

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Monday, the 29th ultimo, Edward J. McKenna, son of Mr. John A. McKenna, of this city, took passage in the steamship C. America for Halifax, where he had some business to transact. On the Thursday following, Mr. McKenna received a telegram from that city announcing the death, by drowning, of his son, in Halifax Harbor, on the evening of the previous day, (Wednesday.) We may naturally suppose that the receipt of this tragic intelligence, must have appalled the friends of the deceased, as it did the community generally—in which he was well and favorably known. Under ordinary circumstances, the idea of death is sorrowful and repulsive enough, but in cases of this kind, the feelings of mourning relatives are additionally shocked by the suddenness of the calamity and the melancholy circumstances surrounding it. We sympathize with the bereaved in their heavy affliction, and we sincerely hope that a merciful Providence will, in the course of a short time, assuage their poignant and overpowering grief. Not twelve months ago, they were called upon to mourn the sudden loss of an affectionate wife and mother, and now again, in the inscrutable wisdom of God, their nearly-healed wounds are opened afresh. "In the midst of life we are in death,"—and melancholy as this calamity is, we may all learn from it the lesson so to live that we may be ever prepared for the visit of the fell Destroyer which spares neither age, sex, nor condition. Death is the only real leveler, and with an equal step, as a pagan poet informs us, knocks alike at the cottage of the peasant and the costly mansion of the rich. Through the kindly offices of friends in Halifax,—among others, His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown, who was there on a visit at the time—the body was carefully attended to, and forwarded to Charlottetown for sepulture by the steamship Alhambra, which arrived here early on Sunday morning last. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from Mr. McKenna's residence, Powell Street, and, after leaving St. Dunstan's Cathedral, was attended by the largest concourse of people we have ever witnessed upon like occasions in Charlottetown. Besides several ecclesiastics and a large body of all classes of citizens, the Irish Volunteer Company, under command of Capt. McIntyre, the Benevolent Irish Society and the Steam Fire Engine Company, of each of which the deceased was a member, turned out in force, and added materially to the length, and imposing appearance of the cortege. After reading the burial service by the Very Rev. Dr. McDonald, the usual salute was fired over the grave by a detachment of the Irish Volunteer Company, detailed for the purpose. The deceased was twenty-two years of age. May he rest in peace.

THE AMENDMENTS to the Free Education Act shadowed forth in the speech by which His Excellency opened the Legislature, have been restricted to the following particulars:—
1st. That the salaries of the teachers be paid in full out of the Treasury on the basis of the salaries allowed by 26 Victoria, cap. 5, instead of partly by the Treasury, and partly by the people. Teachers of each class, until they have taught for three years, shall receive five pounds a year less salary than those who have taught for upwards of that time.
2d. That the payment in full from the Treasury shall commence from the end of the now current quarter of this engagement.
3rd. That the average attendance of scholars shall be calculated at the end of each half year, instead of at the end of each quarter, as now required under the said Act.
These amendments by no means constitute an adequate provision for the educational wants of the colony, and the Government, in introducing them, claimed indulgence on the ground that time did not admit of a more thorough revision of the Education Act. In saying this, we are not to be understood as being opposed to the amendments introduced; on the contrary, we heartily approve of them, and accorded to them, in our place in the House of Assembly, our best support, but we have long been of opinion that our whole Educational system requires to be revised, and placed upon a footing which will give general satisfaction, and answer the designs which the Christian parent or state contemplates in providing the means or educating children—namely, to make them intelligent, moral and useful members of society. Before the question comes up again, which we have been given to understand it will be next session, we shall endeavor, in these columns, to give an idea of the amendments required in this Colony in our Education Laws. In doing so, we hope to avail ourselves of the experience of other countries, by which to guide us to a sound conclusion, and of gentlemen who have had the means of comparing various systems, and judging which is best.

GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENTS.

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council has been pleased to make the following appointments, viz:—
Mr. George McKay, to be Collector of Impost and Excise, and Controller of Navigation Laws for the Port of New London, in the place of John C. Sims, Esquire.
John T. Jenkins, Esquire, M. R. C. S., to be Health Officer for the Port of Charlottetown, in terms of the Act 19th Vic. Cap. 5, in the place of the Hon. Henry A. Johnston, resigned.
Mr. Peter Martin, of Charlottetown, to be a Preventive Officer and Land Wharf, in terms of the Act 19 Vic., cap. 1.
Mr. Matthew Murphy, to be Wharfinger for the Wharf at Minchin's Point, in the place of Mr. W. H. Farquharson.
Mr. Adam Leard, to be Wharfinger for the Wharf at Crapaud, in the place of Mr. Thomas Crawford.
Mr. Henry E. McKay, to be Wharfinger for Princetown Wharf.
Mr. Michael S. McAuliffe, to be Wharfinger for the Wharf at Cascumpey, in the place of Mr. John White.

The Catholic Church in the United States has sustained two severe losses within a few days. Dr. Spaulding, who was a short time ago translated from Louisville to the Prinsal Sea of Baltimore, died of inflammation of the bowels. He was the author of several works, historical and controversial, and was an eloquent preacher, an erudite scholar, and profound theologian. He was comparatively young. Dr. Timon, Bishop of Buffalo, was a man of the most fervent zeal and indomitable energy, and he leaves behind him numerous monuments of his administration. He was 71 years of age, Bishop Timon was first cousin to the late Hon. Hugh Bell of this city.

AN ISLANDER ABROAD.

The Rev. Edward C. Anderson, formerly a professor in Kalamazoo College, and a graduate of Newton Theological Institution in the class of 1835, arrived in San Francisco about the middle of December, en route to Portland, Oregon, where he has an appointment to labor as pastor under the auspices of the American Baptist Home Mission Society. A man of much experience, both as a pastor and educator, he is eminently fitted to be stationed at Portland, and to advise in the educational and evangelizing enterprises of the denomination in the States. Portland is becoming a very important place; it has a good name for stability, growth and enterprise.—Watchman and Reflector.

[The above named gentleman is the second eldest son of the late Mr. David Anderson, East Point, P. E. I.—Is.]
At 5 o'clock on Sunday morning last, a man was found lying speechless at the corner of Dr. Hobkirk's platform. He was immediately conveyed to the Police Court, and on examination it was discovered that his spine was broken. From the footmarks under one of the windows, it is supposed that he was attempting to break into the house, and while so engaged, fell down and injured himself.—Put.

At a meeting of the "Summerside Fishing Company," on Monday last, it was decided to abandon the project, and sell the vessel and effects. Any person wanting a good vessel such as is the "Summerside," will do well to attend the sale, as a bargain may be had.—S. J.

MORE ABOUT STEPHENS.—I hear that Mr. Stephens has fallen into sad disrepute with the Fenian lot here for declining to risk life and limb in the cause, and speaking in a jocular manner of the miscarriage of the rising. Should not this be a lesson to the deluded men who have risked everything to make James Stephens President of the Irish Republic? The Duc de Fessenaz relates how Napoleon when he got back to the Tuilleries, after his retreat from Moscow, swarmed himself at a blazing fire, and said, "Ah! this is better than Russia." Not a word of commiseration for his soldiers who were dying by the thousand; and, avea componere magnis, James Stephens grows merry over the fate of those whom he led to take up arms against the Queen.—[Letter from Paris.]

James Stephens and his staff are still here, but I imagine that the great leader, whose greatest exploit has been to baffle pursuit, has lost all credit in Ireland in more ways than one. He desired to establish a regular office in this city, from whence to direct the Fenian bands in Ireland. Mr. Stephens laid the matter before the improper authorities in New York, but the Chancellor of the Exchequer objected to the terms of the late Head Centre, especially "a nice little cottage for himself." I believe I am not far wrong in saying that this demand for a cottage was one of the things which awakened the suspicions of the Transatlantic Centres as to the disinterestedness of James Stephens. Head-off, which lean upon him, consider him innocuous, and they are entitled to the Shakespearean praise of sticking to him:—
"They that can endure
To follow with allegiance a fallen lord,
Do conquer him that did their master conquer,
And earn a place in the story."
—Letter from Paris.

FROM COLONIAL EXCHANGES.

LONDON, 27, (evening.)

LONDON, April 27th (eve.)
Queen Victoria has written a letter to the King of Prussia, in which she takes ground in favor of the recently expressed provision of France in regard to the disposition of the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg, and advises him to accede to the plan of compromise to which the Emperor Napoleon is willing to accede.

LONDON, April 29.
The European conference, which is to meet in London next month, to settle the dispute between France and Prussia in regard to Luxemburg, will be composed of representatives from Great Britain, France, Prussia, Austria, Russia, and the King of Holland as the Grand Duke of Luxemburg.—It is understood that the following terms have been agreed upon at Paris for the deliberations of Conference:—First, France is not to enlarge her present boundaries; second, the fortifications of Luxemburg are to be evacuated and dismantled; third, the future political status of the Grand Duchy is to be guaranteed by all the Governments participating in them.

LONDON, April 30th.
Parliament resumed its session yesterday in the House of Commons.—Last night, Lord Stanley, in answer to a question, said that the propositions for a peace congress had been accepted by France and Prussia, and said he was of the opinion that the Luxemburg affair would be satisfactorily settled.

Medical Notices.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Rheumatism and Gout—These purifying and soothing remedies demand the earnest attention of all persons liable to rheumatism, gout, sciatica, or other painful affections of the muscles, nerves, or joints. The Ointment should be applied after the affected parts have been patiently fomented with warm water, when the urgent should be diligently rubbed upon the adjacent skin, unless the friction should cause pain. Holloway's Pills should be simultaneously taken, to reduce inflammation and to purify the blood. This treatment abates the violence, and lessens the frequency, of gout, rheumatism, and all spasmodic diseases which spring from hereditary predisposition, or from any accidental weakness of constitution. The Ointment checks the local malady, the Pills restore the vital powers.

"Brown's Bronchial Troches" are the most popular article in this country or Europe for Throat Diseases and Coughs, and this popularity is based upon real merit which cannot be said of many other preparations in the market which are really but weak imitations of the genuine Troches.

An old and well-tried remedy. Mr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, has stood the test of thirty years. Millions of mothers can testify that it is reliable and perfectly safe in all cases. Relieves the child from pain, softens the gums, regulates the bowels, gives an infant, troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest. Price, 35 cents a bottle.

Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges contain no form of mercury, and which many warm remedies owe their efficacy. The ingredients are well calculated for the purposes they are intended to accomplish, having been used with success by eminent medical men in Europe April 10

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND.

Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer
Travellers are always liable to sudden attacks of dysentery and cholera morbus, and these occurring when absent from home are very unpleasant. Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer may always be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms take one teaspoonful in a gill of new milk and molasses, and a gill of hot water. Stir well together and drink hot. Repeat the dose every hour until relieved. If the pain be severe bathe the bowels and back with the medicine, clear.

Fishermen, so often exposed to hurts by having their skin pierced with hooks and fins of fish, can be much relieved by bathing with a little Pan killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon abated; bath as often as once in five minutes, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Is a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has proved, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scorfula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blisters, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this SARSAPARILLA, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scorfula in the blood, and are often soon cured by this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

Do not reject this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Neuralgia, and as a Dinner Pill, are unequalled.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them with pleasure and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere.
