Teenager Wins Amateur Title

COLORADO SPRINGS (AP)—Jack Nicklaus, a big likeable youngster, won the final hole from the defending champion Saturday and defeated Charlie Coe 1 up to become the third teen-aged winner of the U.S. amateur golf championship.

Nicklaus, who won't be 20 until next January, is the second-youngest player ever to win this coveted title. Bob Gardner won in 1909 at 19 years and five months — just three months younger than Jackie. The other teen-ager was 1902 winner Louis James, 19 years, 10 months.

Nicklaus faced a situation which might have shaken an older and more experienced player. Coe started out with three straight birdies, shot the front nine of the long Broadmoor course in 33 and had a two-under-par for the morning round to lead 2 up at the halfway point of the 36 - hole match.

But the lanky Oklahoma lad showed signs of tiring before the morning round was over. Nicklaus caught him at the 21st hole. Then he dropped behind again and didn't take the lead until the 32nd hole.

Coe squared the match once more when Nicklaus played the 613-yard 35th hole in miserable fashion. But on the deciding 36th, Coe overshot the green, recovered beautifully only to lose the hole and the match when Nicklaus stroked in a six-foot putt for a birdie 3.
