NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market after three straight daily declines advanced Thursday on news of a United States move aimed at easing the Viet Nam war if the Hanoi government would go along with it.
As reflected by the Dow Jones Industrial average, the market went from a loss of 3.90 at 11:30 a.m. to a net gain of 4.18 to close at 797.77. From the bottom of the loss, there was a rise of 8.06 points in the Dow industrial.
The Associated Press average stocks rose 5.4 to 286.8 with industrials up 1.4, rails up .1 and utilities off .2.
Among actively traded high flyers, Fairchild Camera went back 4 1/2 points of the 14 1/2 points it lost as Wednesday's most active stock.
PEACE HOPE WELCOMED
The recovery of stocks on prospects of peace was explained by analysts as being based on hope that the dislocations caused by the Viet Nam hostilities would be eliminated rather than an accentuated as time goes on.
Volume was 5,770,000 shares compared with 5,360,000 Wednesday.
Other background factors included the advance of the consumer price index to another record—a reminder of inflation—and word that General Motors also was increasing prices. It is its 1967 model autos, but only about half as much as Chrysler and Ford had GM stock was up 1/4. Chrysler gained 1/4 and Ford was unchanged.
Canadian stocks were mixed. Alcan and Canadian Pacific gained 1/4. Granby Mining and International Nickel lost 1/4.

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Fri., Sept. 23, 1966, 17

the Viet Nam conflict spurred an afternoon rally on the Toronto Stock Exchange Thursday and wiped out heavy morning losses.

The market appeared headed for its fourth consecutive day of drop when news of the offer spread.

At Toronto, the industrial index gained 1.9 to 145.46 after it had been as low as 144.83.

Royal Bank rose 1 1/2 to 69 1/2. Falconbridge added 1/4 to 88 1/2 and Massey-Ferguson 1/4 to 24 1/2.

CHRYSLER DOWN
