DODGERS SPLIT TWO

Braves Maintain Margin; Yankees Sweep Twin-Bill

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Bob Friend returned to the mound after a losing effort in the first game and squelched a late Brooklyn uprising to nail down a 3-2 nightcap victory for Pittsburgh after the Dodgers had beaten him in the opener of Monday's Labor Day doubleheader 4-3.

The split kept the Dodgers in a second-place tie with Cincinnati, 3½ games behind Milwaukee's National League leaders. The Braves divided a pair with the Redlegs, losing 7-5 after a 3-2 victory.

Righthander Don Larsen, wild but tough, gave just four hits and struck out 10 for his eighth victory in the nightcap as New York Yankees, powered along by Yogi Berra's two home runs that gave Johny Kucks his 18th success in the opener, swept a doubleheader from Baltimore 6-1 and 5-0.

The first-game defeat officially shelved the sixth-place Orioles in the American League race—along with Washington and Kansas City—while bulging the Yankees' first place lead to 8½ games.

INDIANS SPLIT PAIR

Second-place Cleveland Indians split with the lowly Kansas City Athletics, Vic Power driving in three runs with a pair of homers and later crossing the plate with a fourth run as the As won 5-2 in the opener. Cleveland rallied in the ninth inning with a walk, a double by Gene Woodling and a bouncing single by Early Wynn to score two runs and salvage the afternoon game 2-1.

Boston edged up on the third-place White Sox, sweeping a doubleheader from Washington 7-5 and 16-0 as Chicago split a pair with Detroit, losing 11-8 in the opener but taking the nightcap 5-3.

Elsewhere in the National League New York and Philadelphia split a doubleheader, the Phillies taking the opener 5-1 behind Bob Miller's four-hit pitching and the Giants winning 2-1 on some well-timed singles.

Righthander Jim Brosnan, aided by some lusty hitting from Walt Moryn, shut out St. Louis Cardinals 8-0 in the second game after Chicago dropped the first game 4-2.

DRIVES IN WINNER

Friend was summoned from the bullpen with one out in the eighth innning after pinch - hittter Dale Mitchell had singled and Pee Wee Reese had doubled him home to knock out Elroy Face and cut the Pirates' lead to 3-2. He left the potential tying run on second by disposing of the dangerous Duke Snider and Jackie Robinson on routine pop-ups.

Face, however, was credited with the triumph, his 10th against nine defeats. Don Drysdale was the loser.

Don Bessent, in relief, received credit for the Dodgers' first-game victory with the help of some The little left fielder clouted two doubles and a single, his last hit driving in Jackie Robinson in the eighth with the winning run. Friend went all the way for Pittsburgh, giving up 10 hits to be charged with his 14th loss.

Ted Kluszewski's two-run homer in the fifth inning, his 34th of the season, gave the Redlegs their win. The Braves had won the opener on Joe Adcock's single in the ninth. A record 47,604 fans saw the twin bill, which opened an important four-game series.

LARSEN WALKS FIVE

Larsen, who has lost five, almost walked as many as he fanned at New York. In all, he gave seven passes—five in the first three innings. In the third, he walked the first two men he faced, then struck out the next three. Bill Wight, now 8-11, was the loser.

Berra's homers, his 24th and 25th, hoisted the Yankees into a 3-0 first-game lead against Irv Palica. His second, a two-run shot, proved the clincher in the fourth as Kucks sailed in with a seven-hitter.

The Athletics loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth in the afternoon game on a double by Hector Lopez and two walks. But two were out and Wynn got Johnny Groth to hit to Kenny Kuhn, who threw to Bobby Avila at second, forcing Al Pilarcik for the final out.

Wynn scattered eight hits to gain his 16th victory against eight losses. Walley Burnette also pitched an eight-hitter for the As, hurling 8 2-3 innings. The loss was his seventh in 10 starts.

Power's homers in the first game were his 10th and 11th. The victory went to Tom Gorman, his eighth in as many defeats. The defeat was pinned on big Mike Garcia, his 12th of the year against 10 wins.

The White Sox hit four home runs in the second game to gain an even break with Detroit. After the Tigers had run their winning streak to four by taking the opener, the Sox won the nightcap on homers by Larry Doby, Minnie Minoso, Fred Hatfield and Jim Rivera.

Lefthander Billy Pierce saved the victory for Bob Keegan. Al Abert won the first in relief.

Jim Piersall smashed across eight runs and Ted Lepcio batted in five in Boston's sweep over Washington. Tom-Ogewer notched his 18th victory in the second game, when the Red Sox collected 20 hits. Tom Hurd, who replaced Mel Parnell in the first innning, got his third win in the opener.

Dodgers, Flyers Battle To 4-4 Draw In City Playoffs

The Flyers and Dodgers fought to a 4-4 stalemate in the City Baseball League playoffs at Memorial Field Sunday.

Don (Funnell) MacLean carried the Flyers to the tie with his strong pitching arm and his big bat. MacLean releived starter Jack Burke in the third inning and gave up only three hits over the last six innings and in a starring offensive role MacLean blasted a long 2-run homer, a double and single in four trips.

It was one of the most thrilling and best played games of the entire season as the two squads battled it out for 9 innings and made only one error.

However, the error was made by the Flyers and it allowed the Dodgers to score their fourth run in the fifth when the Dodgers scored three runs to take a 4-3 lead.

Ronnie Stanley went the route for the Dodgers although he was hit hard for 12 hits including MacLean's homer and five doubles. Stanley struck out four and walked no one

In his two innnig role Jack Burke gave up three hits including Ken MacDonald's home run blast over the left field fence in the first inning.

Burke struck out one and didn't walk a batter.

MacLaean struck out four and walked four.

Ken MacDonald added a long double to his homer to pace the Dodger hitters. Forbie Kennedy nailed a pair of singles. Smell Gillis slugged a double and Whitlock a single.

R. C. A. F. Flyers Trounce Lions 8-3 To Cop Title

MONDAY'S GAME

Solid pitching by speedballer Norm Haney and a four-run uprising in the fifth inning carried the Flyers to victory and the title Monday at Victoria Park.

Haney was never better as he set down the Lions on only 5 hits, two of which came in the last frame when Barry's crew were making a desperate drive to pull the game out of the fire.

Haney gave up only 3 walks and sent 11 of the Lions down swinging.

Art Ballem, who owned two victories over the Flyers in the series, started the game and hurled fine ball for 4 frames but the roof came in the fifth as a walk and four solid hits knocked in four runs which gave the Flyers a 5-1 lead and the ball game.

Ballem was relieved in the sixth inning by Fred MacDonald, who gave up 1 hit and two runs the rest of the way. Ballem was tagged for eight blows, including a long homer by shortstop Paul Dion which notched the score at 1-1 in the fourth.

Dion added a single to his homer to lead the Flyers with the stick Casbolt clipped a pair of singles.

Big Mike Connolly nailed a double and single for the Lions. Duke MacCallum, Angie Carroll and George Bradley got the others.

N. L. Batting Champ May Have Lowest Average Since 1900

NEW YORK (AP)—There's a distinct possibility that this year's National League batting champion may finish with one of the lowest averages compiled by a leader since 1900.

Wally Moon of St. Louis Cardinals and Milwaukee's Hank Aaron are waging a duel for the batting title with Moon holding a three-point edge as the season moves into its final month. Moon is hitting .325 and Aaron .322 through games of Sunday.

The lowest average to win a National League batting crown was .320, recorded by Larry Doyle of New York Giants in 1915. Only three other times has the leader wound up with .330 or under. Jake Daubert of Brooklyn hit .329 in 1914, Cincinnati's Edd Roush .321 in 1919 and Ernie Lombardi of Boston .330 in 1942.

[illegible], the leader a week ago, [illegible] points with 5-for-25. [illegible]

The Giants' Red Schoendienst remains third at .316 despite a four-point dip, followed by Pittsburgh's Bill Virdon and Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati tied for fourth at .314. Virdon gained three points while Big Klu's average failed to change.

MANTLE STILL ON TOP

Mighty Mickey Mantle of New York Yankees continues to head the American League batting parade with .362. The slugging switch-hitter collected five hits in 16 trips as his average fell off two points. Mantle also maintains his home run supremacy with 47 and he is tops in runs batted in with 118.

Boston's Ted Williams is runnerup to Mantle in the batting race with .344. Williams boosted his average two points with 6-for-16, but he has been to bat only 317 times. In order to qualify for the crown a player must have 400 at bats. The Thumper has to average [illegible] bats in his team's 26 remaining games if he is to be eligible.

Baltimore's Bob Nieman ranks third at .334. Then come Harvey Kuenn of Detroit in fourth at .330 and Charley Maxwell, also of the Tigers, fifth with .325. Nieman gained seven points last week, Kuenn three and Maxwell four.

Brooklyn's Duke Snider still is setting the pace in the National League home run race with 37, while Stan Musial of St. Louis has taken over the RBI lead from Kluszewski. Musial has 96 and
