A GENEROUS GIFT TO THE PASTOR OF ST. TERESA'S

A number of the parishioners of St. Teresa's waited on their esteemed pastor on Saturday evening, May 15th, and presented him with a beautiful baggy, and the following appropriate address:

ADDRESS
REV. FATHER.—On behalf of the parishioners 'tis with the most unwonted pleasure I read to you this address, accompanied with our gift (a baggy) which we sincerely hope will be acceptable. However great it may appear, it can scarcely add to the fond affection we zealously entertain for you. If in the minds of any the motives of gratitude for your tender solicitude in our spiritual, and temporal welfare was not sufficiently apparent, the part they have now borne in this offering must amply convince you. We have known the constancy of your attachment, and the devotion which you have cherished for us—your flock—all so completely entrusted to your keeping; and we feel confident in the belief that your efforts will not be lacking to ensure every advancement in our personal interests. Our memory often deeply dwells on the vicissitudes experienced in the earlier years you were with us—yet the thoughts turning from the cares, troubles and anxieties reviews with more cheerfulness the felicities of the past, so natural it is for us to overlook the shadows and see only the brightness.

As your social and friendly intercourse has never failed to endear you to us, we earnestly pray, dear father, you may long continue on through life's journey. May your path be strewn with flowers of kindness and affection. In the brightness of all your actions may you see the foreshadowing of a blessed future. The earnest and sincere wish of your devoted parishioners.

ANTHONY McLAUGHLIN,
RONALD D. McDONALD,
PATRICK GOODWIN,
PHILIP MAHAR,
JAMES GILLAN,
JOSEPH DUNN,
ALLAN McDONALD,

The pastor responded in suitable terms, thanking them for their kindness and co-operation with him since he came to the parish. United energy between priest and people will do much towards promoting the good work meted out by the Higher Power.

McMillan & Hornsby's FOR WALL PAPER

Toronto Globe: If it is decided that the electors in voting for or against prohibition, are also to record their opinion on the question of taxation, the question of taxation ought to be fairly stated, and due weight given to the contention that direct taxation will not be necessary. If what is virtually one of the arguments against prohibition is to be placed on the ballot paper it is due to the friends of prohibition that the argument should not be overstated.
