ALBERTON — William H. Mallett, formerly of Alberton South, passed away at his home in Cambridge, Mass., on Sunday, March 29th. He was 71 years of age.

During the first part of his life he followed the sea, and then was keeper of the Alberton lighthouse for 30 years. As a young man he was a crew member on the Thesa J. McKean when she was lost on the North Bar outside Alberton harbour during a storm in 1906. He was one of three members of the crew to be rescued. During the past 10 years he has spent most of the time in Cambridge, returning to his home in Alberton South each summer for a holiday.

He is survived by his wife, the former Josephine Gaudet; two sons, Justin in Arvida, Quebec and Charles in Melrose, Mass.; two daughters, Mrs. Price (Mary) of Burlington and Mrs. Scappace (Eva) of Stoneham; and 12 grandchildren.

The funeral was from the O'Hara Funeral Home, with Requiem High Mass in St. Paul's Church, where he was a member of the Holy Name Society. Interment was in Cambridge cemetery.
