

THERE will be a meeting of the City Council this evening at 7.30.

THE mails were obliged to return to Cape Tormentine this forenoon.

The "Northern Light" left Pictou this forenoon at 11 o'clock, with twenty-five passengers, and a large quantity of freight.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this morning, James Goodman appeared for an assault on Patrick Dunn. He was remanded till to-morrow.

THE House of Assembly has not yet got into working order—the Ministry and its supporters are busy with committees and seeking petty offices for friends during the Session. Davies has very strong family attachments, and we believe there are still two or three of his relations out of offices.

THE thaw of last week opened Casimpe harbor in past the wharves. There is now nothing to prevent shipping enterprise from waking up again. There is, however, some floating ice outside, though there does not appear to be anything like a large body.—Pioneer.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Wm. Carroll, a horse dealer of London, Ont., while driving near Newmarket Race Course shortly after dark on the 11th, was assailed by four highwaymen, who mounted his wagon, threw him down and rifled his pockets, taking his watch and the small amount of money left after making extensive purchases.

WE hear that a secret resolution was passed at a meeting in Georgetown to the effect that, rather than see the "Northern Light" running on any other route than that between Georgetown and Pictou, the gentleman present would engage to haul her up on to the public square, and guard her there as an object to break the monotony of the scenery, and be as a guide to travelers wandering over that dreary prairie after night fall.

THIS morning the regular train from Souris ran off the track near St. Andrew's. It happened to be the carriage next to the Engine, which was heavily loaded with logs, that left the way. The damage done to the track, for about 150 yards, is considerable. The passengers were conveyed on the locomotive from Mount Stewart in time to catch the train from Georgetown to the city.

ABOUT a week ago an aged woman by the name of Mrs. Blackwood left her home in St. John's to visit her children, who were married in Asphalt. Not putting in an appearance there, diligent search was made for her during the week, but no trace of her could be found until yesterday (Monday) morning, when her lifeless body was found in the woods near Asphalt. Dr. Jonstone, coroner, held an inquest over the body yesterday, but we have not heard what the verdict was.—Pictou Standard.

AN ENTERTAINMENT, under the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown, will be given by the members of the St. Patrick's T. A. Society in the Market Hall, on Monday evening next. The persons to whom the management of this entertainment is entrusted have spared no pains to secure the services of those who will serve to make it the best of the season. There are on the programme the names of Messrs. Caven, Hermans, Vinnicombe, Fletcher and Mrs. Pennee, and Misses Rankin and Doyle, nearly all first class vocalists and instrumentalists.

THERE was a very large market to-day. The upper and lower departments were crowded with a plentiful display of meat and other articles. The prices are as follows:—Butter (fresh) from 21 to 25 cents; butter (tub) from 22 to 22 cents; eggs (per dozen) from 14 to 16 cents; turkeys, from 90 cents to $1.50 each; fowls (each) from 20 to 35 cents; pork (carcass) from 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents; beef (quarter) from 6 to 10 cents; beef (small) from 8 to 14 cents; mutton (per lb.) from 6 to 12 cents; potatoes, from 25 to 30 cents per bushel; hay (per 100 lbs.) 90 to $1.00; oats, from 40 to 42 cents per bushel.

THE Grand Sacred Concert held in the Church at Cardigan Bridge, last night, passed off very successfully. The unfavorable weather must have prevented many from attending; still it was surprising to see the large church closely packed with people from the surrounding country and villages. The Concert was under the direction of Mrs. Pennee, of Charlottetown. We are in duty bound to distribute our meed of praise, among the various performers, but we are satisfied that all present will cheerfully admit that, where everyone acted so creditably, it would be unfair to make invidious distinctions. We certainly think that the parishioners of Cardigan Bridge are deeply indebted to those who assisted and worked so industriously to crown the undertaking with success. The very handsome sum of $100 realized, at this season, is indeed a good evidence of how the Concert was appreciated.—Advertiser.

THE Oddfellows' reunion at the "Revere House" last night, was in every respect most enjoyable. At 10.30 the company sat down to a sumptuous dinner, which reflected the greatest credit upon the hostess, and fully sustained the reputation of the hotel. After this, the first part of the programme, was concluded, the usual standard and volunter toasts were proposed and responded to in a pleasant and appropriate manner, some of the speeches on the occasion being brimful of wit and good humor. At 3 o'clock this morning the toast "Our next merry meeting," brought the programme to a close, after which the brethren departed in peace in harmony. It would be well to mention that the toasts were all drunk in cold water. This example is worthy of imitation. One could not but notice the fact that, when Odd Fellows assemble together, they are as one, and vie with each other in promoting kindly feelings and fraternal courtesies.

WAR NEWS.

Special Dispatch to Examiner.

LONDON, March 14.

In reply to a question in the Commons, this afternoon, Northcote said that the Government had agreed in principle to take part in the Conference. The Government were now communicating with the Powers regarding the terms on which we enter the Congress. He could not enter into details, but he might say that in the Congress each Power would maintain its liberty of action. It was not intended that the majority should bind the minority.

England will maintain her views in the Congress and will require, before entering it, that every article of the Treaty of Peace shall be placed before the Congress in such a manner that the Congress may judge whether the articles are to be accepted or not.

St. PETERSBURG, March 14.

The Agency Russe, commenting on the London Times' Berlin dispatch intimating that secret arrangements had been made between Russia and Turkey, says that Russia is not so confiding as to conclude secret clauses with Turkey when she knows that the slightest transaction is communicated to Minister Layard.

In regard to England's claim of right to examine the whole of the treaty at the Congress, and withdraw certain contingencies, the Agency points out that every power will enter the Congress with full liberty as to the attitude it may assume relative to the claims brought forward and decisions arrived at.

The Committee rejected the demand of the War Minister for 650,000 florins, for military stores.

LONDON, March 14.

In the Commons to-night Sir Robert Peel objected to Lord Lyons' representing England in the Congress, because his opinions were opposite to those of Mr. Layard and Sir Henry Elliott. To the Editor of the Examiner:

FAREWELL TO FULTZ.—A short week since, an advertisement promised to the people of Souris a first-class newspaper, early in March. Every preparation was made for its reception. Ladies had collected manuscript poems and tit-bits, to have them printed for their scrap-books; poets, looking through blue glass spectacles, had been paying more intense devotions to the moon and the breaker; rivals had been planning anonymous warfare; petty politicians had been patching rejected articles; and merchants had blocked out flaming advertisements. But all is vanity. We learn from the DAILY EXAMINER that Fultz is not coming. We must remain paperless and obscure. It was unkind of Mr. Fultz to feed our hopes, first with the promise of one paper—next with the promise of a second—and then to make them kill one another before they were born. If he ventures to visit disappointed and indignant Souris within the present century, he may expect a warm reception. Souris can support four or five papers, if disposed to; and who made Mr. Fultz a judge of its ability? A long farewell both to the Souris Tribune and the lily-livered Fultz. EASTERN BOY.
