Horse Notes.

Sunol, the queen of the turf, having put the record at 2.08 1/2, is a wonderful animal. When on July 30, 1885, Maud S., at Cleveland, set the pace at 2.08 1/2, it was generally thought that her record would not be beaten in this generation of trotters; but since the invention of the kite-shaped track, the remarkable speed it has developed gave promise of a new record, which was fulfilled lately at Stockton, and the name of the beautiful mare who has made the record is now in the mouths of all. Sunol was foaled in 1885 and is by Electioneer, the sire of over 60 in the list. Electioneer is the most remarkable sire of the present day, and divides the honor of being the greatest son of Hambletonian, 10, with George Wilkes. His dam was the great mare Green Mountain Maid, and the dam of the filly was Waxanna, by General Benton, second dam thoroughbred. As a yearling, Sunol was a weedy filly, and though a natural trotter, did not give the promise of being the veritable wonder that she has turned out to be. It was in her two-year-old form that she began to be looked upon as the coming world-beater.

Sunol was first found in a 2-year-old stake at Los Angeles, Aug. 10, where she met Vesolia, by Stamboul, and beat her in two straight heats in 2.23 1/2 and 2.25. Twelve days later she was at Pataluma, and there in a two-year-old stake she met and defeated Margaret S. and Fortuna in straight heats in 2.28 1/2 and 2.26 1/2. At the Bay District course at San Francisco on Oct. 19, she started to beat 2.21 for a special purse, and she won, trotting the mile easy in 2.20 1/2. The performance was such an easy one for her that the management again hung up a purse to have her beat that figure, being the fastest mark of the age in the world, it having been 2.21 by Wildflower, made in 1881. Oct. 27 found the wonderful mare at the post in good order, and she put the 2-year-old mark at the phenomenal figure of 2.18, the mark that stood as the acme of speed in the 3-year-olds up to last year, when it was beaten by Sunol and Axtell.

After the season of 1888 it was said that the filly had gone wrong, and the wisecrack said: "I told you so; forcing a youngster is bad policy." The Palo Alto folks did not deny the rumor except by the significant remark, "Wait till next year." The season of 1889 was the greatest that the trotting world has ever seen, and with the general increase in the trotting interest the public were shown the most wonderful work that ever graced the records of the track. Sunol started eight times in the year, and at the last time found the record of 2.12 1/2 by Axtell as the best record for a trotting 3-year-old in the world. The herculean task of beating such a record would have deterred men of less grit than Senator Stanford and the great lieutenant, Charles Marvin, but at the track where she got her two-year-old record the little mare was found ready to take the honors of the young brigade and the fastest mile in 1889. She went her mile in 2.10 1/2, and put the record where it is a harder task to beat than is the mark that has stood as the world's record since 1885.

Sunol is now owned by Robert Bonner, but according to the contract at the time of sale, is controlled by Leland Stanford, the man that bred her. She was bought by her present owner for a private price, but Mr. Bonner says that it was the biggest money he ever paid for a horse, and he has owned all the world-beaters. He gave $40,000 for Maud S., so it is safe to say that Sunol cost him at least $50,000. The thoroughbred blood in Sunol was as near the fountain head as in the case of any horse in the country. It was controlled by the trotting instinct that came to the sire through the veins of his great sire. Thus the filly was given a great amount of speed, and was thoroughly stayed up by the breeding of her dam.

C. H. Nelson and his string of trotters arrived home this morning, says Waterville, Me., despatch of the 22d. Nelson says his horses are all in good condition. Of his campaign in the West he said: "I think we have done well. I have put seven in the 2.30 class, the largest number by any stable or driver from the east thus far. I could have added five others but for sickness. Medora has trotted in 2.20. I am well satisfied with the season's work. Nelson still holds the stallion record on a regulation track."

Late advices from Stockton, Cal., state that Sunol will not go east for another month. The great trotter will be kept at the Stockton track for more work, and if she does well, and the weather holds good, she may go against her record a week from Tuesday anyway, if Marvin concludes not to start her next week.

A report comes from Newark, N. J., that on Friday the bay stallion Egthore made a half-mile on the kite-shaped track at that place in 1.04 1/2; the last quarter being made in 31 seconds.

A Suggestion.

Sir,—I would suggest that all the stores in the city be closed at six o'clock every evening of the week but Saturday. I, as well as hundreds of others, do not see in keeping young men and women in stores till 9, which is often the case, when there is little or nothing doing. I think the merchants of Charlottetown should see by this time that there is scarcely anything done after 6 o'clock, p. m. Why not give the clerks a chance to attend the C. A. A. in summer and fall, and also a chance to breathe a little fresh air? I am sorry for taking up so much of THE EXAMINER'S valuable space, but I hope some business man will see that the clerks get fair play.

The Ladies' Home Journal.

Decked in a new and unusually artistic Thanksgiving cover, the November Ladies' Home Journal comes as the first reminder that the holidays are approaching. Everything about this issue of the journal seems of the best, and a higher standard has never been reached in any previous number. Whether one reads Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher's second reminiscence paper of "Mr. Beecher as I Knew Him," or listens to Delmonico, the great caterer, as he tells how to set a table and arrange a dinner; or to Russel Sage, the New York financier, as he describes, and arrange a dinner; or to the "The Boy That is Wanted" in business to-day—each feature is as good as the next. A whole page most timely illustrates "A Group of Pretty Dolls," and tells how to make them; "New Ideas for Church Sociables" will interest thousands of church women; Max O'Rell's wife is sketched in the capital series of "Unknown Wives of Well-Known men," while Rachel Sherman, the pretty daughter of the late General Sherman, opens the new series of "Clever daughters of Clever Men;" Palmer Cox's "Brownies" are irresistible in their fun; Ella Wheeler Wilcox tells of "Mistakes We Make With Men;" Dr. Talmage has a whole page on "Thanksgiving," and likewise, has Maria Parlow; "Miss French, of the State Department," is an excellent story by Mary Bradley, as is also another short story called, "The Flowing Shoestring," in fact, there is no end to the good things in this, by far the best number of the Journal ever made. Ten cents is the price of this number, or one dollar a year the subscription price. The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia.

The English royal family does not seem to be in immediate danger of extinction. The last prince, who was born quite recently, makes the fortieth grandchild of Victoria.

The German Imperial family have ordered presents to be sent to the Prince of Wales on the occasion of his jubilee. Prince Henry will probably bring the presents to England.

"MARY, before you put baby in the bath, use the thermometer to get the temperature of the water." "It's no use," says Mary, "for sure if the water's too hot the baby will all be red; and if the water's too cold the baby will all be blue—and that's all that's about it." If Mary used Campbell's Quinine Wine she would not be so cranky. oct20tf

The Russian nobility are in comparatively as wretched circumstances as the peasantry. In October there will be nearly 900 estates belonging to nobles sold by auction at the instance of the state bank that has loaned them money on mortgages.

SARAH BERNHARDT, while out riding in Minneapolis, met several young ladies on buckboards returning from a luncheon, and each unfastened a rose that was a souvenir of the occasion and threw it at her. At the performance that evening Sarah's corsage bouquet was of roses. It was a very nice compliment of Sarah's, and she was in a cheerful disposition after using Campbell's Quinine Wine. oct20tf

It is said that the greatest heiress in Rome at present is the eighteen-year-old Princess Maria Barberina-Colonna, who will bring to her future husband not only a fortune $10,000,000, but also the title of Prince of Palestrina, Duke of Castle Vecchio, the hereditary priorship of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, and hereditary rank of Lieutenant-General of the Papal forces.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Write on one side of the paper only. Send your name, not necessarily for publication, with your communication. We do not undertake to return rejected manuscript. All unsigned communications are promptly consigned to the waste basket. The editor is cross; he should use Campbell's Quinine Wine. oct20tf

LOWER POSTAGE TO AUSTRALIA.—The Australian colonies of New South Wales, Victoria, Queensland, South Australia and Western Australia and Tasmania and New Zealand have entered the postal union, and the postage from Canada to all these colonies has been reduced to five cents per half ounce for letters, with other rates to correspond.

A STRANGE FIND.—A strange find is reported from Burton, Sunbury county, N. B. Two model war sloops made of lead and of small size with date 1740 engraved on each, were unearthed a few days ago by Thos. Earles and Jacob Barker eight feet from the surface. The find has excited great interest, and all hands in the locality are digging with the expectation of finding treasure.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
