P.E.I.'s 4-H Delegate Returns From Ottawa, Washington

Prince Edward Island's delegate to the National 4-H Club conference in Washington, D.C., Maryna MacNally of Scotchfort, recently returned home following the week-long conference. Prior to the opening of the conference the group, including representatives of all 10 provinces, plus leaders, met in Ottawa, where they were welcomed to the parliament buildings by Prime Minister John Diefenbaker. They also toured the city and visited the Royal Canadian Mint and attended a meeting of the United Nations building. The group toured New York following the day and visited the Empire State building, the Statue of Liberty and Rockefeller center. They also attended the musical production of "My Fair Lady."

Mr. MacNally said that the emphasis was given to the delegates at both the delegates and leaders development conference, which were held at the same time. The 4-H theme was "Building Towards Excellence of Our American Heritage — cultural, educational, historical, political, economic and spiritual." The Island delegate stated that the American government in action, and followed a full schedule of talks by prominent speakers, group discussions, and educational tours. The highlight of the week's activities, Mr. MacNally noted, came in the final evening when the program, "The Light Side of Shining," was presented. The program was designed and written by Mrs. Billie Howes, a 4-H leader from Massachusetts.

Hon. Gordon Churchill To Speak Wed.

Veteran Affairs Minister Gordon Churchill will visit the Island to campaign for Kings and Queens county Progressive Conservative candidates, Conservative headquarters announced over the weekend. Mr. Churchill will be the special speaker at a joint Kings-Queens Conservative rally at Mount Stewart Wednesday evening. Both Kings and Queens candidates will be present for the meeting. On Wednesday afternoon the veteran affairs minister is expected to visit the Charlottetown Legion branch.

Deputy Chief Scout Will Speak Here

Commissioner L.H. Nicholson (RMP ret'd), deputy chief scout for Canada, will arrive in the province today by car. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Nicholson. Commissioner Nicholson will address the Charlottetown Rotary club at the dinner, which is the Rotary's scout investiture ceremony at Government House at 5:30 p.m. and be guest speaker at the dinner being held at the Charlottetown hotel Monday evening. Thirty-five Queen's awards will be guests of the provincial council at the dinner. The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Council will follow the dinner.

Elmira Man Is Rescued

SOURIS — Kenneth Murphy, 35, of Elmira, narrowly escaped drowning early Saturday when lobster fishing near here. He was thrown overboard when his foot became entangled in a trawl line. A companion in the boat, August Mallard, rescued Mr. Murphy but it was not until he removed two lobster traps from the water in order to get to his companion. It is believed the two traps were pulled overboard when Mr. Murphy fell into the water.

Break Found In Souris Water Main

SOURIS — A breakdown in the town's water system, that left citizens without water for a greater part of Friday has been located. Repairs are expected to be completed this evening. The break was found in the pipe outside the home of Dennis Moosman, on Prince street, which is the only home in the block. After the water was turned off in one section of the town at a time in order to pinpoint the break. All houses now have water except the Moosman residence.
