'Twas Time He Married.

A good story reaches Woman from the somewhat out-of-the-way region of Petaluma. Early last week all was going merrily at a very interesting wedding in the town until the bridegroom was called upon to produce the wedding ring. In vain he felt in his trousers pocket for the missing trifle. Nothing could be found except a hole through which it had evidently fallen into the high boot which is affected by young men of that country. What was he to do? "Take your boot off," said the parson. The suspense and silence was painful. The organist, at the priest's bidding, struck up a "voluntary." The young man, sitting on the altar rails, removed his boot, and the ring was found—also a hole in the stocking, which led the worthy devine to remark, "Young man it is time you were married."

Odds and Ends.

It was a breach of promise suit, and the letters were all read. Here is what the opening words of each epistle said: "Dear Mr. Smith," "Dear Friend," "Dear John," "My Darling Four-leaf Clover," "My Ownest Jack," "Dear John," "Dear Sir," then "Sir," and all was over.

Teacher—"Explain the difference between law and custom." Boy (who owns a sailboat)—"Accordin' to law, a steamboat must give the right of way to a sailboat, but 'cordin' to custom the sailboat has gotter make tracks or get smashed."
