

Red Sox Defeat Chicago Tigers Drop Washington

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Ted Williams slammed three homers Wednesday—giving him a total of four in his last five times at bat—to power Boston Red Sox to their fourth straight victory, a 4-1 triumph over the slumping Chicago White Sox.

Williams hammered three home runs in a row, hitting a pair in his first two trips Wednesday after his ninth-inning two-run smash Tuesday night had given Boston a 4-3 victory over the Sox.

Detroit Tigers blasted four Washington pitchers for 12 hits in the other American League day game and sent the last-place Senators spinning to their 10th straight defeat 11-3.

The only National League day game was at New York, where catcher Hal Smith drove in six runs with a homer and two singles as St. Louis Cardinals clubbed the crippled Giants 13-4.

MOON HITS FIFTH

Wally Moon clouted his fifth homer of the year with two aboard in the fifth and Stan Musial rapped three singles to increase his career total to 2,812 hits. That tied him with George Sisler for 20th place in the all-time hit parade.

The Senators got to Detroit starter Duke Maas for 10 safe hits in the first five innings, but Jim Bunning came on and didn't allow them another hit the rest of the way. The victory went to Maas, his fourth in a row after one defeat.

The Tigers broke the game open with four runs in the fifth inning, sending 10 men to the plate against Russ Kemmerer and Dick Hyde. Kemmerer, making his second start since being obtained from Boston, felled to retire a batter in the fifth.

NINTH FOR WILLIAMS

Taking advantage of a brisk tailwind at Chicago, Williams lofted a four-bagger into Comiskey Park's right field upper deck in the first inning and parked one in the left field lower stands in the third. He found the target again in the eighth, banging one into the top right field tier to score Billy Klaus.

The league-leading hitter, hiking his mark to 474, now has collected nine homers for the season. He didn't bag that many last year until July 26, winding up with 24.

The only other time Williams hit as many as three homers in one game was July 14, 1946 against Cleveland, the day the famous "Boudreau shift" was born in attempting to stop him.

BROOKLYN (AP)—Don Hoak's bases-filled home run off Don Newcombe in the eighth offset a three-run counter-blast by Brooklyn in its half of the inning and gave the Cincinnati Reds their ninth consecutive victory Wednesday night, 7-6.

The triumph concluded the Reds' eastern swing, which resulted in victories in all nine games. Not since 1940 when Cincinnati went on to win the pennant has a team from the Rhineland swept an eastern trip.

The victory at only boosted the Reds past Brooklyn into second place, by a half game but it marked the first time pitcher Warren Hacker has been able to defeat the Dodgers since July 19, 1954. The righthander needed help from Herschel Freeman in the eighth to end a personal eighth game losing streak to the Dodgers.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Indians battered four New York Yankees for 13 hits, including three home runs, and their second straight from the Yankees, 10-4 Wednesday night. Three-run homers by Vic Vore and Gene Woodling and a two-run blast by rookie Roger Maris helped Early Wynn post his third victory.

Mickey Mantle's fourth homer of the season accounted for the first three Yankee runs.

Starter Art Ditmar went to the showers in the fourth inning after giving up a walk, three singles, and Wertz's three-run homer into the right field stands, his first of the year.

Tommy Byrne, the losing pitcher, replaced Ditmar and could retire only four of the 2 batters he faced. He gave up five Indians' runs. He was replaced in the sixth by Bob Grim after Woodling's homer over the rightfield fence.

Wynn gave up nine hits but weakened with two out in the eighth and Ray Narleski came in with the bases filled to finish the game.

ISRAEL CENSURED

JERUSALEM (AP)—The UN mixed armistice commission, with the Israel delegation absent, censured Israel Wednesday for firing artillery shells into Jordan territory last Thursday and Sunday. The commission is made up of two Jordan and two Israel delegates under a UN chairman. Israel has boycotted the commission since last summer.

Herb Score's Eye Will Be Saved; Gil Not To Quit

By JOHN R. MORGANTHALER

CLEVELAND (AP)—Doctors were hopeful Wednesday that a line drive that smacked Herb Score in the eye won't stop his meteoric rise as the most promising young pitcher in baseball.

The 23-year-old million-dollar southpaw of the Cleveland Indians won't lose the eyeball, but it's too early to tell whether the vision will be impaired, Dr. Charles I. Thomas said.

"The eye will be saved," the eye specialist said. "It is beginning to clear up. I can't tell yet the full extent of the damage. Because of the eye hemorrhage it is like looking through a fog." Fortunately, the ball struck him flush. It caught the top of the eyebrow bone, the cheek bone and nose. The nose was fractured. It appears the bone structure of his face absorbed most of the impact that would have destroyed the eye. There is no brain injury.

GIL WON'T QUIT

The doctor gave that report to Gil McDougald of the New York Yankees, who hit the drive that felled Score in the first inning of Tuesday night's game.

McDougald, near tears in the dressing room Tuesday night, told a reporter he would quit baseball.

Robinson Rejects Proposal To Box

NEW YORK (AP)—Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson rejected Wednesday a proposal to defend his title against welterweight king Carmen Basilio in July. He said he would rather fight in September.

Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, told Robinson he would like to promote the fight at Yankee Stadium in early July.

"It could be real hot then," said Robinson, who regained the middleweight crown from Gene Fullmer May 1. "I have a mental block about fighting on hot nights ever since the Joey Maxim fight. If we make the fight, it will have to be in September."

Robinson collapsed from heat prostration in the 14th round of his light-heavyweight title fight with Maxim at Yankee Stadium, June 25, 1952. He had been far ahead when he collapsed from the 104-degree heat.

Redleg Manager Is Cheerful Over Possible Player Loss

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP)—When Birdie Tebbetts has nothing good to say about his ball club he doesn't say anything.

He'd find something good to say if he were managing the Elm Street Tigers instead of Cincinnati Redlegs, even if his only comment was that the boys were the best he ever saw at mashing up double plays. Loyal, that's Birdie.

Just now the conversation centres about the probable loss of Ted Kluszewski for the season, a rather dreary outlook.

"Nobody is writing us off because we lost the biggest man in the league," Tebbetts said. "Sully, or the Braves lost Hank Aaron, or the Cardinals lost Stan Musial. They'd say the club losing one of those men was a disaster. When we lost Klu, they just said: 'Well, they've got George Crowe.'"

"The truth is, we have the best replacement bench in baseball. There is a misconception about a bench. As a matter of fact there are two types of benches. There is the hitting bench and the replacement bench.

"A hitting bench has men who can go in and hit for you, but a bench has men who can pinch hit and then go in and play for the me. They hit for.

The Redlegs went on a winning streak without Kluszewski, after some distressing experiences with Milwaukee.

"I think the players dig in and do better when a big man is lost," he said. "There is an unconscious tendency in baseball, or anything, to lean on the big man on the theory that he's getting paid to carry the load."

It was mentioned that the acquisition of Don Hoak had paid off very well. Tebbetts agreed with considerable enthusiasm.

"He's given us a good infield," he said. "He's played fine ball at third base and is hitting well, chiefly because he's not swinging for the fences. So many fellows without real power try to be power hitters."

He pondered a moment, then reached a conclusion. "We have a real good chance, even without big Klu."

Columbus Downs Montreal Royals

MONTREAL (CP)—Columbus outfielder Russ Sullivan teamed with slugging infielder Ken Toothman Wednesday night to lead the Jets to a 9-5 International League victory over the floundering Montreal Royals.

Toothman drove in five runs on a single and a three-run homer, while Sullivan slugged a double and three singles in five times at bat. Toothman added to the Columbus total by stealing home in the sixth inning.

Montreal used four pitchers, with the loss going to starter Billy Harris, who was tagged for eight hits and six of the Jets' runs in 5 1-3 innings.

Remember When

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Mervyn (Red) Dutton was appointed managing director of the National Hockey League 14 years ago today, a few months after the death of Frank Calder, who had been president since the formation of the NHL. Later becoming president, Mr. Dutton retired from that post in 1946 and was succeeded by Clarence S. Campbell.

Fighters Will Arrive In Charlottetown This Morning

Ivan Doherty, local boxing promoter announced last evening that the fighters for his opening boxing card which he is presenting on Friday night at the Sports Arena, will arrive today from New York, with the exception of Henry Nelson who may not arrive until Friday morning.

All fighters will weigh in at 7:30 tonight with doctor's examinations following after which they will take part in light workouts along with our local boys.

The Nelson-Hill fight should be a ding-dong battle all the way as both boxers will have their eye
