78 Great George St. Charlottetown

Mr. Stanley Mol, member of the Canadian Real Estate Association, has announced the opening of his new office at 78 Great George Street, Charlottetown, near the Travel Bureau in a ground floor location where he is ready to serve the public. Mr. Mol specializes in industrial, commercial and residential property and has had a wide experience both personally and with clients in successfully dealing with rural property and associated fields.

Mr. Mol has taken up residence in Prince Edward Island with his wife and three sons, David aged 12, Leonard aged 9, students at Queen Charlotte High School and Prince Street School, and Calvin aged 3. Mr. Mol and family have been living in Prince Edward Island since April 1961 and reside at Clyde River.

Mr. Mol has been active in the real estate field in Ontario and realizing the expanding opportunities in Prince Edward Island, made a decision to remove his family East. Mr. Mol is becoming known to an increasing number of Prince Edward Islanders as an active, honest and conscientious real estate broker who can handle the most complicated real estate transactions on a confidential basis.

Mr. Mol has a number of industrial and commercial listings of more than ordinary interest and is presently taking listings on a wide variety of residential and rural farm properties. He has had a heavy volume of inquiries for Prince Edward Island property from points in the Maritimes, Ontario and the West, one of his inquiries which may result in a new settler coming to Prince Edward Island originated in the North West Territories.

Mr. Mol is an enthusiastic Islander, by adoption, who envisions a whole new future for Prince Edward Island as it opens up to new commercial ventures. Mr. Mol considers the majority of Prince Edward Islanders to be far seeing and ready to share in the prosperity which awaits them if they can seize opportunity when it arrives. Mr. Mol is an enthusiastic salesman for Prince Edward Island.
