AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifling with the majority of sufferers.
The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unobtrusive ex-posure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."
—HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, —MRS. EMMA GEDNEY,
159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."
—A. J. CRANE,
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 12, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."
—JOSEPH WALDEN,
Sylvania, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."
—E. BRAGDON,
Tulsa, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

The Patriotic Fund.

CHARLOTTETOWN, 6th July, 1885.

To His Worship the Mayor of Halifax: SIR—We beg to inclose the balance of the fund raised here for the benefit of the families of your Militia doing duty in the North West.

We regret the delay which has occurred, but trust that it can still be made useful in the hands of your Relief Committee.

We have the honor to remain, Yours,
(Sgd.) R. R. FITZGERALD, Chairman Com.
(Sgd.) JAMES D. IRVING, Major and Brigade Major.

HALIFAX, 8th July, 1885.

To R. R. Fitzgerald and Brigade Major Irving, Charlottetown:

DEAR SIRS.—Your esteemed favor of the 6th inst., covering $111.05 in addition to former amount is to hand, and has been handed to the Treasurer.

We disburse from $1200 to $1500 per month to wives and children of our soldiers, and we expect some of them will want clothes, etc., when they return, and a lift lift they obtain employment. One man died on the way out, and another fine young fellow was drowned in the Saskatchewan. Unless something further happens we expect no further casualties till they return.

On behalf of the committee, I beg most heartily to thank you and the people of Charlottetown for your sympathy and substantial assistance, which we will ever be grateful for.

I am, dear sir,
Yours truly,
(Sgd.) J. C. MACKINTOSH, Mayor.

The Tea at North River.

GREEN, green, green, the boundless luxury of overflowing verdure everywhere, spreading over the fields, rolling through the woods, smiling in the wayside plants, quivering on the leaves, shadowed in the hollows, flashing on the hillsides, an endless sheen of living emerald; jewel-white homesteads everywhere nestling their dove-like peacefulness in the shadowed skirts of nature's richness,—that is P. E. Island scenery, everywhere. And North River is no exception to the general rule. Indeed, we don't know but the breath of its meadows is a little sweeter than common.
Then there is the beauty of its river winding a silver pathway among the varied headlands, away to where the purple hills support the matchless blue of the summer sky.

The trip up the river to the tea grounds in the steamer Southport, was enjoyable as sparkling sunshine, the fresh breeze from the rippling wave, lovely scenery, and an obliging crew could make it.

The tea ground was well chosen on a clean, fresh pasture near the church, and no pains were spared by the committee to make every arrangement conducive to comfort and enjoyment. The spread on the tables was of the best and most bounteous, and reflected much credit on the ladies of the settlement who supplied it.

A large gathering was present, about $300 was realized, and altogether the occasion was one of the pleasantest of the season.

Dr. Day, of Nova Scotia, was present, and also Revs. E. Whitman, J. O. Reddin, and J. A. Ford, late of Acadia Atheneum.
Hon. D. Ferguson was also out enjoying the society of his friends.—Com.

The Whirligig of Time.

A GREAT DAY FOR JEWS GENERALLY, AND THE ROTHSCHILD'S IN PARTICULAR.

On the 9th inst., an occurrence in the House of Lords possesses great interest to Hebrews throughout the world, and is destined to become historic. Lord Rothschild took the peacemaking oath, escorted by the Earl of Rosebery, husband of Hannah Rothschild, daughter of the late Baron Mayer, and Lord Carrington, son of that Lord Carrington who, during ten years of contention, from 1848 to 1858, voted against the bill admitting Lord Rothschild's father, Baron Lionel, to the House of Commons.

Several peers who fought in the latter period against tory bigotry were present to see the revenge that the whirligig of time had brought. In the gallery were the proud and happy faces of Lady Rosebery, Lady Rothschild, Lady Anthony de Rothschild, Miss Alice de Rothschild, Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild, and Mr. Alfred de Rothschild, who watched the proceedings. The oath was taken with great solemnity on a Hebrew copy of the Pentateuch, held by Deputy Clerk Ralph Disraeli, brother of the late Earl of Beaconsfield, while Lord Rothschild stood with his head covered. Then, as the first Hebrew peer took his seat on the front opposition bench below the gangway, all his colleagues cheered. Doubtless, many recalled how, in the year 1290, from London all Jews were driven into foreign exile, pursued by the execrations of the rabble, and leaving in the hands of the crown all their property.

Mr. Borradaile, Collector of Inland Revenue, of Halifax, and a Canadian, has lately become connected with a family who can claim a long and noble descent. The Herald says: "Lieut. Dent, who married Miss Borradaile the other day, is the son of a gallant admiral. Sir Charles Calmady Dent married the lady Selina-Arabella-Luce, second daughter of the 11th earl of Huntington. Therefore Lieut. Dent is grandson of the 11th, nephew of the 12th, and cousin of the right honorable Francis Power Plantagenet Hastings, 15th Earl of Huntington. The family of Hastings came to England with the Conqueror. They were barons till 1529. The 2nd earl married a descendant of George Plantagenet, duke of Clarence, brother of King Edward the 4th.
