ottawa.

Mrs. Beth Carruthers of Summerside and Mr. Nels Paulsen of Calgary, Alta. were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Wall at the Bedeque Manse on Wednesday, August 7th. In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Inman. After the ceremony they left by plane for Moncton, N.B.

On their return they were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. H. E. Inman, Beaver Street, Summerside, when they received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Paulsen was honored with a pre-nuptial tea at Mrs. Victor Inman's North St. Eleanor's. She was presented with a gift by Mrs. Ray Rayner on behalf of the guests. Mrs. David Morrison assisted the hostess in serving.

The Old-Fashioned Way

To try and sell "need-nots", or try and find a maid, or rent a room, the old-fashioned way was to get on the phone and tell neighbors about it. But that was a slow process, and only a few people were ever made aware. To get quick, successful results, EVERYBODY who might be interested needs to know. So, when you want to sell used articles, or hire competent help or offer skilled services, do as thousands of others do so effectively each year.
